Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2481	TRO896617FTC	4/25/2016	Brooks, Mildred	Mildred Brooks	5858			X			X	Alleges conditions that arose before and after bar date. Says the published bar date notice did not allow a reasonable amount of time to file claims, but that does not explain the many years of delay before claimant filed a claim. Also says was unaware exposed to a dangerous Tronox product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2482	TRO890131FTC	2/23/2016	Hawkins, Gerrol	Gerrol Hawkins	5859	9125	X	X				1982 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS; standard cut-and-pasted language as to reasons why did not file before bar date. A supplemental letter filed at docket #9125 complaining about the process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2483	TRO894330FTC	3/2/2016	Griffin, Chiquita	Chiquita Griffin	5860			X			X	Did not know about the claim until a neighbor told her; says all symptoms and diagnosis after bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2484	TRO900355FTC	7/25/2016	Trimble, Charles	Charles Trimble	5861		X	X			X	Alleges a 2014 diagnosis but also says previously filed with atty Navarro, Kerr-McGee Plant Action; standard cut-and-pasted language as to reasons why missed bar date. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2485	TRO889367FTC	2/23/2016	Potorski, Robert	Robert Potorski	5862			X				1996, 2002 and 2004 diagnoses; unaware this was going on because he was not living in Avoca at that time and was never notified. Alleges notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2486	TRO889860FTC	2/23/2016	Calloway, Kira	Kira Calloway	5863		X	X				1998 diagnosis; says that she was told by Tronox office to wait until further notice to send in documents of verification of illness but that apparently is a reference to her communications with the Trust long after the bar date, no indication of any initial filing before the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2487	TRO889859FTC	2/23/2016	McGee, Kayson	Kayson McGee	5864		X	X				1999 diagnosis; says he was told when made a call to the Tronox office when he first filed that he should mail in paperwork first, then he would be told to send in proof of ailments at a later date. However, that apparently is a reference to communications with the Trust about the late-filed claim as there is no indication of any claim filing before the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2488	TRO892423FTC	2/23/2016	Wilson, Mary	Mary Wilson	5865		X	X				2008 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS who moved to California in 1980; says was not aware of the claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2489	TRO901358FTC	8/16/2016	Koger, Ethel	Carol Williams	5866			X				The injured party died in 2007; diagnosis some time before that, rep does not know when; rep says mother was in the hospital before death but rep does not give an excuse for not filing by bar date. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2490	TRO903536FTC	11/23/2016	Pointer, Carolyn	Carolyn Pointer	5867		X	X		X		Two diagnoses in 2014, one in 2006, rest 2004 and earlier. Unaware of the claims process and did not know could file a claim; says was a violation of due process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 2491	TRO890344FTC	2/23/2016	Cunningham, Nancy	Nancy Cunningham	5868		X	X				Diagnoses in 1978, 1981 and 1982; says unaware of the information or possibility of receiving a settlement for physical injury. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2492	TRO904626FTC	1/24/2017	Shelton, Brittny	Brittny Shelton	5869						X	Says was a minor; says exposed from birth until moved to Florida with parents in 1991, so was 18 or older by the bar date; did not get a diagnosis but symptoms began in 1998. Will permit supplemental submission to verify age as of the bar date and to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
2493	TRO897471FTC	5/25/2016	Byrd, Thomas	Thomas Byrd	5870		X	X				1968 diagnosis; says he never made the connection between his condition and creosote but now he knows; says he did not have the filing information; says he suffers from PTSD. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2494	TRO904711FTC	1/24/2017	Terrell, Erica	Erica Terrell	5871			X				Diagnoses in 1976, 2003 and 2004; unclear where exposure occurred; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; moved to Tennessee. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2495	TRO889253FTC	2/23/2016	Walker, J.D.	J.D. Walker	5872			X		X		Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed bar date; only refers to dates of recent conditions after bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2496	TRO896137FTC	4/6/2016	Hodges, Octavian	Octavian Hodges	5873		X	X			X	Alleges 2015 diagnosis but also says previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002; standard cut-and-pasted language as to reasons why missed bar date. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 2498	TRO897447FTC	5/25/2016	George, Michael	Joyce George	5875			X				1980s diagnosis; the injured party died in 1992; rep says that she did file paperwork prior to bar date and in the beginning was told the Powell law group would be handling the claims. When she heard that the Powell law group would not be handling it any longer, she called the 800 number (Garretson), but that must have been long after the bar date because the trust was not established until after the plan was confirmed. After inquiring several times was later told they did not have any paperwork and she should file again. To the extent that the movant alleges a failure by the Powell law group, as counsel, that is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless the failure by the Powell law group can be excused, and no excuse has been offered. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2500	TRO898885FTC	6/27/2016	Hughes, Cheyenne	Cheyenne Hughes	5877		X	X				1971 diagnosis; says she did file claim but "they" claim it wasn't received but she did mail it. (May be referring to late-filed claim with Garretson group as there is no record of a timely claim.) Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing so the claim must be disallowed regardless of whether a timely proof of claim was filed.
2501	TRO898887FTC	6/27/2016	Morgan, Genia	Genia Morgan	5878		X	X				1960-61 diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm 2001; she says that she went to doctors provided by attorney Wilbur Colom in 2001; she says the claim was mailed, however, "they" claim they did not receive it. She mailed it over and over and they still said they did not receive it. Then she began to get proofs of mailing. No record of any claim in 2009, references to mailings may be references to late-claim filings with the trust. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2502	TRO894369FTC	3/2/2016	Claborn, Anthony	Anthony Claborn	5879		X	X				Diagnoses 2001, 2003, 2008; says no reason to believe exposed to Tronox product; the publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; says was incapacitated at the time but provides no details or verification. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief. Conduct of Colom and Lundy firm is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Meetings among other claimants are not relevant to excusable neglect. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2522	TRO903504FTC	11/23/2016	Dobbs, Kaneshia	Kaneshia Dobbs	5900			X			X	Form letter also filed by many other claimants alleging that a person claiming to be a representative of the trust instructed what to fill out and form to use and misled them. However, the trust was not formed until long after the bar date so this does not excuse a late filing. Claimant disputes the amount at which the Trust proposed to allow the claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 2523	TRO903502FTC	11/23/2016	Cunningham, Kailey	Kaneshia Dobbs	5901			X			X	Form letter also filed by many other claimants alleging that a person claiming to be a representative of the trust instructed what to fill out and form to use and misled them. However, the trust was not formed until long after the bar date so this does not excuse a late filing. Claimant disputes the amount at which the Trust proposed to allow the claim. Contends that people whose conditions continued after the bar date (even if diagnosed earlier) should be entitled to file Future Tort Claims, which is incorrect. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 2530	TRO887969FTC	12/18/2015	Hughes, Bertine	Bernard Hughes	5908			X				Diagnoses 1985 to 1997; rep says nothing received regarding lawsuit, says claimant suffered from memory loss and dementia, incapacity from strokes and heart attacks, could not handle business affairs, but rep does not provide dates; unclear if claimant is deceased as rep says symptoms and diagnosis from 1985 to 1997 but in response to her residence from 2009-2011, says Tennessee, does not include any medical records. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2531	TRO903629FTC	11/23/2016	Lancaster, Cathy	Cathy Lancaster	5909		X	X		X		Previously filed with Colom law firm 1999; offered a settlement of $562,000 but says it was for cancer and loss of child, says is still owed over $100,000. She says that attorneys took $17 million and 60% of every claim. She says "[w]e only agreed to 33% but toward the end they sent us a letter stating that we would not get the balance of any money that we were owed, and no reason why"; as for current action, she says was not contacted about bar date; the lawyers got all the money and the claimants were cheated. Prior class action is not under this Court's jurisdiction. Participation in that action shows awareness of claims and legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. If claim based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 2532	TRO902766FTC	8/16/2016	Moore, Jeanine	Trimble, Emma Bell	5910		X	X				2000 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2004; rep says was told he could not file for a deceased person, does not say who gave such advice or when or in connection with what proceeding. In any event, the claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2533	TRO891250FTC	2/23/2016	Sparks-Leech, Charlotte	Charlotte Sparks-Leech	5911			X				Unaware of the ongoing Tronox case; says symptoms began in 2008, diagnosis date not listed; did not receive a phone call, letter, nor information from TV, radio or advertisement. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 2535	TRO891251FTC	2/23/2016	Green, Alashia	Alashia Green	5913		X	X			X	Various diagnosis dates, some before and some after the bar date; previously filed with Colom law firm; says around 2002 she found her name on some form, she did not meet with the attorney, it was just presented to her whether she accepted it or not. The attorney just sent a letter where to meet after the settlement but no other information was provided. Those allegations all relate to the prior class action and not to the bankruptcy process. Also says the publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; violation of due process. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Jones [TRO895805FTC], signed on her own behalf; a separate motion for a Lula Jones [claim TRO890012FTC] was filed by Andre Jones and is at docket #6274. The excuse for Lula B. Jones [TRO895805FTC] is that claimant did not know about bar date but also says symptoms and diagnosis came after the bar date; does not include medical records. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2543	TRO900793FTC	8/16/2016	Walker, Linda	Linda Walker	5921		X	X				2004 diagnosis; did not know she was exposed; did not know there was a time limit to file a claim. She says that at that during that time she was very sick and unable to walk or stand for a long period of time. She's been unable to walk since 2005. She includes a facts and conclusions statement related to a social security claim. Movant has identified physical limitations but not an inability to file a claim or to enlist the help of others in doing so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2544	TRO887786FTC	12/14/2015	Lidell, Annie	Morris & Emogene Liddell	5922	8382	X	X				1996 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2002; did not know about such a claim. A supplement filed at docket #8382, says as excuse for lateness they were in midst of a family crisis, but it is unclear to which lateness it refers, the date is not provided and it may more likely refer to the lateness of the filing with the trust as this excuse was not provided in the initial filing. In any event, family crisis does not explain many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2549	TRO886263FTC	12/7/2015	Shinn, Cleveland	Shinn, Mary Ann	5927	6041	X	X				Diagnoses 1987, 1999 and 2001; the injured party died in 2001; says all of the law firms, Howard Gunn, Colom, say they do not have his file; say he filed timely but appears to be referring either to a class action filing or to the late-claim filing with Garretson, no record of a timely proof of claim in the Tronox bankruptcy case. A supplement filed at docket #6041, says publication notice of the claims filing deadline not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2570	TRO889849FTC	2/23/2016	Bailey, Catherine	Willie Humphries	5948		X	X				1989 diagnosis; the injured party is deceased; rep did not know she was exposed to a Tronox chemical; says form of notice was deficient on its face but does not say how; says publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

A supplemental letter filed at docket #8929 complaining about the process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 2573	TRO902693FTC	8/16/2016	Deloach, Sara	Sara Deloach	5953			X			X	All of the stated diagnoses dates in the form motion are after the bar date; says was not aware; did not see any commercial on TV or hear anything on radio; tort claim call line provided misleading information. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2574	TRO895204FTC	3/23/2016	Burgin, Eric	Eric Burgin	5954						X	1987 diagnosis; left Columbus in 1987 to join military; does not provide dates of military service. If military service ended before 2006 then the claim would have been time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Military service would not have tolled the application of the bar date in 2009 unless the movant continued to be in military service at that time. Will permit supplemental submission to verify dates of military service if movant believes that the application of the bar date was tolled due to military service or that the dates of military service justify relief based on excusable neglect. Otherwise, the motion will be denied, as there is an insufficient showing as to factors relevant to excusable neglect relief and as it appears, unless contrary information is provided, that the claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations.

