Brooklyn Bar Association Volunteer Lawyers Project (2003-2004). I formed my firm, The Law Office of Rachel S. Blumenfeld PLLC in 2004 where I specialize in all types of bankruptcy cases representing debtors creditors and trustees.

IV. General pertinent experience:

20+ years representing debtors, creditors, trustees, landlords and other parties in interest in chapter 7, chapter 13 and chapter 11 bankruptcy cases as well as adversary proceedings.

V. Mediation training:

In 2013, I completed a three-day mediation training course sponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute and St. John's University School of Law, the Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution mediation training program (40 hours). I have been appointed as a mediator in numerous bankruptcy cases for the Eastern District of New York.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have over 20 years of bankruptcy experience. I am Board Certified in Consumer and Business Bankruptcy Law. In August of 2016 I was asked by the Hon. Carla E. Craig, Chief Judge for the Eastern District of New York, to Co-Chair the Consumer Lawyer Advisory Committee and I have been Co-Chairing the committee since then.

Since my 2013 formal mediation training, I have been appointed as a mediator on multiple matters involving trustees and parties in interest in the Eastern District of New York, including preference and fraudulent conveyance actions.

I have served as a co-chair and panelist for numerous continuing legal education programs including the Practising Law Institute, the New York City Bar Association, and the Brooklyn Bar Association. I have lectured at Brooklyn Law School and Fordham Law School. I am an adjunct professor at St. John's University School of Law.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

Throughout my years as a bankruptcy practitioner, I have been involved in hundreds of matters that have settled due to my efforts in conjunction with other parties and their counsel. I have represented debtors and creditors in hundreds of bankruptcy cases. I have also represented trustee's. I have appeared as an expert in bankruptcy law for dispute resolution in JAMS mediation.

I successfully represented Debtors in one of the the first confirmed subchapter V cases nationwide. In June of 2019 I was one of only three bankruptcy attorneys invited by Judge Cecelia G. Morris, S.D.N.Y. Bankruptcy Court to staff the pro se legal clinic for the S.D.N.Y. (Manhattan Division).
