III. General professional experience:

Practicing bankruptcy attorney for over fifty (50) years, specifically in representing debtors and other claimants under the Bankruptcy Code, including related litigation.

IV. General pertinent experience:

Participated in multiple mediations over the years. I was a member of the mediation panel previously in the Southern District and want to become active again.

V. Mediation training:

I participated in the original multi-day meditation/ADR program conducted in the United States Southern District and Bankruptcy Court at Bowling Green Auditorium in 1993. On November 8, 2022, I also participated in a 2-Day Advanced Commercial Mediation Training hosted by the New York State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Department.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Representation of debtors in Chapter 11 as well as various entities in various bankruptcy procedures.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I have been a regular moot court judge at the Duberstein National Bankruptcy Competition, since its inception. I have also been an AAA arbitrator, in particular, a general arbitration for the textile industry.