2575	TRO892351FTC	2/23/2016	Leigh, Demetrice	Demetrice Leigh	5955		X	X			X	Says she filed for earlier conditions but did not know she had to file her claims for conditions after 2009 or about a deadline for doing so. Unclear if the reference to a filing for earlier conditions was in connection with the bar date or the late-filed claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Shows physical incapacities but does not show inability to file a claim or to enlist help of others in doing so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2601	TRO902916FTC	10/13/2016	Nagy, Raymond	Marian Nagy	5984		X					2003 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2004; rep says unaware of filing deadline and had not seen any newspaper publication regarding deadline. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2602	TRO893919FTC	3/2/2016	Hairston, Edna	Edna Hairston	5985	X	X					June 2004 diagnosis; says having surgery but does not provide dates or medical records. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2603	TRO892419FTC	2/23/2016	Jennings, Stephen	Stephen Jennings	5986	X	X					Diagnosed at birth (approximately 1970); unaware because incarcerated at time of bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2604	TRO897815FTC	5/25/2016	James, Adonna	Thomas Bellinder	5987	X	X					2001 diagnosis; retained Bellinder law firm in 2016; motion says “[h]eirs of the injured party were unrepresented at the time of the claims filing deadline. As lay people, they were unaware of the filing requirements and legal prerequisites to protect their interests and to preserve their claims. The Court should consider that the heirs of the injured party were unaware of the applicable deadline, did not have formal representation and that once an attorney was retained, they took every measure in an attempt to pursue their claims.” However, this claim was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In addition, the motion alleges lack of actual knowledge but makes no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2605	TRO0889217FTC	2/23/2016	Jordan, Chester	Chester Jordan Jr.	5988		X			X		Says was diagnosed after bar date, in 2010; does not provide medical records. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2607	TRO891536FTC	2/23/2016	McGee, Monica	Monica McGee	5992		X	X				1988 diagnosis; unaware of the claims process; unaware of dangers of Tronox product. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2608	TRO897210FTC	5/4/2016	Lewis, Bobby	Bobby Lewis	5993		X	X				1999 diagnosis; unaware of claims process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2609	TRO889714FTC	2/23/2016	Billups, Destinee	Tonya Ruff	5994		X	X				1998 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS at time of bar date; says she filed a proof of claim for herself and daughter when she found out about the lawsuit, but that apparently is a reference to the late-filed claim; did not receive any information back until now. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2610	TRO893887FTC	3/2/2016	Cheeks, Shirley [Richey]	Shirley Cheeks [Richey]	5995		X	X			X	Former Columbus, MS resident; alleges various conditions and diagnosis dates, unclear if any conditions were first diagnosed after the bar date; unaware of the bankruptcy case claims filing deadline; the publication notices were not reasonably designed to reach potential claimants; says it is not reasonable or fair to assume that working people have time to read the Wall Street Journal or any of the other 38 publications; has no current communication with Columbus Mississippi residents, where chemical was found and where the legal action started; did not hear of the class actions until later. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Publication notices are enforceable and comply with due process for reasons stated in the accompanying Decision. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date). 2611	TRO885859FTC	11/25/2015	Meady, Jotina	Jotina Meady	5996		X	X				1996 diagnosis; no reason provided why did not meet bar date. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2612	TRO896040FTC	4/6/2016	O'Neal, Carlos	Carlos O'Neal	5997		X	X				Says went to doctor but diagnosis date(s) not listed; says mail went to neighbor's house, it was not given to him until afterwards. No explanation for many years' delay after the bar date passed before a claim was filed. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Unaware of the claims process; says discharge of claim was a violation of due process, does not say how. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2624	TRO899035FTC	6/27/2016	Giles, Alvin	Alvin Giles	6012			X				2008 and June 2009 diagnoses; place of exposure unclear; did not know about the lawsuit prior to filing a claim, says had pacemaker surgery in 2010 but that is after the bar date. Does not explain long delay after bar date before filed claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2625	TRO901785FTC	9/14/2016	Shelton, Earlie	Jake Shelton	6013			X			X	Retained the Colom law firm, date unclear; says did not know about the case at the time; people were saying different dates; she did not know who was telling the truth, says diagnosis was 8/12/09 but includes a paper from Jan. 2009 that refers to a chronic condition. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 2641	TRO888152FTC	12/18/2015	Manning, James	Larry Manning	6029		X	X				1989 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2006; says the form of notice of the claims filing deadline was deficient on its face but does not say how; says the publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know that the injured party had been exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2642	TRO903554FTC	11/23/2016	McCoy, Tequila	Tequila McCoy	6030			X				2007 diagnosis; did not file before the deadline because she was incapacitated, was diagnosed with sarcoidosis and was dealing with her illness (says diagnosed in 2007); also says was traveling back and forth to Tenn. for a relative's treatments. Allegations of incapacity explain why filing did not occur in 2009 but do not explain the length of time that passed before a claim was filed. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2643	TRO898584FTC	6/27/2016	Pierce, Willie	Willie Pierce	6031			X		X		Alleges a series of post-bar date diagnoses; says rejected an offer from the Trust; standard form language as to reasons for not filing (not aware, did not see public notice, called 800 number and was told to file a claim). No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2644	TRO898495FTC	6/27/2016	Harris, Bernard	Bernard Harris	6032		X	X				July 2004 diagnosis; says was unaware of deadline. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2657	TRO900243FTC	Unknown	Lewis, Deidre	Deidre Lewis	6047			X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Merely a rejection of a $5,000 allowed claim by the Trust. There is also a rejection filed by Deidre Lewis for the rejection of a $5,000 allowed claim by the Trust at docket #6049, but it has a different TRO number [TRO901091FTC]. No motion for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Disagreement over Trust's review of claim is to be resolved in the Tort Claims Trust dispute resolution procedure.
2658	TRO893360FTC	Unknown	Weston, Willie	Hazel Weston	6048			X			X	The motion at docket #6048 is by Hazel Weston for Willie Weston [TRO893360FTC]; the motion by Willie D. Weston [TRO893357FTC] is at docket #7736. The paper filed at docket#6050 is merely a rejection an offer to provide an $80,000 allowed claim. No motion for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Disagreement over Trust's review of claim is to be resolved in the Tort Claims Trust dispute resolution procedure.
2659	TRO901091FTC	Unknown	Lewis, Deidre	Deidre Lewis	6049							Not included in Trust's summary. Merely a rejection of a $5,000 allowed claim by the Trust. 2660	TRO901958FTC	9/14/2016	Bostick, Alexis	Alexis Bostick	6050			X				Filing for father; says diagnosis before 2009 but does not say when; says discharge of claim is violation of due process, unaware of the claims process. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2661	TRO896596FTC	4/25/2016	Jamison, Larry	Larry Jamison	6051	6120	X	X			X	Possibly a duplicate of the motion at docket # 6120 but claim numbers differ. Alleges diagnoses in 2004, 2009, 2017; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; had no reason to know and did not know of his exposure to a Tronox product; discharge of claim violation of due process, was unaware of the process and did not know could file a claim for himself. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2662	TRO891777FTC	2/23/2016	Andrade, Tunya	Tunya Andrade	6052			X			X	One diagnosis in 2016, rest in 2007-08; unaware of the claims process; discharge of claim violation of due process (does not say how), unaware of process and did not know could file a claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 2663	TRO900510FTC	8/16/2016	Harge, Matthew	Matthew Harge	6053		X	X				1998 diagnosis; previously filed with atty Bambach in 2002. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2664	TRO896384FTC	4/13/2016	Webber, Floyd	Floyd Webber	6054		X	X				1959-1965 diagnoses; previously filed with atty Bambach associated with Gunn, Cunningham and Flint; refers to a 2005 settlement disbursement; appears to think the Tronox bankruptcy claims process is connected to the prior litigation handled by other Mississippi firms. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not fully resolved, and was not the subject of a proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was not fully resolved, and was the subject of a pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, as counsel received direct notice of the bar date. Motion denied.
2665	TRO901959FTC	Unknown	Harvey, Bridney	Bridney Harvey	6055		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 2007 diagnosis; unaware of the claims process. 2672	TRO895306FTC	3/23/2016	Golya, Michael	Stanley Tetlack	6062			X				1967 diagnosis; the injured party died in 1970; rep says discharge of claim was a violation of due process, did not have adequate notice of claims filing deadline; says the form of notice was deficient on its face but does not say how; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; rep says Tronox did not have a reasonable plan to provide adequate form of notice, he did not have access to any of the publications, Tronox should have used other forms of communication like radio, TV or mail, he should have been notified by certified or regular mail, Tronox should have contacted the local radio and TV station to run stories on it, it should have contacted the surrounding town public officials to have town meetings, if the internet was around then, Tronox should have used it. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Form of notice was approved with knowledge and participation by counsel representing tort claimants, including Pennsylvania counsel representing Pennsylvania claimants. Motion fails to provide any explanation as to claimant's own diligence in investigating possible claim in light of 1967 diagnosis and death of decedent in 1970 and passage of almost 50 years before action was taken to pursue the claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2685	TRO895309FTC	3/23/2016	Hurley, Thomas	Thomas Hurley	6075		X	X				First diagnosed in 1989; former resident of Columbus who moved to Georgia in 1989; says was not aware of the claim; did not receive any notification from anyone in the area about this claim and has not resided in Mississippi since 1989 making it difficult to be current on local proceedings. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2686	TRO894398FTC	3/2/2016	Jones, Sha'Kian	Sha'Kian Jones	6076		X	X				2001 diagnosis; unaware exposed to a Tronox product; letter saying "was not given justifiable allowance under the guidance of Colom and Lundy;" says discharge of claim is a violation of due process; refers to private meetings and minimal details to the town at large. Conduct of Colum and Lundy firm is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2687	TRO884917FTC	11/25/2015	Williams, Gemria	Gemria Williams	6077		X	X		X		Unaware of the claims process; attaches a chart which only refers to conditions after bar date but then also inserts a letter that says condition diagnosed prior to bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2688	TRO901827FTC	9/14/2016	Roland, Luther	Roland, Luther	6078		X	X				1989 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS; says did not have knowledge of this claim until December 2015. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2689	TRO887454FTC	12/14/2015	Carr, Teresa	Teresa Carr	6079		X	X		X		Says diagnosis in 1990 for COPD and "in 6 month 2017" and did not know how to make a claim. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. To the extent the claimant alleges claims based on conditions that were first diagnosed after the bar date, the claim is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its normal dispute resolution procedures.
2690	TRO889588FTC	2/23/2016	Brown, Sammy	Sammy Brown	6080			X				2006 diagnosis (colon cancer); says that at the time of the filing deadline, he had just begun to live life in its new normality due to procedures, doctor appointments and stresses after surgery. Also says he was led to believe through local papers, TV and community leaders that the filing was a private entity for the Maranatha church; that apparently is a reference to the fact that the Church filed a pre-bankruptcy lawsuit. Did not file claim until 2016, does not explain that long delay. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2691	TRO900771FTC	8/16/2016	Toliver, Temesha	Toliver, Temesha	6081			X		X		Cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons did not file, but says symptoms and diagnosis were after the bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2692	TRO888496FTC	12/18/2015	Beck, Alan	Alan Beck	6084			X				1974 diagnosis; unaware that creosote was a problem, did not read about it in newspaper, did not talk about it or publicize until later. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2693	TRO886079FTC	12/7/2015	Brooks, Gwendolyn	Gwendolyn Brooks	6085		X	X				1970 diagnosis; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed bar date. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Alleges notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2696	TRO903180FTC	10/13/2016	Brown, Ellen	Stephanie Hunt	6088		X	X				The injured party died in 1993; the rep did not fill out the form and only said in an attachment that the actions occurred before the bar date and rep did not file because was not made aware of the claim, and filed right away when learned of it. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2700	TRO894342FTC	3/2/2016	Gray, Dennis	Dennis Gray	6092		X	X				1980 diagnosis; former employee of plant in Hamilton, MS who was living in Alabama in 2009 and was not aware of receiving any document or information in regards to this claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2701	TRO889564FTC	2/23/2016	Jackson, Travante	Travante Jackson	6093		X	X		X		Says he filed a claim in the Tronox bankruptcy case by the claims filing deadline, but the only record of a claim is one filed on 2/23/16, which was long after the bar date. Says he got "locked up" on several occasions after filing the claim, got out of jail in August 2017, but that does not explain failure to file by bar date. Also filed form letter saying "was not given justifiable allowance under the guidance of Colom and Lundy"; discharge of claim violation of due process; refers to secret meetings in the community and minimal details to the community at large. The form initially had a date of diagnosis prior to bar date but then movant wrote over it to make it a date near bar date. Various conditions are alleged, not clear if alleges anything first diagnosed after bar date. Conduct of Colum and Lundy firm is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused, no excuse is offered. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 2702	TRO891068FTC	2/23/2016	Spearmon, Ruby	Ruby Spearmon	6094		X	X				2002 diagnosis; previously filed with atty Bambach (not clear when or in connection with what proceeding); after atty died [in 2013], he did not hear anything; says "tried to get a claim" and it seems that he thought he "would be notified by someone else. And hearing about it." No indication that claim was ever actually asserted in an ongoing proceeding. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2703	TRO902453FTC	9/14/2016	Fields, Tommie	Mattie Fields	6095	6132 8277	X	X				1981 diagnosis; the injured party died in 1991; supplement at docket # 6132. Rep says was in the hospital at the time of the bar date and forgot the deadlines; provided the same excuse for her own claim but in that claim she also says rehabilitation was in 2016 to 2017 (not 2009). No explanation for long delay after bar date before claim was filed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2704	TRO888807FTC	12/30/2015	Harrison, Shancee	Shancee Harrison	6096		X	X				1999 diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002, unclear if received recovery; says was unaware of the Tronox claim deadline and proceedings. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2707	TRO888749FTC	12/24/2015	Martin, Bobby	Bobby Martin	6099	9293	X	X				1989 diagnosis; says that the year of his surgery, 1989, there were no lawsuits pending. However, there did not need to be a pending class action for claimant to seek relief. A supplemental letter filed with others at docket #9293 complaining about the process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2720	TRO900273FTC	7/25/2016	Selvie, Jr. Albert	Albert Selvie, Jr.	6112		X	X				1996 diagnosis; moved to another town, was not aware of the proceedings or that filings were being done; never received notice. Complains of lack of direct notice but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2721	TRO893719FTC	3/2/2016	Jethrow, Kimberlin	Kimberlin Jethrow	6113			X				January 2009 diagnosis; says commenced a legal proceeding against Tronox prior to the claims filing deadline but the only claim referenced as having been made was a claim filed in 2015 with atty Landis Sexton, only record of claim in this proceeding is the claim filed on March 2, 2016; says symptoms first started in Jan 2009, does not provide a date for diagnosis. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

2722	TRO898703FTC	6/27/2016	Sykes, Lizzie	Lizzie Sykes	6114			X				2006 diagnosis; moved away from Columbus, MS in 1998; unaware exposed to a Tronox product; letter saying was not given justifiable allowance under the guidance of Colom and Lundy; discharge of claim violation of due process; refers to private meetings in the community and minimal details to the town. Conduct of Colum and Lundy firm is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Complains about information in Columbus, MS but risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in Columbus starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2723	TRO894642FTC	3/23/2016	Bridges, Eula	Christine Washington	6115	9268	X	X				Trust incorrectly listed this motion as docket # 6105, which is a different motion on behalf of Junious Bridges as the injured party. 1989 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2000; rep says not aware, no knowledge of the case, did not see any publication, newspaper or other media, standard language. A supplemental letter filed with others at docket #9268 complaining about the process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2724	TRO914825FTC	7/26/2017	McAllister, Ricky	Ricky McAllister	6116			X		X		Says was not aware of the Tronox bankruptcy case; says the dates that he put on the first claim were wrong; the dates he lists now are all after the bar date. Trust may dispute diagnoses dates, but no pre-bar date diagnosis is alleged for which relief is sought. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2725	TRO889898FTC	2/23/2016	McEachin, Zinzi	Zinzi McEachin	6117			X		X		Says was not aware of the Tronox bankruptcy claim in 2009; had no knowledge of this before he filed a claim; did not receive a letter or telephone call or learn of anything from media; publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; discharge of claim a violation of due process; unaware of the process and did not know he could file a claim for himself; says symptoms and diagnosis after bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Trust may dispute diagnoses dates, but no pre-bar date diagnosis is alleged for which relief is sought. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2726	TRO901702FTC	8/16/2016	Donahue, Joseph	Joseph Donahue	6118		X	X				Diagnosis 2004; says that was originally offered a $2,500 claim to settle any future compensation, decided not to accept that, thinking that if something happened later the claimant could not be compensated for it. Unclear when or in what proceeding that settlement offer was made but it shows awareness of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2727	TRO895335FTC	3/23/2016	Bailey, Alix	Alix Bailey	6119		X	X				1978 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS who still lived there in 2009; says was not informed properly or receive notification that a claim should be filed in a timely manner, it violated his right of due process. Alleges notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Various diagnosis dates for various conditions; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice, had no reason to know of exposure to a Tronox product, discharge of claim was a violation of due process, unaware of process and did not know that he could file a claim for himself, all but one listed diagnosis was after bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2750	TRO894564FTC	Unknown	Richardson, Selvin	Selvin Richardson	6142	5470?	X	X				The motion at docket #6142 is for Selvin I. Richardson [TRO894564FTC]; there is another motion filed for Selvin Richardson [TRO887191FTC] at docket #5470. It is not clear whether or not it is the same person, the signatures are very similar and the addresses are the same, but while some of the symptoms overlap they are not identical. In addition, Selvin I. Richardson [TRO894564FTC] says 1988 is date for exposure, symptoms and diagnosis, while Selvin Richardson [TRO887191FTC] at docket #5470 says 1979 is date for exposure, symptoms and diagnosis. They both provide the same excuse, i.e.: did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product, discharge of debt is a violation of due process, publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice. Court will treat them as two separate motions and two separate claims out of abundance of caution. As to the motion at docket 6142, relief is denied. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2751	TRO899977FTC	7/25/2016	McCain, Kim	Kim McCain	6143			X				1992 diagnosis; place of original exposure is not specified; says that no longer lives in the state and was not aware. Note of the bar date was published in the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel in June 2009, as verified by the proofs of publication filed on the docket. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2752	TRO896094FTC	4/6/2016	Burgin, Cassandra	Cassandra Burgin	6144		X	X				1990s diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2001; says it is not right that people who never lived in the area are receiving money. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2758	TRO902290FTC	9/14/2016	Williams, Byron	Demetric Williams	6150		X	X				2003 diagnosis; rep says moved to Arkansas in 2000; heard of lawsuit against Kerr-McGee at this time but did not contact right people and was informed too late to file a claim and the courts were already issuing payments. When another lawsuit was reopened for this case, she did not become aware of it until after bar date; unaware of deadlines or any such matters. After getting informed of current lawsuit, reached out to Tronox and they sent an application without mentioning that the deadline to file had passed. Instead, was told to get application back quickly to get it processed. Was aware of legal proceedings, did not pursue claim with sufficient diligence to warrant relief based on excusable neglect. In addition, the claim was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2759	TRO902291FTC	9/14/2016	Williams, Demetric	Demetric Williams	6151		X	X				2002 and 2006 diagnoses; this motion is filed by the same person who filed the motion as to injured party Byron Williams [docket 6150]; same explanation as to reasons for not filing by bar date. Was aware of legal proceedings, did not pursue claim with sufficient diligence to warrant relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2760	TRO887708FTC	12/14/2015	Hinton, Sammie	Sammie Hinton	6152	6180	X	X		X		Diagnoses in 2004 and 2007; did not have knowledge of an ongoing Tronox case; did not receive telephone call, letter or learn anything from media concerning this matter. Also has filed a rejection notice [duplicate is at docket #6180] alleging entitlement to a future tort claim based on post-bar date exposures and/or post-bar date diagnoses. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2761	TRO888001FTC	12/18/2015	Eggleston, Christine	Eggleston, Christine	6153		X	X				Diagnoses in 2005; previously filed claim with Howard Gunn in 2002; says shortly thereafter she was incarcerated and was released in 2008 and was told the atty went bankrupt and was told there was no record of her claim. Tronox bankruptcy case is a separate proceeding that was not commenced until 2009. No explanation of any further effort to pursue claim from 2008 until filing with Trust in December 2015. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If not resolved in a prior case the claim also was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2762	TRO898714FTC	6/27/2016	Smith, Sammy	Smith, Sammy	6154		X	X				1965 diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm in the 2002 Kerr-McGee Creosote Plant class action. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2763	TRO903559FTC	11/23/2016	Martin, Debra	Debra Martin	6155		X	X		X		Diagnoses 2002, 2010, 2012; says had no knowledge; the publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; says was in the hospital taking different medications was not aware of such proceedings; says a relative with same conditions and who lived in same area was approved. Unclear whether particular conditions were first diagnosed after bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 2764	TRO899907FTC	7/25/2016	Jones, Shemar	Jones, Shemar	6156		X	X			X	Alleges first diagnosis on August 23, 2009 but also says previously filed claim in Kerr-McGee Plant Class Action; standard form language as to why missed the bar date. If a claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date (including whether terms of prior class action barred further claims) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2765	TRO892499FTC	2/23/2016	Baker, Colanda	Colanda Baker	6157			X			X	Alleges diagnoses in 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2013; says had no idea there was a claim until it was too late. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2781	TRO894022FTC	3/2/2016	Dillard, Gwendolyn	Maddox, Sonia	6174		X	X				1982 diagnosis; the injured party was a resident of Columbus, MS who died in 2000; rep says was not aware/had no knowledge of the Tronox bankruptcy case; did not see any public notification via any media. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2782	TRO894024FTC	3/2/2016	Maddox, Quaylan	Maddox, Quaylan	6175			X				2009 diagnosis; says parent filed a claim with an attorney in Aberdeen, Mississippi and never heard anything and when she called they say didn't have the paperwork; unclear when that was. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2785	TRO887707FTC	Unknown	Hinton, Etta	Etta Hinton E.	6178		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 1992 diagnosis; previously filed with atty Bambach, late 1990s and case was later turned over to atty Colom; accepted $375 payment in early 2000s; says did not have knowledge of ongoing Tronox case; did not receive a telephone call, letter or learn anything from media. Claim apparently was already resolved in prior proceeding, and if so it could not be re-asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy case. If claim was not resolved then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In addition, participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights, motion alleges lack of actual knowledge but makes no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2786	TRO893520FTC	2/23/2016	Williams, Christian	Christian Williams	6179			X				No diagnosis date listed; says did not know about the claims process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2790	TRO899268FTC	7/11/2016	Walls, Pamela	Pamela Walls	6184		X	X				Diagnoses 2005 and earlier; previously filed with Howard Gunn, Bambach, Cunningham, the Creosote Litigation Group 2003, unclear if claim resolved in another proceeding. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date. If the claim was not resolved and was not the subject of a pending proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2791	TRO889765FTC	2/23/2016	Keye, Terrance	Tietti Chandler	6185							Injured party was a minor awaiting adoption at time of the bar date; parent was living in a group home; rep files the letter that says "was not given justifiable allowance under the guidance of Colom and Lundy"; violation of due process; refers to private meetings in community and minimal details imparted to rest of community. Rep also says that symptoms and diagnosis were after the bar date. Claim allowed on grounds of excusable neglect, merits to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its normal dispute resolution procedures.
2792	TRO897673FTC	5/25/2016	Dismuke, Jacob	Carla Harris	6186			X				1992 diagnosis; the injured party died prior to the bar date; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had not reason to know of exposure to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2796	TRO888883FTC	12/30/2015	Brown, Perry	Perry Brown	6190		X	X				2003 diagnosis; says was told only the people who lived in the area could file, apparently is thinking of prior class action that was limited to persons who lived in a certain area. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2797	TRO888398FTC	12/18/2015	Harrison, Gregory B.	Gregory Harrison	6191		X	X				1998 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002; did not know about the bankruptcy process, would have filed if he had been told about it. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date. If the claim was not resolved and was not the subject of a pending proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In addition, movant alleges lack of actual knowledge but makes no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2798	TRO904149FTC	1/3/2017	Hanson, Kay	James Hanson	6192		X	X				1991 diagnosis; rep says that the injured party did not file because of her health condition in 2009 but does not explain many years' delay after 2009 before filed the claim. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2799	TRO884893FTC	11/25/2015	Bradley, Shonda	Shonda Bradley	6193			X				Diagnosis date not listed; says was a minor but lists birth date as June 24, 1988, so was 21 years old as of the bar date and was not a minor; says mother filed a claim because she was a minor but may be thinking of a claim in a prior lawsuit as there is no record of a timely filed claim in the bankruptcy case. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2800	TRO903064FTC	10/13/2016	Williams, Rosie M.	Rosie M. Williams	6194		X	X				The motion at docket #6194 is by Rosie M. Williams [TRO903064FTC]; a different motion by Rosie Williams [TRO893439FTC] is at docket # 5378. Rosie M. Williams previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002 and was paid $8,000. Says she never received a letter concerning a filing deadline and she is and was incapacitated. Alleged diagnosis date is 2003. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges physical limitations but does not show inability to file a claim or to enlist the help of others in doing so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2801	TRO895801FTC	3/24/2016	Miller, James	Miller, James	6195	8164	X	X			X	2005 diagnosis but unclear if also claims later conditions; says was unaware of the process, did not see any publication in regards to the Tronox bankruptcy case regarding a deadline or information on the case; says the publication notice of claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice. A supplement filed at docket #8164 adding an additional post-bar date condition (high cholesterol). Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claim based on 2005 diagnosis also was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2802	TRO891972FTC	2/23/2016	Reed, RL	RL Reed	6196		X	X				1966 diagnosis; former Columbus, MS resident who moved to Texas in 2006; previously filed with Turner & Assoc. 2000 and the Colom law firm 2001, submitted requested data but resided outside of contamination area and did not qualify; does not explain why she did not file her own lawsuit or take other steps after not qualifying for class action; says she did not reside in Mississippi in 2009 and did not receive timely information. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2808	TRO895320FTC	3/23/2016	Williams, Jimmy	Mary Mosley	6203		X	X				1986 diagnoses; the injured party died in 1991; rep says was unaware of the lawsuit as she had moved away from the area; says publication notice in her area was not reasonably sufficiently calculated to provide notice to a potential claimant who was unknown of opportunity to file a claim on a relative's behalf; nor did she receive notice; unaware of process, did not know she could file a claim for deceased relative. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Bar date notice was published in three different MS newspapers in June 2009 including the Commercial Dispatch in Columbus (which was only 26 miles from Starkville), the Clarion-Ledger in Jackson, and the Hattiesburg-American in Hattiesburg), as well as in newspapers in nearby states and the national edition of the Wall Street Journal. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2809	TRO905256FTC	3/1/2017	Jones, Albert	Ernest Jones	6204		X	X				1999 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2001. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2810	TRO890280FTC	2/23/2016	Martin, Andrea	Andrea Martin	6205		X	X				2002 diagnosis; says that at the time there wasn't a claim going on (meaning a class action, apparently) while they lived in that area majority of her life. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2811	TRO889141FTC	2/23/2016	Cole, Latashia	Latashia Cole	6206		X	X			X	Former resident of Columbus, MS who moved in 2007; diagnoses 2003, 2015 and 2016; only became aware of the lawsuit against Tronox in 2015, in 2009 was unaware of the filing deadline or her filing eligibility. Says that to bar her future tort claim violates her due process rights because she did not receive notice of the lawsuit and the 2009 deadline; says that public notice provided was not sufficient for her case because she did not live in the local newspaper area at the time notice was made. She says that some conditions were diagnosed prior to the bar date and some after. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 2812	TRO889691FTC	2/23/2016	Henley, Lucious	Lucious Henley	6207						X	2007 diagnosis; minor at time of bar date (21 years old at time of motion in 2017); did not know about the deadline; did not understand all of the issues and still does not. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
2813	TRO893819FTC	3/2/2016	Johnson, Linda	Linda Johnson	6208			X			X	Alleges a 2017 diagnosis; says was not aware of the bankruptcy process; says the form of notice was deficient on its face but does not say how and does not allege that movant read the notice; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; these excuses were checked off in the sample list of issues provided by the Trust. She also checked off that neither she nor her atty received direct written notice of bar date after commencing a legal proceeding against Tronox, but in answer to other questions the application says there was no such prior proceeding. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2819	TRO897365FTC	5/25/2016	Carr, Erica	Erica Carr	6214			X			X	Lists a January 2009 diagnosis but mentions a number of conditions, unclear if some might have been first diagnosed after the bar date; former resident of Columbus, MS; says from 2008 -2009 began to get very sick causing her to be in and out of the hospital; she had nowhere to stay but with different family members every day, became pregnant with third child and stress overtook her, she gave birth early because of health issues. She does not state the year but based on the earlier narrative, it appears it may have been 2009, near the bar date in August. Claimant explains why missed the bar date itself but not the subsequent delays (nearly 7 years) before filing a proof of claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2820	TRO884063FTC	11/13/2015	Moore, Jaimee	Jaimee Moore	6215			X				February 2006 diagnoses; did not know exposed to a dangerous chemical; does not have access to any of the newspapers where the notice was posted and does not even know of most of them; in any event, the publication only allowed 52 calendar days or 36 business days to file, not a reasonable amount of time to gather the necessary information, including medical records, to adequately support and document a claim for contamination. Complaints about short amount of time before the bar date do not explain or justify the claimant's seven-year delay before making a claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

2821	TRO904996FTC	1/24/2017	Edwards, Joe Jr.	Alesia Edwards Kennedy	6216	8438	X	X				The Trust's submission listed docket 6216 as a motion for Alesia Edward Kenney on her own behalf but docket # 6216 actually relates to a claim filed on behalf of Joe Edwards, Jr.; Alesia Edward Kennedy's own motion is at docket #6219. As to the motion at docket # 6216; alleges a 2003 diagnosis; the injured party was a Columbus, MS resident who died in 2007; rep only became aware in 2016 that the area was affected with these chemicals; were not notified then. A supplement filed at docket #8438. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. The motion at docket 6219 alleges an October 2012 diagnosis; just became aware of all of the information that her area was affected by the chemicals and that a claim needed to get filed. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2826	TRO886655FTC	12/7/2015	Fairley, Doris	Anthony Bailey	6222		X	X				1985 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2017; rep says that she lives in Tennessee and besides work, she went back and forth to care for the injured party in Mississippi who was in and out of hospitals but she does not provide the dates or documentation for this care-giving. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date. If the claim was not resolved and was not the subject of a pending proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. A rejection notice for this claim is filed at docket #6225. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be determined by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2830	TRO897674FTC	5/25/2016	Short, Devin	Devin Short	6226			X			X	This is merely a rejection of an allowed claim of $5,000 offered by the trust. No motion for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Disagreement over Trust's review of claim is to be resolved in the Tort Claims Trust dispute resolution procedure.
2831	TRO890224FTC	Unknown	Washington, Eddie	Eddie Washington	6228			X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Merely a rejection of a $5,000 allowed claim by the Trust. 2832	TRO895207FTC	3/23/2016	Smith, Alfonza	Alfonza Smith	6229	8120		X			X	Appears that he filed an original application with earlier dates for a diagnosis and now is saying that was all a mistake that he was only referring to symptoms decades before the bar date but his "official" diagnosis was not until after the bar date. However, claimant also mentions trying to file a claim in 2002. A supplement filed at docket #8120, says diagnosis for palpitations after bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

2841	TRO895285FTC	3/23/2016	Gore, Louise	Diane Gore	6238	6507		X			X	Rep says misinterpreted conditions of the claim; did not know exposed to a Tronox product; says symptoms and diagnosis in 2010 and mentions that she is referencing most recent conditions. The same motion was filed with a different TRO claim number at docket #6507 [TRO896699FTC]. It appears that the original claim may have mentioned earlier conditions and/or diagnoses, but motion only references alleged condition first diagnosed after the bar dates. Motion does not identify any pre-bar date diagnoses for which relief from the bar date is sought, and so motion for permission to file such claims is denied. The merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2842	TRO895333FTC	3/23/2016	Taylor, Sandra	Sandra Taylor	6239		X	X				Conditions and diagnoses prior to 2000; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002; was not aware nor had any knowledge of the Tronox bankruptcy case; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. 2877	TRO890012FTC	2/23/2016	Jones, Lula	Andre Jones	6274	8357	X	X				The motion at docket # 6274 is for Lula Jones by Andre Jones; a separate motion by Lula B. Jones at a different address and with a different claim number [TRO890012FTC] is at docket # 6274. The Trust's summary incorrectly referenced the motion at docket #5917 as the motion which actually is at docket # 6274. The motion by Andre Jones on behalf of Lula Jones [TRO890012FTC] says the injured party was diagnosed in 1984 and died in 1985; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons for not filing. A supplement filed at docket #8357, rep says without knowledge to wade through process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2899	TRO901961FTC	9/14/2016	Mosley, Mary	Mary Mosley	6296		X	X				Did not receive a notice to file and was unaware of a lawsuit. At time of bar date had moved out of the area and the publication notice of the claim filing deadline was not reasonably sufficiently calculated to provide notice to a potential claimant who was unknown at the time of notice nor was she given a notice; discharge of claim was in violation of due process, unaware of process and did not know could file a claim. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2903	TRO898052FTC	6/20/2016	Terry, Angela	Mark Terry	6301		X	X				1999 diagnosis; the injured party died before the bar date; rep says was not aware of the Tronox trust claim because people within the various church affiliations and associates allegedly kept the information private throughout the city of Columbus (although rep also says the injured party was a member of one of those churches). Rep also says that false information was provided saying that only people from the plant were eligible to file a claim. (May be thinking of earlier proceedings with different eligibility requirements.) Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2951	TRO890227FTC	2/23/2016	Jones, Sallie	Sallie Jones	6352		X	X			X	1999, 2006 and 2013 diagnoses; completely unaware that a time limitation was imposed on filing a claim; refers to caring for spouse and multiple hospitalization but does not provides dates of that care and does not explain many years' delay before filing a claim in 2017. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2952	TRO885606FTC	11/25/2015	Latham, Wilda	Wilda Latham	6353		X	X				1998 diagnosis; unaware of the bankruptcy case; did not see publication of the case or filing deadline; unaware could file a claim; says did not have adequate notice of the deadline and the publication was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to her as unknown claimant. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2953	TRO901666FTC	8/16/2016	Lyons, Uluster	Johnny Lyons	6354		X	X				2001 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2001; rep says that the injured party did not know and had no reason to know that he had been exposed to a Tronox product in the years before the bar date. Statute of limitations in Mississippi runs from date of known injury, regardless of whether cause of the injury was known. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2954	TRO903596FTC	11/23/2016	Doughy, Martha	Martha Doughy	6355			X				2007 diagnosis; says she did not receive notice that she was to file a claim; unaware that she could file a claim and did not know anything about a deadline and who to contact; she did not see a publication notice. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2955	TRO893178FTC	2/23/2016	Staples, Mary Pearl	Mary P. Staples	6356	8839	X	X				1988 diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm and received a small settlement. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8839 complaining about the process. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 2957	TRO887692FTC	12/14/2015	Henry, Liboria	Liboria Henry	6358		X	X			X	Various diagnosis dates, some long before bar date, some in 2013-15; previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002, never met with atty, was told either to accept or decline, says was wrongfully compensated and did not have a choice; says discharge of claim violation of due process; notice of claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (including any defenses as to the effect of the prior class action settlement) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its normal dispute resolution procedures.
2958	TRO893833FTC	3/2/2016	Harris, Tealester	Tealester Harris	6359			X				Was not aware of the bar date; says his mental/reasoning state is less than 100%, says symptoms began Jan. 2009. Insufficient showing of incapacity and insufficient justification of lengthy delay before filing claim in March 2016. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
2959	TRO892388FTC	2/23/2016	Gore, Klaus	Klaus Gore	6360			X		X		Says misinterpreted the conditions of the claim; did not know had been exposed to a Tronox product; says conditions arose after the bar date but also says in earlier filing did not add most recent health conditions; unclear whether any condition first diagnosed after the bar dates were mentioned in the claim. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Merits of claims based on conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its normal dispute resolution procedures.
2960	TRO898022FTC	Unknown	Brooks, Brandon	Brandon Brooks	6361		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 1990 diagnosis; no excuse provided. 2966	TRO889894FTC	2/23/2016	Harrison, Renotta	Renotta Harrison	6368			X		X		Alleges September 2009 diagnosis; says her claim should be considered because she had direct contact with Kerr-McGee because parent worked there and went to school by it. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2967	TRO887572FTC	12/14/2015	Harris, Elander	Elander Harris	6369		X	X				1968 diagnosis; previously filed with atty Bambach; says did not file because did not know where to get the paperwork. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2989	Unknown	Unknown	Little, Everett	Everett Little	6391		X	X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Various diagnoses, one in 1977 (asthma), others in 2009 and 2012; says notification process was not properly calculated for potential claimants to file claims by filing deadline; not aware of exposure to Tronox product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2990	TRO915035FTC	Unknown	Thomas, Susie	Cathy Thomas	6392		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses "1961-2000;" the injured party died in 2000; rep says publication of notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential claimants; did not know and had no reason to know of exposure to Tronox product. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2991	TRO897579FTC	5/25/2016	Toney, Gina	Gina Toney	6393			X				2008 diagnosis; says submitted a form in 2002 but did not hear from it (says it is unclear who supplied the form but it asked for any diagnosis and information of where the person lived in the area). Any form prepared in 2002 must have been in connection with a prior class action, particularly if it asked if person lived in covered area. Says did not file in 2009 because was not aware of a deadline or a claim at the time. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

2992	TRO897349FTC	5/25/2016	Guyton, Terrance	Terrance Guyton	6394		X	X				1999 diagnosis; was not aware could file a claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2993	Unknown	Unknown	Henley, Kevin	Kevin Henley	6395		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Various diagnoses, all before 1994; says publication of claims filing deadline was unreasonably calculated and made unavailable to those needing to file a claim; no way of knowing of exposure to Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
2994	TRO901984FTC	Unknown	Clay, Della	Charlie Clay	6396			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Alleges first diagnosis in 2010; the injured party is deceased; rep does not provide date but says injured party was incapacitated at the time the claim form was due; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore motion for relief based on excusable neglect or due process is denied. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
2995	TRO892708FTC	Unknown	Little, Mary	Mary Little	6397		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Various diagnoses, all before 1992; says publication notice of claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know had been exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

2997	TRO891581FTC	Unknown	James, Willie	Willie James	6399			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Seems to allege that diagnoses were all after the bar date, though some in 2009 and specific dates are not clear; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know of exposure to Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 2999	Unknown	Unknown	Archibald, Vincent	Vincent Archibald	6401		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Motion is submitted on pre-printed form for Abdul Karriem but the injured party's name is Vincent Archibald. 1994 diagnosis; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential clients/claimants; did not know of exposure to Tronox product. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3000	TRO884270FTC	Unknown	Dickerson, Marilyn	Marilyn Dickerson	6402		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 1983 diagnosis; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential clients/claimants; did not know of exposure to Tronox product. She says she was bedridden from a crushed ankle and was not able to walk for years and could not do anything but does not provide date for ankle injury or any supporting documentation. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3001	TRO898309FTC	Unknown	Perterson, Tom	Glenda Smith	6403		X	X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnosis dates listed as 2000, 2003, 2009; the injured party died in March 2009; rep says publication notice was unreasonably calculated to provide notice; claimant had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3002	TRO887764FTC	Unknown	Stephenson, Bobby	Bobby Stephenson	6404		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Previously filed with Colom law firm in November 2000; says Colom law firm did not inform him that he could file again due to the "second claims file"; says the filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to claimants; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; also says was prevented from filing by a natural disaster, but no such disaster is specified. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. No indication Colom firm represented the movant in 2009 but if it did that is not grounds for relief, because the Colom firm received direct notice of the bar date by mail, and alleged failures of counsel are not grounds for relief unless counsel's failures may be excused. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3061	TRO894872FTC	Unknown	Grays, Patrick	Patrick Grays	6465		X	X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1989, 1998, 2011; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3062	TRO902630FTC	4/20/2016	Carr, Barbara	Barbara Carr	6466			X		X		Diagnoses "1983 and between 2017;" place of exposure not clear; says did not know to make a claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3063	TRO884840FTC	11/25/2015	Brackett, Tony	Tony Brackett	6467	6468 8907	X	X				1980 diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm, 2002 Kerr McGee Creosote Plant Class Action; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons for not filing by bar date. A duplicate motion is filed at docket #6468 with a different TRO number [TRO900762FTC] and with the claimant's name listed as "Tony Brakett" but the same address and signature. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8907 complaining about the process. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3064	TRO901117FTC	8/16/2016	Sheilds, Joe	Joe Shields	6469			X				2008 diagnosis; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. Also says he did not know about the claims process, he had moved by the time it was over. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3065	TRO902557FTC	9/14/2016	Smith, Arie	Arie Smith	6470		X	X				2004 diagnosis; says did not have knowledge of an ongoing case of Tronox; says did not receive a telephone call, letter or learn anything from media concerning this matter. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3066	TRO890212FTC	2/23/2016	Pollard, Bryant	Pamela Pollard	6471			X				2006 diagnosis; rep of minor says was told that because of where they lived, they did not qualify to apply for the future tort claim but that after some years passed by, "the area to apply was extended." Advice about restraints based on where claimant lived is likely based on prior class action (which was on behalf of residents in a certain area), not the bankruptcy case. Says the publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential claimants who were unknown at the time of the notice. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3067	TRO895589FTC	3/24/2016	Acron, Curtis	Curtis Acron	6472		X	X				1976 and 1982 diagnoses; says was not notified of an opportunity to file a claim; unaware of "first" round of claims; says retired military but was discharged from military service on November 30, 2005, long before the bar date; says was living in Texas and was not aware of bankruptcy proceedings but became aware of "second round" of claims when he visited Columbus. He says a relative's claim who was in military out of state was approved for processing based on non-notification (out of jurisdiction). Says his own claim not going forward would be a violation of due process. Alleges notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Most importantly, the claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3068	TRO895447FTC	3/24/2016	Edwards, Robert	Robert Edwards	6473			X		X		Diagnosis November 2009; says did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; says publication notice of the bar date was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to a potential claimant; was not aware of the threatening conditions. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3070	TRO887641FTC	12/14/2015	Lavender, Charlie	Charlie Lavender	6475		X	X				Various diagnoses in the years 2000-2007; did not know could file a claim; depended on friends and family for information about the lawsuit and most of the information he received was wrong and incomplete; a certain degree of illiteracy; says discharge of his claim is a violation of due process; says that after his diagnosis, he was an emotionally wrecked individual; he became depressed and withdrawn; unaware how to file a claim, does not understand legal issues. Not a sufficient showing of incapacity in the sense of inability to understand claims or inability to file claim or to enlist help of others in doing so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3072	TRO900530FTC	8/16/2016	Trimble, Bobby	Bobby Trimble	6477			X			X	2012 diagnosis; unaware of the case and deadlines. Says was wrongly advised on the process of filing a claim and due to that, his initial claim was improperly filed, but does not way when such advice was or by whom, appears to be referring to communications with trust about late-filed claim. Says was not advised he could file a category D claim and was told to complete a category A claim, but category "D" claims were limited to people who filed on or before August 12, 2009. Says claimants were not notified of the tort trust, complains of person who purported to be with the Trust who gave incorrect advice and provided prefilled forms; says wants to be placed in the proper category "D," though by its terms that category is not available. Alleges symptoms and diagnosis after bar date but documents suggest there may have been earlier conditions. Category "D" was closed in 2010 and cannot be reopened, category "A" is the only place where claims may now be filed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. The same motion was filed with a different TRO claim number at docket #6238. It appears that the original claim may have mentioned earlier conditions and/or diagnoses, but motion only references alleged condition first diagnosed after the bar dates. Motion does not identify any pre-bar date diagnoses for which relief from the bar date is sought, and so motion for permission to file such claims is denied. The merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3104	TRO905015FTC	1/24/2017	Gore, Diane	Diane Gore	6509			X		X		Alleges a 2010 diagnosis; says misinterpreted the conditions of the claim and forgot to add most recent conditions; did not know exposed to a Tronox product. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, motion is denied to the extent it seeks relief from the bar date as to a pre-bar date diagnosis. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3105	TRO892852FTC	2/23/2016	Lawson, Joanne	Joanne Lawson	6510	8131	X	X				1959 diagnosis; says moved from Columbus, MS to Detroit in 1968 and was not aware of the claims process. A supplement filed at docket #8131, first heard about proceeding in 2015. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3126	TRO892800FTC	2/23/2016	Wilkins, Reginald	Reginald Wilkins	6531		X	X			X	Alleges a 2010 diagnosis but says previously filed with Colom law firm in 2003; unclear if received an award but references Colom law firm taking 1/2 of the money and leaving town with their money. Says had no idea he was to file a claim in 2009 because Colom did not let him know; says did not receive notice as he was out of state; says was in incarcerated from 2008-2011; does not provide any supporting papers for any of these statements. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of legal rights and claims. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Unclear if movant was a client of the Colom firm at the time of the bar date but the Colom firm received direct notice of the bar date by regular mail; failures of counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused, no such excuse is offered. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim based on an alleged condition first diagnosed after the bar date (and any defenses based on prior settlements) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. However, although the claimant did not seek relief based on infancy it appears possible the claimant was a minor at the time of the bar date. Will permit supplemental submission to verify age as of the bar date and to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.

3140	TRO896641FTC	4/25/2016	Bigbee, Doris	Doris Bigbee	6545		X	X			X	Diagnoses in 1970, 1999, 2011, 2016; says did file a claim by deadline but appears to be under mistaken impression that late-filed claim was timely. No reasons listed for failure to file by bar date in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3141	TRO899026FTC	6/27/2016	Williams, Geraldine	Geraldine Fields Williams	6546		X	X			X	Various diagnosis dates, most before the bar date but some after; unaware of the bankruptcy case and the claims filing deadline; lacks knowledge how to complete a claim and "not knowing all chemicals"; heard about it in 2016; was given a contact to a lady portraying to represent Garretson Trust and says she requested to be compensated to assist in filling out the claim. The claimant says that because she did not know the chemicals to which she was exposed and had no clue which form to fill out or how to fill it, the form was provided to her and she was instructed what to fill out. The purported Garretson lady informed her to document a chemical that was not involved in this settlement. The claimant wants to now be allowed to file a claim with these other chemicals as the cause of their condition. She sent the same letter many others sent about this pre-filled form directing them to file for category A chemicals rather than category d and now they want to refile claims. References to Category A and to Category D may be to creditor classifications under the confirmed plan; Category D, however, was available only for persons who filed claims before the bar date, and the only assets still available for claims are those set aside for Category A. Complaints about difficulty filling out trust claim forms should be resolved with the trust but are not relevant to a motion pertaining to the 2009 bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 3182	TRO897153FTC	5/4/2016	Blunt, Alexis	Alexis Blunt	6588		X	X			X	Diagnoses 1975, 1994, 2014; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonable; also says was a child at the time, but since alleged exposure began in 1969 the claimant had to be at least 40 years old by the time of the 2009 bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3183	TRO900536FTC	8/16/2016	Washington, Brooke	Myron Washington	6589			X				2007 diagnosis; parent filing for daughter; unaware child was exposed to Tronox product; says was not given justifiable allowance under the guidance of Colom and Lundy; discharge of claim a violation of due process; certain sectors met in private with minimal details to the town. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3184	TRO887959FTC	12/18/2015	Erby, Easha	Easha Erby	6590		X	X				Diagnosis August 10, 2009 (two days before bar date) but also says previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3185	TRO885800FTC	11/25/2015	Williams, Carol	Carol Williams	6591			X			X	Diagnoses listed as 2016. Says claim was filed but did not receive a written document; however, there is no record of a timely claim filed in 2009, movant may be referring to the late-filed claim under the mistaken belief that it was timely. Says she did not know what to do and thought "the case" was closed until she heard about the bankruptcy case in 2009. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3186	TRO892879FTC	2/23/2016	Stewart, Susie	Olivia Slater	6592	9123	X	X				Diagnosis date listed as 1933 but may mean 1993; the injured party died in 1993. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. A supplemental letter filed at docket #9123 complaining about the process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3187	TRO892361FTC	2/23/2016	Edmond, Jim	Jim Edmond	6593		X	X			X	Says submitted a claim and it was turned down, may be referring to late-filed claim; "File another claim it cost a hundred dollar and decided not to because [he] didn't have a hundred dollar to give." The information he initially received concentrated on lung issues but after more research he discovered that it focused on more than lung conditions; says symptoms 2013, diagnosis 2015. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. A supplement filed at docket #8148, say provided required proof of residency, also complains that other people filed that did not even live in the area. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3190	TRO893396FTC	2/23/2016	Rush, Emma	Emma Rush	6596		X	X				Diagnosis unclear but recalls being seen by doctor for the condition in 1984 or so; former resident of Columbus, MS who still lived there in 2009; says was not aware of the deadline; says the public was not made aware of the deadline until November 2011; says she did not receive the information from the published notices of the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3191	TRO893397FTC	2/23/2016	Rush, Kenneth	Kenneth Rush	6597		X	X				1985 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS who still lived there in 2009; says was not aware of the deadline; says the public was not made aware of the deadline until 2011; he did not receive the information from the published notices of the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3193	TRO888134FTC	12/18/2015	Dunn, Verna	Jacqueline Dunn-Rencher	6599		X	X				2005 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2005; place of exposure not clear; rep says saw no publication notice of the claims; the notice was only published 14 days, the notice was not reasonably calculated and did not allow town to become aware or make known of the publication to family and friends. She does not subscribe to any of the publications or know anyone in those nearby cities she lives in Georgia and had no knowledge of the notice until a family member informed her. Complaints about amount of time between the publication date and the bar date do not explain the many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3194	TRO888338FTC	12/18/2015	Virgil, Joan	Joan Virgil	6600		X	X				1958 diagnosis; says "was unaware of the initial claims and was informed of the process." Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3195	TRO886548FTC	12/7/2015	Williams, Sammie	Williams, Sammie	6601	8147	X	X		X		First diagnosed 2005 with colon cancer, others in 2010 and 2013; did not file by deadline because was "confused, misinformed, and in doubt about what I was supposed to do;" unaware could add new illnesses after original submission date. A supplement filed by rep at docket #8147, rep says that the claimant was classified with PTSD in April 2008 and was not physically or mentally able to complete information on the claim form. His spouse was appointed his representative payee for social security benefits in 2005, and says that she submitted the information when she became aware of the case. No explanation for spouse's long delay after the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3198	TRO893524FTC	2/23/2016	Jennings, Sara	Rosa Williams	6604	8275	X	X				1989 diagnosis; did not file in 2009 because "didn't know about it." A supplement filed at docket #8275, more contact information. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3199	TRO880008FTC	Unknown	Bryant, Lydia Bailey	Lydia Jean Bailey Bryant	6605		X	X				The motion at docket # 6605 is for Lydia Bailey Bryant on her own behalf [claim TRO880008FTC]; the motion relating to Carrie Prowell Bailey is at docket # 6606. As to Lydia Bailey Bryant: former resident of Columbus, MS; diagnoses were in 1970s and 1980s; unaware exposed prior to deadline. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3200	TRO898635FTC	6/27/2016	Bailey, Carrie Prowell	Bailey, Carrie Prowell	6606		X	X				Trust's summary appears to have combined information from dockets 6605 and 6606; they are two separate motions. As to the motion at docket 6606: 2000 diagnosis; Lydia filing on behalf of her mother, Carrie, a former resident of Columbus, MS who is deceased. Unaware mom exposed prior to deadline. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3201	TRO914578FTC	7/26/2017	Webber, Sturdivant	Dorothy Jones	6607		X	X				Filing on behalf of deceased father, who lived in Columbus, MS; diagnosis in 1997, father died in 1998; filer was unaware of the bankruptcy case at the time of the deadline and feels that notice was not reasonably calculated to reach claimants, had no reason to know father had been exposed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3202	TRO901954FTC	9/14/2016	Henderson, Trevonda	Trevonda Henerson	6608		X	X			X	Diagnosed 2010; former resident of Starkville, MS; says was told to file with attorney Colom and he was unfair in distributing funds but that appears to be a reference to a prior class action settlement distribution. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 3225	TRO898148FTC	6/20/2016	Petty, Christine	Christine Petty	6631		X	X				1972 diagnosis; unaware of deadline until it had passed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3226	TRO895437FTC	3/24/2016	Hendricks, Eric	Eric Hendricks	6632		X	X				1999 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS; says claim was made between 2000 and 2003 but "the court motion was delayed due to Tronox filing bankruptcy;" bankruptcy filing, however, did not occur until 2009; says was a child and incompetent at time of deadline, but form shows birth on 3/20/88, so claimant was 21 years old at the time of the bar date. If a claim was stayed by the Tronox bankruptcy then there had to be knowledge of the bankruptcy case and a proof of claim should have been filed, as proofs of service on file show that notices were sent by mail to all pending litigants and/or to their counsel of record. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If no lawsuit was pending, then the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3227	TRO894811FTC	3/23/2016	Harris, Terence	Terence Harris	6633		X	X				1980s diagnosis; unaware of deadline until it had passed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3228	TRO891784FTC	2/23/2016	Thompson, Darius	Darius Thompson	6634						X	Diagnoses 2005 and 2009; child and incompetent at time of deadline. 3332	TRO895828FTC	3/24/2016	Smith, Henry	Eva Smith	6744	8071	X	X				The injured party died in 1989; widow was unaware of deadline. Says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to reach claimants. A supplement filed at docket #8071, objects to the statute of limitations defense because the presence of the dangerous chemicals were not discovered until after 1989; says the fact that only 5% of claimants filed prior to bar date establishes that notice was deficient. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Under MS law the statute of limitations begins to run on the date of diagnosis regardless of whether the injured party knows the cause of injury. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations many years before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3337	TRO886347FTC	12/7/2015	Cunningham, Rodie	Rodie Cunningham	6749		X	X				1972 diagnosis; unaware of filing deadline; in attachment, says that publication notice insufficient because there is no type of public notice informing residents of neighborhood that they are still accepting claims. The only claims that were supposed to be accepted after the bar date were claims based on new conditions first diagnosed after the bar date. This claimant does not allege a post-bar date diagnosis. The bar date order bars all claims for pre-bar date diagnoses unless excusable neglect or due process violations are shown under the standards set forth in the accompanying Decision. Movant alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3360	TRO887801FTC	12/14/2015	Cockrell, John	John Cockrell	6775			X			X	Diagnosed 7/21/2017, says was unaware of deadline. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3361	TRO895600FTC	3/24/2016	Watson, Terrence	Terrence Watson	6776		X	X			X	Diagnosis dates crossed off, says diagnosed "2010 and in early childhood;" former Columbus, MS resident who still lived there in 2009; says form is confusing and filled it out as best could do; unaware eligible to file before deadline, claims community had false information about eligibility and thought only employees could file (apparently referring to an earlier proceeding on behalf of employees). Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 3363	TRO890569FTC	2/23/2016	Priester, Terry	Terry Priester	6778	8299	X	X				1984 diagnosis; says was unaware of claims process. A supplement filed at docket #8299, without knowledge to wade through the process. It is unclear if this motion relates to the same claim as the motion at docket # 6779; the motion at docket #6778 is filed for Terry Priester and the motion at docket #6779 is filed for Terrence Priester; the explanations are the same but the diagnosis dates differ and the claim numbers differ, so Court presumes they are separate claimants who have the same address. As to Terry Priester (docket # 6778): Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3395	TRO912079FTC	5/30/2017	Ziobro, Ronald	Ronald Ziobro	6810			X				1968 diagnosis; publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3396	TRO880080FTC	12/4/2015	Davis, Lee	Lee Davis	6811			X		X		Alleges 2014 diagnosis but says previously filed with attorney Landis Sexton in 2004; did file a claim in the Tronox bankruptcy case but appears to be under mistaken belief that the late-filed claim was timely. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3399	TRO887269FTC	12/14/2015	Smith, Rosie	Rosie Smith	6814		X	X			X	Diagnoses 2004, 2009, 2010; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2003; received $200 from Colom law firm; says was not aware of Tronox bankruptcy process. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 3400	TRO888892FTC	12/30/2015	Dunn, Alvin	Alvin Dunn	6815		X	X				1980 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS; says did not see publication notice of the Future Tort Claims, it was published only 14 days, this was not reasonably calculated to allow community to become aware or for them to make it known to others; do not subscribe to any of the papers where it was published; currently resides in Alabama. Even if complaints about amount of time allowed to file a claim in 2009 somehow excused a failure to file by August 2009 they do not explain the many years of delay after the bar date before the movant filed a claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3401	TRO894906FTC	3/23/2016	Hill, John	Bernice Hill	6816		X	X			X	Submitted many medical records but cannot tell from them what the dates of initial diagnoses were as opposed to the dates of doctor visits and treatments. Rep says unaware of the deadline; constantly going back and forth to the doctor. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 3406	TRO901698FTC	8/16/2016	Lubeck, Kimberly	Kimberly Lubeck	6821	8180		X				1996 diagnosis; says that she was living in New York and did not receive information regarding future tort claim, nor did she receive any mailing about it; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. A supplement filed at docket #8180, saying money taken out by original attorney was highly inflated (apparently referring to a class action), unclear if movant was a part of a prior action. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. 3410	TRO886688FTC	12/7/2015	Brown, Jacobery	Geshia Brown	6825			X			X	Minor; rep says symptoms and diagnosis October 2009; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3411	TRO898071FTC	6/20/2016	Bradford, Lora	Lora Bradford	6826		X	X				Diagnoses 1997, 2000, 2003, 2004; previously filed with atty Howard Gunn in 2002, Tollison law firm; received $237.82; says was not knowledgeable and received wrong information about filing; was depressed and could not think clearly, caring for sick relatives; child stressed out over job; school state benefit taken away; lawyer handling case was not fair to everybody, did not receive a future tort claim injury table but most people did receive one. In letter, says a certain degree of illiteracy, discharge of claim violation of due process; after diagnosis in pain and emotional state; unaware how to file a claim against such a large company; does not have knowledge of legal issues; most information received was incorrect. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3412	TRO888447FTC	12/18/2015	Scott (Brown), Tongie	Tongie Scott (Brown)	6827	7656		X				Conditions in 1980s; place of exposure not clear; unaware could file a claim until filed this claim; says was undergoing radiation and that it may be possible that incorrect dosages or different medications altered her concentration and caused memory loss [the treatments were in the 1990s]. A duplicate of this motion is filed at docket # 7656. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3413	TRO885716FTC	11/25/2015	Petty, Sandra	Sandra Petty	6828	8653		X			X	Various diagnoses, some before bar date, some after; suffers from PTSD from Gulf war, with short and long term memory loss. A supplemental letter complaining about the process filed at docket #8653. Claims based on the listed conditions that were diagnosed before the bar date (in 1992 and 1995) were time-barred by the applicable MS statute of limitations many years before the Tronox bankruptcy filing and before movant began getting PTSD compensation in 2009. However, conditions first diagnosed after the bar date may qualify as future tort claims. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3418	TRO902100FTC	Unknown	Douglass, Jasmine	Jasmine Douglass	6833		X	X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Claim number may be incorrect; it is listed on the motion form but other information was whited out, movant may have used a form sent to a different claimant. Various diagnoses, some listed as "2004-2017," unclear if different diagnoses of different conditions or same continuing conditions; says publication was not calculated at a reasonable time for future claimants; no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. It appears that she used an incorrect TRO number as the number she wrote is for Abdul Karriem at docket #6401. Complains about notice for "future" claims but bar date in this case is relevant only to claims that were diagnosed before August 12, 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3431	TRO891697FTC	2/23/2016	Gregory, Leeroy	Leeroy Gregory	6846		X	X				2000 diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm 2001, Lundy & Davis LLP 2001; as a client was not contacted about the deadline. No indication that movant was part of an actually-pending lawsuit in 2009. Unclear if movant was represented by the listed law firms in 2009 but those firms received direct notice of the bar date by mail. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3432	TRO893851FTC	3/2/2016	Peoples, Adell	Samuel Peoples	6847		X	X		X		2004 and 2013 diagnoses; says grew up near "the plant," not clear which one; unaware that the dangerous Tronox products were in the air and the water; rep says did not know to file before 2009, filed when found out that Tronox was liable. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3433	TRO902308FTC	9/14/2016	Williams, Charles	Charles Williams	6848			X		X		Alleges 2010 diagnosis; did not know about the claim at the time. By then, the deadline had passed. Also told that because he did not live in Columbus, MS, it would be a waste of time to file after the claim expiration date; does not say who gave that advice, but reference to residency suggests these conversations may have related to prior class action. In any event, the claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3468	TRO899295FTC	7/11/2016	Hairston, Clara	Clara Hairston	6885	8372	X	X				1958 diagnosis; says previously filed a claim in 2002 with her two sisters with attorneys in West Point, MS; one sister received a payment. Clara and the other sister were allotted $500 each and were told by the agent not to accept it because if they did they "would not be in future court." A supplement filed at docket #8372, consulted a representative in 2002. Reference to 2002 proceeding must be to a prior class action in Mississippi. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding and was not part of a still-pending proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel in all pending cases received direct notice of the bar date.

3473	TRO889319FTC	2/23/2016	Hendricks, Andreka	Andreka Hendricks	6890			X			X		The Trust incorrectly identified the motion at docket # 6890 as relating to the claim of Johnnie Hendricks; that motion, filed by Johnnie Hendricks, actually is at docket #7327 with a signature page at docket #6928. The motion at docket #6890 is for Andreka Hendricks. Andreka Hendricks says she was diagnosed in 2010, was a minor in 2009; standard cut-and-pasted explanations as to why missed the bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3474	TRO880714FTC	2/23/2016	Hawkins, Harold	Harold Hawkins	6891		X	X			X		Alleges a December 2009 diagnosis but also says previously filed with the Colom law firm in the 2002 Kerr-McGee Creosote Plant Class Action; TRO claim number on pre-printed form is TRO880714FTC. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. If claims based on pre-2006 diagnoses were not resolved in a prior proceeding then they was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3475	TRO898248FTC	6/20/2016	Summerville, Daisy	Vanessa Summerville	6892		X	X			X		Diagnoses in 2000 (cardiovascular) and 2016 (respiratory); the injured party died in 2017; rep says that they did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; the injured party was incompetent with a 4th grade education and had no understanding of the legal process or the cause of her condition; rep says that the most severe aspects of her condition were diagnosed in 2016. Insufficient showing of inability to file a claim or to enlist the help of others in doing so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3507	TRO887006FTC	12/14/2015	Mikolaczyk, John	Dale Mikolaczyk & Andrew Lentowski, Esq.	6924			X				1976 diagnosis; worked "out of town" in New York City from 1980-2010, only returned on occasional weekends and was unaware of any such class action lawsuit. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3508	TRO887081FTC	12/14/2015	Shepherd, Bessie	Bessie Shepherd	6925	8117		X			X	2010 diagnosis; says that at time of filing was not properly notified of filing claim and was taking care of ill relative in another town. A supplement filed at docket #8117, says has been on medication since 2008 and her medication caused her to put the wrong dates on the first claim form. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3509	TRO894850FTC	3/23/2016	Brown, Vanessa	Brown, Vanessa	6926		X	X				1992 diagnosis; says that she filed a claim in 2008 and never received any continuing information; says relative who filed claims received information and she did not. Any claim filed in 2008 had to be in connection with a different proceeding as the bankruptcy case was not filed until 2009. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. No record of a claim filed in the bankruptcy case. Notice of the bar date was sent to all litigants with claims pending in 2009 or to their attorneys, as verified by the proofs of service on file with the court. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim based on 1992 diagnosis also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3510	TRO901946FTC	9/14/2016	Sherman, Dorothy	Dorothy Sherman	6927			X		X		Merely signature form, but alleges a cancer diagnosis in 2017. No information to support relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 3511	TRO905300FTC	3/1/2017	Hendricks, Johnnie	Danielle Crowder Hendricks	6928	7327		X				The trust incorrectly identified the motion at docket # 6890 as relating to Johnnie Hendricks but the motion at docket #6890 was for Andrecka Hendricks. The motion for Johnnie Hendricks was filed at docket # 7327 with the signature page filed at docket # 6928. As to Johnnie Hendricks: motion alleges a 2008 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2008; the rep says first found out about the process in February 2016, does not provide any other explanation for not filing or not pursuing action. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3525	TRO896942FTC	4/25/2016	Cummings, Robert	Sharon Kearney	6943			X				2008 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2008; rep says publication notice was not provided to area claimants. Notice of the bar date was published in the Scranton Times (4.1 miles from Taylor, PA) in June 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3526	TRO891663FTC	2/23/2016	Flimmons, Della	Della Flimmons	6944		X	X		X		Claim says she and her husband (deceased 1992) sent in claims through the church but she only received the determination notice for herself, is apparently referring to late-filed claims. Her own diagnoses are not clear, says problems began 1983. Husband's claim was time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. As to claimant's own claim: Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 3528	TRO880769FTC	12/4/2015	Guyton, Mary	Orko Guyton	6946	8085	X	X				1993 and 1995 diagnoses; the injured party died in 1997. Rep says had no knowledge of exposure to Tronox product at that time; unaware of claim option or way to complete paperwork. A supplement filed at docket #8085; rep says did not have knowledge of the lawsuit or bar date; trying to contact company since 2001; refers to a NY law that allows victims to file lawsuits within reasonable time upon discovery; complains that victims get $1,000 payments while attys get 50% in "administrative fees." Claim is governed by MS law, not NY law. Claim was time-barred under MS statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3547	TRO896046FTC	4/6/2016	Gordon, Shelbie	Shelbie Gordon	6966			X			X	2009 diagnosis; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; says publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not have knowledge of the ongoing case; did not receive direct notice nor notice through media; says symptoms and diagnosis 2009 after bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3548	TRO884185FTC	11/25/2015	Connally, Christopher	Christopher Connally	6967		X	X				1997-1998 diagnoses; did not know and no reason to know about the deadline; says discharge of claim a violation of due process but does not say how. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3549	TRO887164FTC	12/14/2015	Walker, Uvodkia	Uvodkia Walker	6969		X	X				1994 diagnosis; says she was "unaware of the re-evaluating of pending claims;" says did not see any type of publication about the Tronox bankruptcy cases being reevaluated or of the deadline. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3550	TRO895014 FTC	3/23/2016	Love, Angela	Angela Love	6970		X	X		X		Various diagnoses, some before bar date, some after; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 1998; unaware of the Tronox bankruptcy case; did not see any of the publication notice regarding deadline nor did she learn of it from other media. She did later see the notice from the Trust concerning the future tort claims and the application. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. If claims based on diagnoses before 2006 were not resolved in a prior proceeding then they were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3551	N/a	11/28/2017	Stevenson, Ethel	Ethel Stevenson	6971			X		X		Unclear if filed a claim. 3554	TRO892100FTC	2/23/2016	Tate, Anderson III	Anderson Tate III	6975	8245		X				The motion at docket #6975 for Anderson Tate III [TRO892100FTC], and he filed it himself. The motion for Anderson Tate [TRO898721FTC] is at docket #5735. The excuse for Alexander Tate III is that he was away from college during the 2009 claims period. A supplement filed at docket #8245, says unaware of the bar date, was away at school from 2006-2010 and unaware could file a claim. No explanation for lengthy delay between bar date and actual clam filing date. Says exposure began 7/8/88 so was at least 21 years old as of the bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3556	TRO894746FTC	3/23/2016	Thomas, Twanda	Twanda Thomas	6977		X	X				The motion at docket # 6977 is for Twanda Thomas; a motion on behalf of Twanda Walker is at docket # 7054. Twanda Thomas claims a 2000 diagnosis. There is a medical record attached that references a surgery during the month of the bar date; says she was sole caregiver for parent who was diagnosed with serious illness and she was traveling out of state to assist with her charges and treatments and was focusing on that care therefore was not aware of deadline; not aware of articles in Wall Street Journal or any other publication; says violation of due process. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Illness and surgery in August 2009 may explain why claim not filed then but no explanation for many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3563	TRO887527FTC	Unknown	Malone, Patricia	Patricia Malone	6984		X	X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Two diagnoses in 2012, rest 1995 and earlier. Says unaware of claims process; complains that the process was tainted because payments were made to claimants who were not ill, had no serious medical problems and did not live in the primary area; this shows incompetence or greed, failure to use available technology or bias in claims determination. Allowance of claims was done by the Trust, Court cannot comment on allegations of errors in prior claim allowances. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 3576	TRO901085FTC	8/16/2016	Jones, Courtney	Courtney Jones	6998	8210						X	2002 and 2005 diagnoses; former resident of Columbus, MS who still lived there in 2009; minor at time of bar date; says a representative (not know who) previously filed claim with Colom firm; unaware exposed to a Tronox product until after the deadline. She was informed that the law firm had filed a claim on her behalf. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8210, says the lawyer failed to give the bar date. No record of any bankruptcy claim filed on her behalf. Not clear if Colom firm represented her in 2009 but the Colom firm received direct notice of the bar date by mail. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Given allegation that was a minor, will permit supplemental submission to verify age as of the bar date and to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
3577	TRO898755FTC	6/27/2016	Lowery, Jerry	Jerry Lowery	6999	8244	X	X					Diagnoses 2004 and earlier. Says was not aware could file a claim, lived in another state. She says that she later found out that any additional funds from any sources concerning the Tronox case would be distributed to early filers. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3640	TRO892183FTC	2/23/2016	Conner, Terry	Deloris Conner	7066		X	X				1973 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2003; previously filed with Colom law firm, says received a small check but that later Colom said he did not represent the injured party. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. No indication that Colom firm represented the movant in 2009 but if it did that is of no help because the Colom firm received direct notice of the bar date, and failures of counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. The Trust's summary referred to docket #6562 as relating to this claim but that is not correct. The motion at docket #7076 says the injured party died in 2013; rep unaware of claims process or that could file a claim; a violation of due process. A duplicate of docket # 7076 is filed at docket # 7133. Alleges a diagnosis of cardiovascular problems in 2013, other diagnoses in 2003 and earlier. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 3666	TRO889926FTC	2/23/2016	Clemens, Williams	Williams Clemons	7095			X			X	Alleges new medical condition 9/14/09; says publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; unaware exposed to Tronox product or of dangers posed by the product at site; did not receive notice by mail, newspapers, correspondence or TV; says there was a natural disaster in 2009 as Mississippi is a disaster state, prone to an abundance of flooding and tornadoes; in that year 2009, a storm knocked down power lines, but does not specify how he was impacted by any of the alleged natural disasters. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3667	TRO886739FTC	12/7/2015	Klimasiewfski, Melinda	Melinda Klimasiewfski	7096		X	X			X	Diagnoses 2006 and 2012; unaware of filing date; did not know some of her conditions were related to a Tronox product. It was not public knowledge to file; does not read the Wall Street Journal; did not receive any notification regarding bar date; says publication notice was not reasonable; says bar date notice was deficient on its face but does not say how. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3668	TRO901929FTC	9/14/2016	Abdo-Ahmed, Saada	Courtney Smith	7097	7098		X			X	2009 diagnosis (month not clear); says did not receive notice and did not know that a claim could be filed. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect but only addresses lack of knowledge and not other factors, including length of delay, diligence in pursuit of claim and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3683	TRO886147FTC	12/7/2015	Dukes, Ronald	Ronald Dukes	7115		X	X				1978 diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm 1996, no funds received. Appears to believe that class action claim counted as a claim in the separate 2009 bankruptcy case, which is not the case. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3684	TRO892148FTC	2/23/2016	Weatherspoon, Johnny Sr.	Johnny Weatherspoon Sr.	7116		X	X				The motion at docket #7116 is for Johnny Weatherspoon Sr.; a separate motion at docket #6942 is for Johnny Weatherspoon, Jr. The excuse for Johnny Weatherspoon, Sr. is that he previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002 and was not aware he could file a claim as the Colom paralegal told him he could not file a claim. Conduct of counsel or counsel's employee is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Claim either was resolved in a prior proceeding or, if not, it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3685	TRO892527FTC	2/23/2016	Gardner, Angela	Angela Gardner	7117	8305	X	X				1966 diagnosis; moved from Columbus, MS and was not aware of the claim process. 3687	TRO904630FTC	1/24/2017	Rutkowski, Joseph	Dorothy Rowlands	7119			X				May 2006 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2006; rep says they thought he had filed but he was estranged from his children. The rep must be referring to another filing in another proceeding as the injured party died in 2006, prior to the bankruptcy filing in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3688	TRO888049FTC	12/18/2015	Hayden, Jack	Jack Hayden	7120			X			X	Says symptoms after bar date, does not provide date for a diagnosis and does not provide an excuse. 3704	TRO901083FTC	8/16/2016	Lewis, Dicy	Sharon Lewis	7139	8212 9482	X	X			X	Various diagnoses, many before 2003, one in 2006, pneumonia in 2016; the injured party died in 2019; previously filed with Colom law firm 1999-2002 and with Lundy & Davis; says the amount of settlement was different when she signed, thinks she was coerced into signing and was not told that the litigation was an ongoing future tort claims. Seems to be under the impression that the bankruptcy process is a later part of the earlier class action, which is not correct. Claimant apparently received approximately $17,431 net from the class action settlement. A supplement filed at docket #8212, claims that attorneys did not inform her of bar date, but the prior class action was over before the Tronox bankruptcy filing and there is no evidence claimant was still represented by counsel. In any event, class action counsel received direct notice of the bar date, and if they still represented the claimant but failed to file a claim that unexcused failure by counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect. A supplement filed at docket #9376 adding information and address for mailing. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 and not resolved in prior action also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (and any defenses as to the effect of the prior class action settlement) is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

Did not file a proof of claim because did not have knowledge of ongoing Tronox case; says did not get any notification concerning matter. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3711	TRO884499FTC	11/25/2015	Cockrell-Brewer, Mynona	Mynona Cockrell-Brewer	7148			X				Alleges symptoms from 1990s but diagnosis 2009; previously filed with Colom law firm in 1990s in class action lawsuit against Kerr-McGee for residents living in the surrounding area of facility, outcome of that claim not clear; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential claimants; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; did not read Wall Street Journal; says Tronox did not try hard enough to locate those living in area who were rejected; did not receive direct notice. Says the class action did not do right by people, is thankful that the Tort Claims Trust is providing a second chance. Tort Claims Trust is not related to the prior class action and has no connection with it. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3714	TRO884191FTC	11/25/2015	Hill, Landrick	Landrick Hill	7151			X			X	Says was unaware of claim filing date. It is difficult to read the medical records but it appears that certain diagnoses were prior to the bar date because claimant says that had he known of deadline, he would have put down "other medical records with the dates pertaining to your deadline dates and after the deadline dates." Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3715	TRO885830FTC	11/25/2015	Irions, Annie	Annie Irions	7152		X	X			X	Alleges first diagnosis in 2010 but also says previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002 class action. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3718	TRO881063FTC	12/4/2015	Klimasiewfski, Walter	Diane Klimasiewfski	7155		X	X				Diagnoses 1985 or 1987; the injured party died in 1989; rep says that the publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3719	TRO881047FTC	12/4/2015	Klimasiewfski, Diane	Diane Klimasiewfski	7156			X		X		Various diagnoses, one in 1986, rest after bar date; says unaware of the claims filing deadline; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; says health issues manifested after bar date but also says had issues prior but was unaware of deadline to file; says the notice was deficient on its face but offers no specifics. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3720	TRO886740FTC	12/7/2015	Slayton, Amanda Klimasiewfski	Amanda Klimasiewfski Slayton	7157			X		X		Unaware of bar date; do not read Wall Street Journal and it was not public knowledge; unaware of bankruptcy case; says conditions diagnosed after bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3721	TRO889163FTC	2/23/2016	Vaughn, Queen	Queen Vaughn	7158			X		X		A prior submission in early 2016 (docket 3054) was treated by the court as a motion for permission to file a late claim. That motion was denied by an order entered at docket no. 3060. However, as reflected in the order, the Tort Claims Trust agreed that Ms. Vaughn's claim would be treated as a timely filed claim alleging that she is a Future Tort Claimant, and that the merits of that claim would be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its normal procedures. The order denying the prior motion is final. Any issues as to the merits of the Future Tort Claim are to be resolved by the Trust under its normal dispute resolution procedures.

A supplement file at docket #8213, says part of pre-bankruptcy lawsuit, lawyer negligent in failing to file claim. It appears that movant received approximately $17,431 net from a class action settlement. A supplement filed at docket #8212. A supplement filed at docket #9376 adding information and address for mailing. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Claim either was resolved in a prior proceeding or, if not, was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3723	TRO901079FTC	8/16/2016	Lewis, Sharon	Sharon Lewis	7160	8196	X	X				Various diagnoses, all 1978 and earlier; previously filed with Colom law firm 1999; says she did not know a fair amount and therefore was coerced to sign for $8,300 recovery and was not informed of a bar date for future tort claims. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8196, unaware of bar date, lawyer failed to file for future tort claim; was previously unfairly compensated. Appears to be under the impression that the bankruptcy process is connected to a prior class action and/or that counsel in a prior class action represented claimant in regards to the bankruptcy case. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not the subject of a prior proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date. Unexcused failures by counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect.

Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
3745	TRO893091FTC	2/23/2016	Wood, James	Courtney Smith	7185	7186	X	X				1972 diagnosis; did not receive any notice regarding the Tronox trust tort settlement. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, this claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred.
3746	TRO896002FTC	4/6/2016	Brandon, Annie	Mary Patterson	7187			X				First diagnoses 1940 or so; the injured party died, was unaware of claim 1997; injured party's residence and place of exposure unclear; rep unaware could file a claim for deceased relative; unaware exposed to Tronox product. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3747	TRO898089FTC	6/20/2016	Stevenson, Joanne	Nellie Griffin	7188		X	X				1979 diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002-2005 but did not receive a settlement; the injured party is deceased; filed with Trust when the possibility of a future tort claim resurfaced through the church. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3758	TRO897140FTC	5/4/2016	Gardner, Kirsan	Dominga Gardner	7201			X				The motion at docket # 7201 is for Kirsan Gardner; the Trust's summary mistakenly referred to Kirsan Gardner as having been the party covered by the separate motion at docket # 7177, which was actually filed for Kya Gardner. As to docket # 7201: place of exposure not clear; parent says did not know and had no reason to know that she had been exposed to the Tronox product; says diagnosis was in 2008. Notice of the bar date was also published in The Birmingham News in Birmingham, AL, which is about 20 miles from Helena, AL. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3767	TRO898216FTC	6/20/2016	Gardner, Angela	Angela Gardner	7210	7211		X				2006 and 2008 diagnoses; claimant says unable to file proof of claim because incapacitated due to chemotherapy treatment that commenced on 10/29/2008 and continued throughout 2009, it resulted in increasing side effects and illness; was not mentally or physically fit at time bar date was announced to respond and make a claim; not aware of the announcement. Does not explain many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect but only addresses lack of knowledge and not other factors, including long delay after bar date before filing any claim, lack of evidence of diligence in pursuit of claim, and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3768	TRO891638FTC	2/23/2016	Chandler, Alquana	Alquana Chandler	7212		X	X				1999 diagnosis; previously filed with atty Bambach, paperwork lost. 3774	TRO904310FTC	1/3/2017	Holmes, Willie	Teresa Holmes	7219			X				Trust's summary incorrectly listed this as dkt # 4136, which is a different motion by Willie Holmes, Jr. Various diagnoses, all 1990 and earlier; the injured party died in 2007; rep unaware of deadline; says that the injured party had no idea there was any problem with herself or her family. The Trustee's summary incorrectly referred to this party as having filed the motion at docket #4136 but that appears to be for a different Willie Holmes. As to the motion at docket # 7219: place of exposure not clear; alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If exposure occurred in Mississippi then the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3776	TRO884095FTC	11/13/2015	Shelton, James	James Shelton	7221			X		X		The motion at docket #7221 is for James Shelton [TRO884095FTC]; the Trustee's chart incorrectly listed this claimant as having made the motion at docket #4010 but that was for a different individual, James Lee Shelton [TRO885186FTC]. James Shelton alleges in the motion at docket #7221 that his son received a 2015 diagnosis; also says he previously filed with the Colom law firm in the 2002 class action, outcome undisclosed; unclear if this claim is filed on behalf of James Shelton as the injured party or if it seeks compensation for his child. Says unaware of claims process; did not have knowledge of an ongoing Tronox case; did not receive a phone call, letter, not learn anything from TV or radio concerning this matter. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on the parent's conditions that were diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. To the extent the claimant wishes to pursue a claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (whether for himself or on behalf of his child), the merits of that claim should be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3777	TRO887466FTC	12/14/2015	Hodge, Eula	Annie Johnson	7222		X	X				1983 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2000; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential claimants; says was incompetent at time of his claim filing deadline and incapacitated at hospital at time of bar date, no details provided; no reason to know that had been exposed to a Tronox product. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3783	TRO902675FTC	8/16/2016	Barr, Timothy	Timothy Barr	7228		X	X				1986-89 diagnoses; may have previously filed with the Colom law firm because motion attaches a letter from firm to meet with them in 2002; did not know that he had a claim "or was able to file a claim because of settlement offered in 2002." If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3785	TRO895866FTC	3/24/2016	Tellis, Leroy	Linda Latham	7230	7231	X	X				The injured party died in 2006; rep says injured party was not living in a certain area therefore thought that he did not qualify; did not know that he qualified; did not know or had reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect but only addresses lack of knowledge and not other factors, including length of delay, diligence in pursuit of claim and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Movant's mistake as to whether people qualified who did not live in the area suggests actual knowledge of the claims process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3786	TRO902676FTC	8/16/2016	Barr, Curtis	Curtis Barr	7232		X	X				1987-89 diagnoses; it appears he previously filed with the Colom firm because he includes a letter from it in 2002 setting an appointment; did not know about bar date; the most recent he know about the case was in 2002 (that is the class action, not the bankruptcy) and he believed that to be the final filing. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3787	TRO884806FTC	11/25/2015	Sanders, Marcus	Marcus Sanders	7233	8140	X	X				1982-1984 diagnoses; was not aware of the claims process; unaware of ongoing bankruptcy case; did not receive a phone call, letter, not learn anything from TV or radio concerning this matter. A supplement filed at docket #8140. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3788	TRO881008FTC	12/4/2015	Dale, Angela	Angela Dale	7234		X	X				1983 diagnosis; unaware of bar date; no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to claimants; does not read the Wall Street Journal. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3789	TRO886959FTC	12/7/2015	Dale, Michael, Jr.	Michael Dale, Jr.	7235						X	1994 diagnosis; unaware of bar date; says no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; was young at the time. Will permit supplemental submission to verify age as of the bar date and to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
3790	TRO881009FTC	12/4/2015	Dale, Michael, Sr.	Michael Dale, Sr.	7236			X				1982 diagnosis; unaware of filing deadline; never received a letter from Kerr-McGee; does not read Wall Street Journal. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3791	TRO895124FTC	3/23/2016	Lee, Jeanette	Bobby Williams	7237		X	X				1980 diagnosis; rep says previously filed with atty Bambach in 2003, called but he could not find her application; later the movant was incarcerated. Filing in 2003 must have been in connection with a different matter, as the bankruptcy case was not filed until 2009. No indication the claim was ever part of a pending legal proceeding. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3792	Unknown	12/4/2015	Lowe, Patricia	Andrea Stanley	7238	8363		X				1997 diagnosis; notice was not provided directly to claimant who allegedly was known to have a claim, but no supporting information explaining how or why Tronox allegedly knew of the claim; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice but provides no explanation or details; says did not know or have reason to know she was exposed to a Tronox product. A supplement filed at docket # 8363, claimant did not subscribe to the Wall Street Journal. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Says movant lived in Maryville, IL in 2009, but notice of the bar date also was published in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in June 2009, and St. Louis is only about 18 miles from Maryville. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3793	TRO894515FTC	3/23/2016	Cooke, Ron	Courtney Smith	7239		X	X				1980 diagnosis; did not receive any notice regarding the Tronox trust tort settlement; unaware could file a claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3794	TRO901464FTC	Unknown	Spraggins, Mandy	Francis M Bailey-Jones	7240	7241	X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 1972 diagnosis; the injured party was a resident of Columbus, MS who died in 2001; rep moved away from Columbus and was unaware could file a claim. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, this claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred.

3795	TRO888108FTC	12/18/2015	Davis, Curtis	Courtney Smith	7242	7243	X	X				Condition since 1966; in response to question about dates of diagnoses answered "yes" instead of providing specific dates; says was unaware of the deadline. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, based on the information in the motion and the age of the condition the claim appears to have been time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Furthermore, the memo only addresses lack of knowledge and does not address other factors, including length of delay, diligence in pursuit of claim and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3796	TRO902677FTC	8/16/2016	Barr, Hazel	Hazel Barr	7244		X	X		X		Alleges a 2009 diagnosis but also includes a 2002 letter from Colom firm scheduling an appointment; says was unaware of deadline; thought case was closed in 2002 (referring apparently to prior class action). Also attaches a signed Rejection Notice as to post-bar date diagnoses. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3797	TRO900250FTC	7/25/2016	Geffers, Kathy Valenta	Kathy Valenta-Geffers	7245	8529		X				1988 diagnosis; unaware of lawsuit; moved from Duryea, PA in 2009 to Pittston, PA; supplemental letter filed at docket # 8529. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3798	TRO898144FTC	6/20/2016	Davis, Joseph	Courtney Smith	7246	7247	X	X				1988 diagnosis; did not receive any notice regarding the Tronox tort claims trust settlement; did not know could file a claim. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, this claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred.
3799	TRO894717FTC	3/23/2016	Anderson, Julia	Julia Anderson	7248			X				Various conditions alleged, separate diagnosis dates for each are unclear but apparently all are pre-bar date, listed as being in period from July 1998 to March 15, 2007; place of exposure not clear; unaware of Tronox claims being filed in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3800	TRO892288FTC	2/23/2016	Gillespie, Joe	Bessie Gillespie	7249			X				May 2009 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2010; rep says injured party worked as a heavy equipment operator at Tronox/Kerr-McGee from 2004-2007, he was diagnosed in May 2009 with lung disease; family was knocked off their feet with what they had to go through and were focusing on getting him well, they did not get any notification. This was all around the time of the bar date. Explains delay in 2009 but does not explain lengthy post-bar date delay before filing claim or pursuing rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3801	TRO890769FTC	2/23/2016	Riddle, Mary	Mary Riddle	7250		X	X				1947 diagnosis; was not aware of deadline; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; discharge of claim violation of due process. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3802	TRO893244FTC	2/23/2016	Stallings, Joseph	Elizabeth Stallings	7251		X	X				1965 diagnosis; the injured party died in 1976; rep says lack of knowledge about deadline; no reason to suspect exposure to Tronox product. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3803	TRO886605FTC	12/7/2015	Brown, Ella	Ella Brown	7252			X				July 2009 cancer diagnosis; she was incapacitated around bar date and then undergoing treatments including radiation; filed with the Colom law firm in 2002, unclear of the results from that filing. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Dealings with Colom firm show knowledge of legal rights and potential claims. Cancer treatments explain 2009 failure to file by bar date but no explanation as to lengthy post-bar date delays in pursuing rights, admits no claim was filed until October 2015. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3804	TRO899922FTC	7/25/2016	Seely, Adam	Lizzie Walker	7253		X	X				Various diagnoses, all 1999 and earlier; the injured party died in 2004; rep says did not know and had no reason to know injured party had been exposed to a Tronox product; after high school, she moved to a rural area in Columbus with no electricity, running water, telephone service or cable television available. The first time she learned that Tronox was the Moss Tie Co. was in 2014. The Trustee's summary chart refers to this motion as relating to claim # TRO899922FTC but the paper copy shows claim number TRO896922FTC. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim was time-barred under applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3805	TRO888858FTC	12/30/2015	Walker, Lizzie	Lizzie Walker	7254		X	X				1959 and 1985 diagnoses; same excuse for herself as for her relative in motion at docket #7253 concerning moving to rural area with no communications. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 3807	TRO895682FTC	3/24/2016	Dolan, James	Courtney Smith	7256		X	X			X	1995 diagnosis; was not aware of the Tronox tort claims trust settlement and did not receive any notice about being able to file a claim. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, the claim based on a 1995 diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy. Movant also submitted a signed Rejection Notice as to post-bar date claims though no such claims are listed in the motion papers. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3808	TRO903759FTC	11/23/2016	Robinson, Cordaneus	Cordaneus Robinson	7258		X	X				1989, 1991 diagnoses; says family moved from MS to GA, had no knowledge of Tronox claims or that his health conditions were caused by a Tronox product. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Any claim as to a separate condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3811	TRO887897FTC	12/14/2015	Hodge, Rosalyn	Rosalyn Hodge	7261		X	X			X	Former resident of Columbus, MS who listed a Columbus address as her residence from 2009 through 2011 but who also says she did not live there any longer; alleges 2010 diagnosis but also says previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2002 class action; says did not receive notice in a timely manner, did not have knowledge of any of the publication notices. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Unclear if contends that Colom firm represented claimant in 2009 but that would not be grounds for relief because the Colom firm received direct notice of the bar date, and failures by counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's failures can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3813	TRO890160FTC	2/23/2016	Gordon, Courtney	Stephanie Gordon	7263			X				2000 diagnosis; minor; rep is filing for child and says that when she received information on visit from Chicago that Tronox product could cause birth defects, she filed for child. Statute of limitations did not run as to the claim for a minor. However, the parent merely alleges lack of actual knowledge and makes no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3814	TRO898553FTC	6/27/2016	Perry, Belinda	Belinda Perry	7264		X	X				1961 diagnosis; unaware of deadline; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; says discharge of claim was a violation of due process, does not explain how. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3825	TRO893095FTC	2/23/2016	Hanson, Jimmy	Courtney Smith	7279	7280	X	X				1995 diagnosis; the injured party died prior to bar date; rep not aware could file a claim and did not receive any notice of the Tronox trust claims settlement. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, this claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred.

3826	TRO887425FTC	Unknown	Howard, Larry	Willie M. Howard	7281	7383	X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 2002 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2007; rep says did not file because at an early age the injured party was getting treatment for something else. A duplicate motion filed at docket # 7383. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3845	TRO889453FTC	2/23/2016	Kyles, Kelcey	Quieveta Williams	7301		X	X		X		2007-08 diagnoses; rep says unaware that her child's condition could be related to an exposure until Maranatha Center had a soil sample done; newspaper reports show that happened before 2002. Also signed a rejection letter alleging post-bar date manifestations and diagnoses though none are identified in the motion. Acknowledges awareness of link between injury and creosote. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge of the bar date but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. 3848	TRO901672FTC	8/16/2016	Shields, Rosie	Lillian Evans	7304			X				Diagnoses in 1980s; the injured party died in 2006; rep says deceased was incapacitated from 1985 to 2006. No excuse offered as to failure to file in 2009. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3849	TRO912089FTC	5/30/2017	Brandon, Christopher	Christopher Brandon	7305	8202	X	X				1990s diagnoses; previously filed with atty Howard Gunn in 2002; says had no knowledge of the bankruptcy proceedings, the only information given by the attorney when he called was "No News" "Still in Litigation." A supplemental "group" letter filed at docket #8202 on behalf of 5 claimants complaining about the process, complains that they thought they were represented by class action counsel. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not the subject of a prior proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date. Unexcused failures of counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect.
3850	TRO901460FTC	8/16/2016	Edmond, Roosevelt	Linda Daniel	7306		X	X				1985 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2006; rep says was given erroneous information in filing this claim but apparently is referring to communications with the trust about the late-filed claim, does not offer reasons as to why failed to file in 2009 at the time of the bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3851	TRO889785FTC	2/23/2016	Devine-Cheever, Tansheneda	Tansheneda Devine	7307		X	X				Alleges 1987 and 2010 diagnoses but both are for asthma (one as child, latter one as adult); previously filed with Turner & Assocs. 2001; is part of a group of claimants alleging that they were part of a legal proceeding against Tronox/Kerr McGee in MS prior to the claims filing deadline but that no direct notice of the claims filing deadline was received. Says did not receive any additional correspondence. Prior class action was terminated before Tronox bankruptcy filing. In addition, notice of the bar date was sent directly to attorney who has been class action counsel, so if any class claims were unresolved the class attorneys had notice of the bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim either was resolved in prior class action or, if not, should have been filed by bar date, no grounds for relief from the bar date have been shown.

3856	TRO898212FTC	6/20/2016	Young, Anthony	Courtney "Corky" Smith, Esq.	7312	7313		X		X		Says did not receive any notice regarding the Tronox tort claims trust settlement; was not aware could file a claim. Says symptoms and diagnosis were in 2009. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect but only addresses lack of knowledge and does not address other factors, including length of delay, diligence in pursuit of claim and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Attaches a signed rejection notice as to post-bar date diagnoses but none are identified in the motion. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect and due process, but claim based on 1998 diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 3859	TRO893227FTC	2/23/2016	Elam, Mary	Mary Elam	7318			X			X	Diagnoses in 1981 and 2012; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 1999; received $500 award; says bankruptcy discharge of claim was a violation of due process, without explanation; says the manifestation date she put on her first application to Garretson listed hypertension as a pre-petition condition but that hypertension related to a pregnancy and was resolved shortly after pregnancy, she is now amending her manifestation date to 2012 for hypertension as she was diagnosed for it after bar date and she maintains it was caused by exposure to creosote. Also alters many of the diagnosis dates from her original application with Garretson. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Movant does not explain failure to file by bar date for claims based on pre-bar date diagnoses, claim based on 1981 diagnosis also was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. A duplicate of this claim is filed at docket #7708. Does not explain long period after the bar date before filing a claim without any other apparent action to pursue claim or legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3865	TRO894674FTC	3/23/2016	Nance, Nan	Nan Nance	7324		X	X				2004 diagnosis; did not know about the claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3866	TRO903458FTC	11/23/2016	Smith, Yvonne	Yvonne Smith	7325			X				2001-2002 diagnoses; did not know about it. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3867	TRO898652FTC	6/27/2016	Stevenson, Delma	Delma Stevenson	7326			X		X		Unaware of the claim process and failed to file a claim; says symptoms 1999 and diagnosis Sept 21, 2009. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3868	TRO886231FTC	12/7/2015	Baker, John	John Baker	7328		X	X				Various diagnoses, all 2002 and earlier; previously filed with the Colom law firm, outcome not disclosed; says did not file in 2009 due to his illness; unaware exposed to harmful chemicals. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim either was resolved in prior proceeding with the Colom firm or, if not, was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3869	TRO893313FTC	2/23/2016	Williams, Pandora	Pandora Williams	7329		x	X				Began having asthma in 1992; diagnosis date listed as "N/A;" says was unaware of bar date; she was not privileged nor did she know to get the Wall Street Journal publication or any of the other articles. Says public was not advised until 2011, but does not explain basis for that contention. Also fails to explain long delay before filing a claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3872	TRO889266FTC	2/23/2016	Jackson, Anita	Anita Jackson	7332			X		X		December 2009 diagnosis. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. 3873	TRO888369FTC	12/18/2015	Reives, Barbara	Barbara Reives	7333			X		X		Former resident of Columbus, MS; alleges 2010 diagnosis but also says previously filed with Tollison law firm in 2002 Class Action. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3874	TRO886493FTC	12/7/2015	Jones, Mildred	Mildred Jones	7334			X			X	Says diagnoses began in 2010; lived in Columbus, MS as a child and lived there with mother in 2009-2011; says previously filed a claim with Edwin A. Flint, Jr. in 2002 but did not receive any follow-up; says was in the military (dates not specified) and did a lot of moving. Claim filed in 2002 must have been in connection with a prior lawsuit as the bankruptcy case was not filed until 2009. Motion does not identify any claim based on a pre-bar date diagnoses for which relief from the bar date is sought. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

In addition, supplemental letters were filed by Billy Wayne Bridges for this group at docket ## 8019, 8068 (with a duplicate at 8391), and 8528 (with a duplicate at 8530) and #9408, and #9432, complaining about the process. Basically, it is a motion for reinclusion in the original Tronox tort claim Class D, which only covered people who actually filed timely proofs of claim before the bar date. Claimants say they were represented by the Creosote Litigation Group of Mississippi since 2002 (Bambach); firm lost records; turned over to Tollison firm after 2009. They appear to confuse the bankruptcy case with the prior class actions and appear to think (without confirmation) that the prior class action counsel was representing them in the 2009 bankruptcy case. Funds for Tort Group D have already been distributed, inclusion in that group is not possible and that request is moot. In addition, attorneys in the Creosote Litigation Group had direct notice of the bar date, so if they actually represented this group then proofs of claim should have been filed. Unexcused failures of counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect. Motion is denied.

3882	TRO902805FTC	8/16/2016	Holiness, Arabella	Courtney "Corky" Smith, Esq.	7342	7343		X			X	2012 diagnosis; the injured party is deceased; she was elderly and having serious health issues in 2009. She did not receive any notice of the Tronox Tort Trust Claims Settlement and her family members were not aware she could file a claim. Separate legal memo argues for relief based on excusable neglect or due process, but the motion has not identified any pre-bar date diagnosis for which relief is sought. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3883	TRO894513FTC	3/23/2016	Williams, Ofie	Courtney "Corky" Smith, Esq.	7344	7345	X	X			X	1998 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2000. Also filed a signed rejection notice as to post-bar date exposures and diagnoses, but none are identified in the motion. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, the claim based on the 1998 diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3884	TRO893306FTC	2/23/2016	Lawrence, Brenda	Courtney "Corky" Smith, Esq.	7346	7347		X			X	February 2008 diagnosis; says did not know about it; did not receive notice of the Tronox tort claims trust settlement; was not aware she could file a claim. Also attached a signed Rejection Notice as to post-bar date exposures and diagnoses, but none are identified in the motion. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect but only addresses lack of knowledge and does not address other factors, including length of delay, diligence in pursuit of claim and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

3891	TRO893904FTC	3/2/2016	Richardson, Catherine	Catherine Richardson	7359		X	X				Various diagnosis dates, all before bar date; says was unaware that there was another filing for the Kerr-McGee case. She says she was also having personal and medical issues around 2009, constantly seeing multiple doctors but there aren't any medical records provided for time near bar date; says by the time she knew about the new claims filing it was too late. Does not explain lengthy post-bar date delay in filing claim and in apparently taking no other action to pursue legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Does not explain representative's failure to file a claim before the bar date. No grounds stated for relief.
3896	TRO885465FTC	11/25/2015	Webb, Kimberly	Kimberly Webb	7364			X				Diagnosed in childhood (late 1980s or early 1990s); previously filed with atty Gunn in 2002; says she already sent her medical records to William Howard Gunn and others in the group. Seems to think the bankruptcy process is a continuation of prior class action, which is not the case. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Apparently was 20 years old as of the bar date but does not explain why movant and movant's representative did not file a claim, does not explain long delay after the bar date before filing a claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Also, indicates that he did not know and had no reason to know that he had been exposed to a Tronox product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3898	TRO897345FTC	5/25/2016	DiGregorio, Margaret	Margaret DiGregorio	7366		X	X				2006 diagnosis; was not aware of any claims in the Tronox bankruptcy case. Also, indicates did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3899	TRO885481FTC	11/25/2015	Webb, Ella	Ella Webb	7367		X	X				1950s diagnosis; previously filed with the Creosote Litigation Group, which included W. Howard Gunn, William Bambach and William Cunningham; says she thought she really had filed prior to bar date through these lawyers and has been sending information to them since 2002 and they changed with many different lawyers at times. Filing with class action attorneys was in connection with a separate proceeding, was not part of the bankruptcy case. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Unclear if Creosote Litigation Group represented this movant in 2009 but if so they should have filed a claim, because the attorneys with the Creosote Litigation Group received direct notice of the bar date. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Claim either was resolved in an earlier proceeding; or, if subject to a pending proceeding, should have been the subject of a proof of claim; or, if neither of those was the case, the claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3900	TRO884976FTC	11/25/2015	Colvin, Sr. Bobby	Bobby Colvin, Sr.	7368		X	X				1970s diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm 2002, outcome not disclosed; says did not file a claim in Tronox bankruptcy prior to bar date because he was unaware of an ongoing case. Also, complains that there are those in the neighborhood who have been rewarded for injuries such as nose bleeds, while he is suffering with many medical conditions and has not been compensated. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claims and legal rights. No evidence the claim was subject to a pending proceeding at the time of the bar date. Claim either was resolved in a prior class action or, if not, was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3927	TRO895339FTC	3/24/2016	Sanders, Yolanda	Yolanda Sanders	7404		X	X				1974 and 1989 diagnoses; previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002, received compensation but says not enough; says did not receive a letter concerning the bar date, does not read Wall Street Journal and did not see the other publications; says she should not be penalized for the unknown; did not get fair chance to receive notification of bar date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
3928	TRO897383FTC	5/25/2016	Cohen, Freddie	Mary Ann Mastin	7405		X	X				1998 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2007; incompetent and incapacitated in 2009 (apparently referring to the decedent); publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; informed that only certain people or area could apply (not say by whom or when). Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

3930	TRO886783FTC	12/7/2015	Teal, La Wanda	La Wanda Teal	7407			X				1966 diagnosis; says that the publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to her as she lived in Oklahoma; she was not aware of the lawsuit through reasonable means of publication, local or otherwise, prior to the bar date; without knowledge of the lawsuit, she did not know or have reason to know she had been exposed to a Tronox product; when she learned of it, she became aware that conditions were caused by Tronox product; responsible parties neglected to ensure that those who relocated received notice. The court approved notices in 2009 that included publication in local newspapers where plants were located and also in national edition of Wall Street Journal. Former creosote plant was located in Hugo, OK and notices of the bar date were also published in (1) the Oklahoman in Oklahoma City, OK, (2) the Hugo Daily News/Choctaw County Times in Hugo, OK, (3) the Cleveland American in Cleveland, OK, and (4) the Tulsa World in Tulsa, OK. Publication notice was reasonable and consistent with due process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3931	TRO890414FTC	2/23/2016	Gregory, Jerry	Jerry Gregory	7408			X				1994 diagnosis; prior claim in 2002, no details provided; place of exposure not clear; no reason provided for failure to file by bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
3932	TRO890617FTC	Unknown	Barnes, Caroline	Caroline Barnes	7409			X				Not included in Trust's summary. No diagnosis date listed, symptoms in 2002; she did not file a claim in the Tronox case by the bar date because she did not know about it; unaware exposed to a Tronox product; did not receive notice that she was required to file a claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

3937	TRO887056FTC	12/14/2015	Gregory, Betty	Betty Gregory	7417			X				Previously filed with the Colom law firm 2002; atty Bambach; refers to the class action and says that some members of that class received payment and continue to receive payment while other people such as claimant receive nothing while repeatedly refiling claims. Also references Article II, section 2.2(b)(i) of the procedures in the Trust concerning allowance of claims that provides that no proof of injury is required for timely filed proof of claims. The bankruptcy case is separate from the class action. Claimant did not file a timely proof of claim in the bankruptcy case and has not offered reasons why that failure should be excused.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
3999	TRO894331FTC	3/2/2016	Gunter, Deon	Courtney "Corky" Smith, Esq.	7487	7488		X			X	Says symptoms and diagnosis in 2016. Also a signed rejection notice. Separate memo of law argues there are grounds for relief based on excusable neglect and due process, but no pre-bar date diagnosis was identified in the motion, therefore no claim for which relief on the grounds of excusable neglect is sought. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4000	TRO897179FTC	5/4/2016	Howard, Annie	Courtney "Corky" Smith, Esq.	7489	7490	X	X				1967 diagnosis; the injured party died prior to the bar date; family members did not receive notice and were not aware could file on her behalf. Also submits a signed rejection notice as to post-bar date exposures and diagnoses, but that is impossible given death prior to the bar date. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, the claim based on the listed diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred.

4012	TRO889542FTC	2/23/2016	Stewart, Denetra	Denetra Stewart	7512		X	X				Diagnosis listed as "10," apparently meaning age (so approximately 1990); former resident of Columbus, MS; was not informed of bar date in ample time; works 2 jobs when gets out of work post office closed; did not have family there to help her to handle business. Her computer is monitored closely, limited time off. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4013	TRO889144FTC	2/23/2016	Demo, Dylan	Dylan Demo	7513	8089					X	Minor (11 at time of bar date); no knowledge of Tronox bankruptcy; says her mother no longer resided in MS at that time also had no knowledge; did not see any television or newspaper ads or any article relating to Tronox bankruptcy or deadline; symptoms and diagnosis 2009. A supplement filed at docket #8089, says was only 11 when started having asthma symptoms. Merely alleges lack of knowledge on parents' part but will permit supplemental submission as to why parents or guardians did not file in 2009, why claim was not filed until so many years after the bar date, and whether relief is warranted.
4014	TRO913992FTC	6/28/2017	Daniel, Early	James Daniels	7514	7710	X	X				Diagnoses 1955, 1962, 1970, 1973; the injured party is a former resident of Birmingham, Alabama who died in 1973; rep says the bar date form of notice was insufficient on its face but does not say how; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; prior to bar date, claimant did not know and had no reasonable knowledge that he had been exposed to a Tronox product. A duplicate motion with supplemental material filed at docket # 7710. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. If claim is based on exposures in Mississippi or Alabama then the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4015	TRO890628FTC	2/23/2016	Hopkins, Debra	Debra Hopkins	7515			X		X		2009 diagnosis (date not clear); was unaware could file; pastor of Maranatha Center in Columbus advised her to complete an application for future tort claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 4016	TRO893061FTC	2/23/2016	Hargrove, Edward	Telisa Young	7516	8281	X	X				Motion lists various diagnoses, all 2003 and earlier; the injured party died in 2003. A supplement filed at docket # 8281. Representative says the time between publication of notice in June 2009 and bar date 8/12/20019 was insufficient, not reasonably calculated for a claimant to pursue a potential claim; that might have explained a few weeks' lateness but it does not explain the many years' post-bar date delay before a claim was filed. Says did not have access to any of the publications and that notice was not in the local paper, the Commercial Dispatch, but in fact the bar date notice was published in The Commercial Dispatch on June 23, 2009. Says was not aware and had no reason to know that the injured party had been exposed to Tronox product although Tronox was aware of nature of chemical; violation of due process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4017	TRO892923FTC	2/23/2016	Young, Telisa	Telisa Young	7517			X		X		Says symptoms and diagnosis post-bar date, though includes some medical records for earlier dates; says violation of due process; publication notice period short, not reasonably calculated to provide notice; unaware exposed to a Tronox product. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4018	TRO892922FTC	2/23/2016	Hargrove, Debra	Telisa Young	7518	8280	X	X				Various diagnoses, all 1998 and earlier; the injured party died in 1998. Supplement filed at docket #8280. Representative says the time between publication of notice in June 2009 and bar date 8/12/20019 was insufficient, not reasonably calculated for a claimant to pursue a potential claim; that might have explained a few weeks' lateness but it does not explain the many years' post-bar date delay before a claim was filed. 4019	TRO898160FTC	6/20/2016	Davis, Christina	Christina Davis	7519		X	X			X	Various diagnoses, some before bar date, some after; previously filed with the Colom law firm, received $500 reward; unaware of the bankruptcy proceeding as was in and out of the hospital during those years, does not specify dates; was unaware exposed to harmful toxins, though also alleges was part of a lawsuit that included such allegations. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claim was resolved in the prior class action and could not be reasserted in the Tronox bankruptcy case.
4024	TRO885611FTC	Unknown	Stephenson, Dwight	Dwight Stephenson	7524		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Lists diagnosis date as "1988-2008," unclear if referring to continuing conditions or if there were separate diagnoses and (if so) when they occurred; says that he was told by Garretson Group and Tollison Law firm in 2008 that he was not in the database but the bankruptcy case was not even filed until 2009 and the motion says he first filed a claim in 2013; says he was living in another state and did not find out about the lawsuit until he moved back to Mississippi in 2008, but he could not have learned about the bankruptcy in 2008 because it had not yet been filed. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
4032	TRO896908FTC	4/25/2016	Harris, Tommy	Chynee Bailey	7532		X	X				1990 diagnosis; the injured party died in 1991; previously filed with atty Bambach in 2008, who failed to pursue the claim; unaware that exposure to Tronox product was cause of illness; says family should have been notified directly of the connection; notice was not published in a manner to provide notice to potential claimants who were uneducated; did not receive notice of bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Publications complied with due process as explained in the accompanying decision. In addition, attorney Bambach received direct notice of the bar date by mail. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4033	TRO890495FTC	2/23/2016	Harris, Lavaris	Lavaris Harris	7533		X	X				2004 diagnosis; incarcerated from 2/28/2009 to 8/29/2009. Does not explain many years' delay after the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy in January 2009.
4034	TRO889739FTC	2/23/2016	Stephenson, Maggie	Frances Maggie	7534			X				2007 diagnosis; rep says she was unaware of the claims process; unaware of the dangerous Tronox toxins when she lived in the area. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

4042	TRO904051FTC	1/3/2017	Williams, Josephine	Josephine Williams	7542		X	X				1973 diagnosis; place of exposure not clear; says notice was deficient on its face (does not explain why); says notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to potential claimants who were unknown at the time of notice (does not say how); says did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Publication notices were reasonable and complied with due process for the reasons stated in the accompanying Decision. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4043	TRO897626FTC	5/25/2016	Jones, Frederick	Frederick Jones	7543		X	X				1985 diagnosis; place of exposure not clear; surgeries in 1988 and 1999; did not know exposed to Tronox product or that it could cause harm. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4044	TRO881013FTC	12/4/2015	Merks, Eugene	Eugene Marks	7544			X				2007 diagnosis; after surgery in September 2007, he was "subjected to CAT scans and doctor appointments every 3 months for the following three years" as well as other consultations and testing. Not a sufficient showing of incapacity and (more importantly) does not explain failure to file a claim for many years after the bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4045	TRO902401FTC	9/14/2016	Cunningham, Mary	Connie Sprowell	7545			X				2007 diagnosis; the injured party died on August 31, 2009, right around the bar date. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. Even if health of decedent near time of bar date would explain failure to file in August 2009 there is no explanation of lengthy post-bar date delay before filing claim. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

4053	TRO885886FTC	11/25/2015	Tucker, Barbara	Barbara Tucker	7553		X	X			X	Various diagnoses, some 2004 and earlier, others after bar date; says that she personally did not see major articles or articles in major newspapers or broadcasting, what was floating around seemed more like fake gossip rather than something major to her life and well-being; says the notice of the bar date was not reasonably calculated to provide notice. Says that the severity of her condition was not known until after the bar date, and it caused her to do further research. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. The rumors and conversation that was voiced sounded more like false gossip rather than something valuable and important to their health and life in general. Requests that their ignorance be excused. Notices were approved by the court with the knowledge and involvement of counsel active in creosote litigation (including in Mississippi) and were consistent with due process and have previously been approved in other decisions. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Roderick	Frances Oden	7555		X	X				Diagnoses 1978, 1984, 2003, 2004; the injured party died in 2007; former resident of Columbus, MS; alleges that a claim was filed with atty Landis Sexton 2003, who represented all of the Maranatha Center claimants and he was supposed to have filed a claim but did not do so (however, the bankruptcy filing did not occur until 2009, so any contemplated claim in 2003 had to be in connection with a different proceeding); it was their understanding that the case was on hold pending the bankruptcy and they would get written notification when the litigation would proceed, but the bankruptcy was six years later, in 2009. Reference to the bankruptcy case suggests knowledge of the proceeding. No indication that claimant was actually a plaintiff in another proceeding, but bar date notices were mailed to all persons in pending cases or, if their addresses were not known, to their attorneys of record. Not clear if attorney Sexton was the movant's counsel when the Tronox bankruptcy case was filed but, if so, a proof of claim should have been filed, as attorney Sexton received direct notice of the bar date by mail, and an alleged unexcused failure by counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

No explanation offered for many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Will permit supplemental submission to verify dates of military service so that Court may assess the possible application of 50 U.S.C. 3936 as to the movant's own claim and may consider the dates of military service in evaluating the request for relief on grounds of excusable neglect.

Seems to think that the bankruptcy case is connected to the prior class action, which is not correct. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is an alleged future tort claim, the merits of which are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4104	TRO899316FTC	7/11/2016	Summerville, Kinley	Pamela Colvin	7604		X	X				1980s diagnosis; the injured party died in 2009; rep unaware eligible to file; thought it was only for those in direct vicinity of the plant; it appears that the person died a few days before the bar date in August 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Says effort have been taken to restrict the flow of information, unclear who allegedly did so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same actually were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Says publication notice was inadequate for dispersing notification, does not read Wall Street Journal or any of the other 38 publications; as did not receive information of the bar date, he could not submit a timely claim. Publications included The Commercial Dispatch in Columbus, MS. Publication notices complied with due process for the reasons stated in the accompanying Decision. A supplement filed at docket #8179, says was a teenager at the bar date but exposure in 1976 means claimant was approximately 33 years old in 2009. Says was unaware of the lawsuit or the harm from the chemicals. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Also submits a signed rejection notice as to post-bar date exposures and diagnoses, though none are identified in the motion. Separate legal memo argues that excusable neglect has been shown and that due process relief should be granted. However, the claim based on the listed diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations long before the Tronox bankruptcy filing occurred. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4136	TRO891822FTC	2/23/2016	Hibbler, Jr., Vondurell	Vondurell Hibbler, Jr	7637		X	X			X	Diagnoses 1993 and 2017; says that previously filed with Colom law firm, Cochran, Hunter Lundy & Davis, Richmond Simon & Agston, Hamilton Sexton & Berry 2001, does not disclose outcome; says did not receive direct written notice of bar date although had commenced a legal proceeding against Tronox, but the referenced proceeding was outstanding at the time of the bankruptcy filing, and in any event the counsel identified received direct notice of the bar date. Says he was told by atty that paperwork was lost but that may refer to the previously closed action. Also asserts due process claim because publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; says did not see publication notice and was not aware of the bar date or of the bankruptcy case and therefore says did not receive sufficient notice to file a timely claim. If pre-bar date claim was resolved in a prior action it could not be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If it was not part of a pending action, it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In those instances, publication notice would have been appropriate because Tronox would have had no reason to know that the claimant had an unresolved claim. If the claim was the subject of a still-pending litigation, then a proof of claim should have been filed, as notice by mail was provided to all plaintiffs in pending litigations (or to their counsel if the plaintiffs' addresses were not known), and the proof of service on file shows that the listed attorneys received notice of the bar date. Notice sent to counsel is imputed to the client. Failure by counsel to file a claim is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (and any defense based on terms of resolution of prior action) is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4137	TRO891820FTC	2/23/2016	Hibbler, Vondurell	Vondurell Hibbler	7638		X	X			X	Diagnoses 1984, 1985, 2009, 2010, 2016; says that previously filed with Colom law firm, Cochran, Hunter Lundy & Davis, Richmond Simon & Agston, Hamilton Sexton & Berry 2001, does not disclose outcome; says did not receive direct written notice of bar date although had commenced a legal proceeding against Tronox, but it is not clear that the referenced proceeding was outstanding at the time of the bankruptcy filing, and in any event the counsel identified received direct notice of the bar date. Says he was told by atty that paperwork was lost but that may refer to a previously closed action. Also asserts due process claim because publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; says did not see publication notice and was not aware of the bar date or of the bankruptcy case and therefore says did not receive sufficient notice to file a timely claim. If pre-bar date claim was resolved in a prior action it could not be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If it was not part of a pending action, it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In those instances, publication notice would have been appropriate because Tronox would have had no reason to know that the claimant had an unresolved claim. If the claim was the subject of a still-pending litigation, then a proof of claim should have been filed, as notice by mail was provided to all plaintiffs in pending litigations (or to their counsel if the plaintiffs' addresses were not known), and the proof of service on file shows that the listed attorneys received notice of the bar date. Notice sent to counsel is imputed to the client. Failure by counsel to file a claim is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (and any defense based on terms of resolution of prior action) is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4159	TRO891762FTC	2/23/2016	Morris, Natasha	Natasha Morris	7662	8296	X	X			X	Alleges first diagnosis in November 2009 but also says previously filed with Colom law firm in 2004, outcome not specified. A supplement filed at docket # 8296, without knowledge to wade through the process. Says submitted information before the deadline but appears to be under the misimpression that the late-filed claim was timely. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion will be accepted based on its date and the postmark date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 4160	TRO901748FTC	8/16/2016	Parson, Joyce	Joyce Parson	7663			X			X	Supporting records suggest diagnosis for all conditions after bar date; former resident of Columbus, MS; says did not know of the Tronox bankruptcy case, did not see any published reports. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Trust contends motion was untimely because it was not docketed within 90 days after the Determination Notice but the motion actually seeks no relief based on any pre-bar date diagnoses so the timing is irrelevant. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4166	TRO890936FTC	2/23/2016	Thompson, Mary	Jimmie Thompson	7670		X	X				Various diagnoses, all 1989 and earlier; the injured party died in 1996; rep says injured party was incompetent but injured party died 13 years before the bar date. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. In addition, the risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4167	TRO897132FTC	5/4/2016	Jones, Omar	Omar Jones	7671		X	X				Various conditions, does not list each one and does not list diagnosis date for each one; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4168	TRO894145FTC	3/2/2016	James, Maurice	Maurice James	7672			X		X		Various diagnosis dates listed, all after bar date; unaware of the information and the possibility of receiving a settlement for physical injuries. Trustee challenges timeliness of the motion, but no pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, deadline applied only to motions seeking relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4169	TRO903620FTC	11/23/2016	Moore, Shekita	Shekita Moore	7673			X				Lists 1980s diagnosis (at age 1) but also alleges various conditions, not clear what diagnosis date was for each of them; did not receive direct notification or adequate notice of bar date; did not reside in Mississippi during case review and had no knowledge exposed to a Tronox product; resided in Florida and did not receive or hear any of the published notices; says excuse is due process but does not identify a due process issue. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges entitlement to direct notice but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4171	TRO888492FTC	12/18/2015	Lagrone, Maggie	Maggie Lagrone	7675			X				A supplement to a letter rejecting trust determination. Says she was exposed before bar date and condition manifested and was diagnosed in August 2008. Other details not available. No excuse offered in these papers for failure to file by bar date, not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4172	Unknown	Unknown	Clemmons, Frison	Alfonza Smith	7676	4543?		X				Not included in Trust's summary. The injured party is deceased; rep does not provide list of conditions or diagnoses or an excuse for not filing prior to bar date. Possibly related to motoin at docket 4543, cannot tell. Handwritten note refers to claim TRO890938FTC, we have no other materials relating to that claim number.
4173	N/a	#N/A	Cole, DeMark	DeMark Cole	7677			X		X		Unclear what claimed diagnosis dates were. Merely application for future tort claim; no excuse provided, no grounds for relief from bar date. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be decided by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4174		#N/A	Cole, Windolyn	Elbert Cole	7678			X				Merely application for future tort claim; no excuse provided.

4179	TRO890731FTC	2/23/2016	Hinton, Bennie, Jr.	Bennie Hinton, Jr.	7683			X				1986 diagnosis; place of exposure not clear; moved out of state and was unaware of lawsuit. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4180	TRO900473FTC	8/16/2016	Jones, Callie	Callie Jones	7684		X	X	X			1974 diagnosis; did not know about Tronox claim. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4181	TRO894683FTC	3/23/2016	Glenn, Andrew	Mary Glenn	7685		X	X				Diagnoses 1970, 1978, 1980, 2007; the injured party died in 2010; previously filed with the Colom law firm 2002, outcome not clear; rep states that she was not aware she could file a claim until she filed this claim. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Prior filing with Colom firm shows awareness of claims and rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4182	TRO887239FTC	12/14/2015	Harris, Annie	Annie Harris	7686			X		X		Alleges 2009 diagnosis (when in 2009 is not clear); said she sent in papers 3 times and that she called and was told it was pending (it appears this is a reference to the late filing with the trust). Diagnosis in 2009, no date listed. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4183	TRO885027FTC	11/25/2015	Harris, Joshua	Joshua Harris	7687		X	X				June 2004 diagnosis; says that a proof of claim was sent but the papers were sent back numerous times (apparently referring to late filings with Trust). No record of any timely claim filed. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4184	TRO896708FTC	4/25/2016	Jones, Petty	Willene Jones	7688		X	X				1998 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2002. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Movant complains about publication notice but makes no allegation that Tronox had reason to know of this particular claim, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Says incompetent at time of deadline but apparently that is a reference to the deceased injured party (who died in 2002) and not to the movant. Says did not know and had no reason to know that had been exposed to a Tronox product prior to the claims filing deadline or of its danger; says was informed only a certain area or people could apply, does not say who gave such advice or when, may be in relation to prior class actions that were limited as to class members. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If exposure occurred in MS or Alabama then the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4185	TRO903718FTC	11/23/2016	Butler, Marla	Marla Butler	7689		X	X				Diagnoses 1974, 1997, 1998; former resident of Columbus, MS who currently resides in Indianapolis, Indiana and was not aware of the Tronox bankruptcy until she received the determination notice. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Motion alleges lack of actual knowledge but no makes showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4191	Unknown	#N/A	Unknown	Carl Lee	7695		X					A letter complains that payments were made to claimants who were not ill; complains about procedures followed by trust and the Colom law firm. Mr. Lee has not identified a claim for which he seeks relief and apparently has not made a motion on his own behalf. Contends Trust has been unfair, dishonest and discriminatory in treatment of claims but no specifics are provided and the Court is not aware of any support for such accusations. Asserts that injured parties should be paid and should not be blamed for missing deadlines but the Court is required to enforce deadlines and can only grant exceptions under the standards set forth in the accompanying decision.
4192	TRO890848FTC	2/23/2016	McGregory, Annie	Annie McGregor	7696		X		X			2016 diagnosis; was not aware that Tronox was still taking claims because busy caring for sick relative who had retired from the company. Trust complains that motion was not filed within 90 days after the Determination Notice but the motion does not identify any claim based on a pre-bar date diagnosis for which relief is sought, therefore no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process and timeliness is not relevant. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4193	TRO890846FTC	2/23/2016	McGregory, Keion	Keion McGregor	7697		X					1992 diagnosis; was not aware Tronox was still taking claims because he was still in high school; relative worked at company, claimant attended day care around corner. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Movant turned 21 approximately in 2012, does not explain long delay in pursuing or filing a claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

4195	TRO891232FTC	2/23/2016	Turner, Carl	Carl Turner	7699		X	X				1970 diagnosis; former Columbus, MS resident who moved to Texas in 2003; did not file claim prior to bar date because was informed lived one block beyond the lawsuit coverage area by the lawsuit handled by the Colom firm, believed her claim would be summarily dismissed. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. The class action lawsuit that covered only people who lived in a certain area predated the Tronox bankruptcy by many years. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4198	TRO888488FTC	12/18/2015	Morgan, Michae	Michael Morgan	7702			X		X		Diagnoses in 2009 and 2010; says was not aware of the Tronox Trust claims filing deadline because individuals within the various church affiliations and associates kept the information private from not only him but also throughout the city of Columbus during the time period to submit a timely claim. Says people within the city also had false information, stating that "only people who worked for the Kerr-McGee chemical plant were eligible to file a claim." There was a pre-bankruptcy lawsuit that had different eligibility conditions but the pre-bankruptcy lawsuits were not part of the bankruptcy case. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4199	TRO905578FTC	3/28/2017	Ferack, Joseph	Gabrielle Tate	7703	8250 8542		X		X		Says symptoms 2005 and diagnosis 2010, does not provide medical records. Supplements filed at docket #8250 and docket#8542, wants claim to go through appeal process, complains there was no health warning, complains about claims process. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion is dated before December 1, 2017, cannot verify whether that was within the 90-day period after the Determination Notice. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4201	TRO893291FTC	2/23/2016	Moluski, Cynthia	Cynthia Moluski	7705			X	X			Diagnoses in 1992, 1993, 2008; she did not file a claim because she did not know she would be eligible; was unaware that non-employees could file claims based on where they lived. She divorced and moved away in 2004 and stopped communication with ex-spouse and his family in area. Says cancer surgery in Sept. 2008 was debilitating, but does not explain long post-bar date delay before filing claim except by saying she did not realize what she might have recovered; it was when she saw many people in the community who were not sick being compensated that she realized she might be eligible and started inquiring about it. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. The risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4202	TRO888251FTC	12/18/2015	Harris, Lillian	Lillian Harris	7706		X	X				Diagnoses 1979, 1990, 1997; filed prior claim with the Colom law firm in 2002 and was told could not file, but that was a different proceeding. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4203	TRO889721FTC	2/23/2016	Evans, Charlie	Charlie Evans	7707		X	X				Various pre-bar date symptoms listed, does not clearly state the separate diagnosis date for each; says had no knowledge of the lawsuit by news or TV prior to 2016. Says saw something in paper about "toxics." Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4205	TRO902480FTC	9/14/2016	Roberts, Terry	Terry Roberts	7711			X		X		Says symptoms 9/1/2009 and diagnosis 9/1/2009. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. Trustee challenges the timeliness of the motion but movant has not identified any claim based on a pre-bar date diagnosis for which relief is sought and only seeks to pursue post-bar date claims, deadline therefore is not relevant. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. 4208	TRO903308FTC	10/27/2016	Ferack, Joseph	Michael J. Nidoh	7714	8188		X				Diagnosis dates unknown, approximated to be 2006; the injured party died in 2008. Estate administrator says that he thought a claim had been filed by the injured party but that is impossible because the injured party died before the bankruptcy case had even been filed. A supplement filed at docket #8188, says he understands the remaining funds were for anyone who failed to file by the bar date, but that is not correct - the remaining funds are primarily for people whose injuries did not manifest until after the bar date, others can participate only if they meet the stringent criteria for relief from the bar date based on excusable neglect or due process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion is dated before December 1, 2017, cannot verify whether that was within the 90-day period after the Determination Notice.
4209	TRO902957FTC	10/13/2016	Whitfield, Ora	Kenneth Whitfield	7715		X	X				Diagnoses 1976 and 1988; the injured party is deceased; rep says did not know about the claim. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4210	TRO903394FTC	10/27/2016	Bell, Gabrielle	Gabrielle Bell	7716	8252	X	X				1989 diagnosis; unaware of bar date; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; says violation of due process (does not explain how). A supplement filed at docket #8252. Trust contends motion was untimely because it was not docketed within 90 days after the Determination Notice but motion is dated within the 90-day period. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims.
4220	TRO888831FTC	12/30/2015	Henry, Christina	Christina Henry	7726		X	X		X		Diagnoses 1980 and 2010; says previously filed with atty Bambach, outcome not specified; says no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product but does not explain retention of Bambach if did not know he had a claim. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 4222	TRO889059FTC	12/30/2015	Peoples, Sandra	Sandra Peoples	7728	8259	X	X				Diagnoses 1994 and 2007; merely says filed a claim in 2014 or 2015 that was rejected; does not refer to the 2009 period or explain the failure to file then. A supplement with additional pages filed at docket #8259. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion is dated before December 1, 2017, cannot verify whether that was within the 90-day period after the Determination Notice. Motion does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4224	TRO897833FTC	5/25/2016	Turner, Allie	Allie Turner	7730	8975	X	X				1950s diagnosis; filed with the Colom law firm in 2002, result not disclosed; did not see any public notice, did not know of bankruptcy case. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8975 complaining about the process. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends that the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims, motion only identifies a post-bar date claim to be pursued.
4228	TRO905321FTC	3/1/2017	Cameron, Ronald	Ronald Cameron	7734			X				2005 diagnosis; tried to file in 2007 in an action handled by the Powell law firm but was told it was too late; also periodically incarcerated but dates unclear. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Contact with Powell firm shows awareness of claims and legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

4229	TRO894008FTC	3/2/2016	Deloach, Brandi	Donique Deloach	7735		X	X				2005 diagnosis; explanation for not filing by the bar date is "they said that they were not taking applications because it was in bankruptcy;" may have been referring to attempts to hire counsel, bankruptcy is not a bar to filing a bankruptcy claim. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Appears to admit knowledge of the bar date, makes no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4230	TRO893357FTC	2/23/2016	Weston, Willie D.	Willie D. Weston	7736		X	X				Trust's summary incorrectly listed this motion as docket #6048. Diagnoses 1972 and 1981; says claim was made in 2000 or 2001 (proceeding not clear); place of exposure not clear. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4231	TRO895672FTC	3/24/2016	Whitfield, Alta	Alta Whitfield	7737			X		X		2013 diagnosis; did not know about it; did not know she was eligible as no longer lived in the area. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims, movant has only identified a post-bar date claim to be pursued.
4232	TRO901661FTC	8/16/2016	Tuggle, Johnny	Carol Hairston	7738			X				The injured party died in 2007; movant says a claim was filed and resolved but that the resolved claim predated the development of more serious conditions and death. Other claim had to be pre-bankruptcy as bankruptcy case was not filed until January 2009. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006, if not already resolved in a prior proceeding, also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
4243	TRO897914FTC	5/25/2016	Mosley, Tya	Tya Mosley	7749		X	X				1980 diagnosis; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4244	TRO890388FTC	2/23/2016	Roby, Ora	Ora Roby	7750			X			X	Alleges symptoms began in 2001 but not diagnosed until 2012; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims, movant has only identified post-bar date claims to be pursued.
4245	TRO904761FTC	1/24/2017	Smith, Tony	Tony Smith	7751		X	X				1993 diagnosis; not aware of the bankruptcy case; did not see any public notice; says publication notice was not reasonable but does not say why; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Trust contends motion was untimely because it was not docketed within 90 days after the Determination Notice but motion is dated within the 90-day period. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4250	TRO894051FTC	3/2/2016	Jefferson, Eva	Bobby Barry	7756		X	X				1975 diagnosis; the injured party died in 1993; rep was not aware of Tronox bankruptcy case; did not see any public notification in newspaper or any social media. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4253	TRO889883FTC	2/23/2016	Hargrove, Tyshun	Tyshun Hargrove	7759			X			X	Alleges September 2009 symptoms and December 2009 diagnosis; says bar date notice allowed too little time, but that would not have explained lengthy post-bar date delay before this claim was filed; says violation of due process to expunge claim; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Does not allege a claim based on a pre-bar date diagnosis, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims, movant has only identified post-bar date claims to be pursued.
4254	TRO902258FTC	9/14/2016	Prude, Diane	Diane Prude	7760		X	X				Diagnoses 1973, 2001, 2002, 2003; previously filed with Hamilton, Sexton & Berry 2005; later attempted to contact law firm but it was out of business. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Unclear if filing with attorneys led to a pending litigation at the time of the bankruptcy but if so direct notice of the bar date was provided to counsel and a proof of claim should have been filed. If claim was not pursued by counsel, that is not grounds for excusable neglect unless counsel's failures are excusable, no such excuse has been offered. Furthermore, if the claims were not part of a pre-bankruptcy litigation then they were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4255	TRO898362FTC	6/20/2016	McCrary, Tijah	Tammie Shennod	7761	7762	X	X				Diagnosis before 2002; alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Duplicate motion is at docket # 7762; the docket entry incorrectly refers to Danica Jones, whose motion is at docket # 7764. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4257	TRO894639FTC	3/23/2016	Jones, Dianca	Dianca Jones	7764		X	X				1996 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS; previously filed with Colom law firm and received $500 check which they did not cash; moved to North Carolina and unaware of deadline; says was told (does not say by whom) that claim process was only for people in Columbus. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Claim may have been resolved in prior class action regardless of whether check was cashed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4258	Unknown	5/4/2016	Gregory, Lester	Lester Gregory	7765		X	X				1962 diagnosis; did not realize could file without the assistance of a lawyer. Once realized could file without an attorney, it was too late. Place of exposure not clear. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4259	TRO901476FTC	8/16/2016	Edmonds, Roosevelt, Jr.	Roosevelt Edmonds, Jr.	7766		X	X				Diagnoses 2005, 2009; was diagnosed with PTSD and legally blind and had difficulty filling out claims. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Court sympathizes with difficulties but they do not amount to an incapacity in the sense of an inability to file a claim or to enlist the help of others in doing so. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, does not explain long post-bar date delays before filing a claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4260	TRO902040FTC	9/14/2016	Campbell, Sherry	Tara Bolden	7767		X	X				2000 diagnosis; the injured party was a resident of Columbus, MS who died in 2006; rep unaware of claims information; says the publication notice was not reasonable, does not say why; says incompetent and incapacitated, but that is apparently referring to the decedent. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4261	TRO893617FTC	2/23/2016	Wells, Raina	Raina Wells	7768		X	X				Diagnoses 1997 and earlier; did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; there was a lot of misinformation about the exposure of creosote; challenges whether notices were sent in compliance with court orders, but the notices were mailed and published by an independent noticing firm retained by the clerk's office and affidavits attesting to compliance were duly filed. Claims that people in place to answer questions (unclear to whom referring) deliberately told individuals that they were only affected if they lived near the plant and as she did not reside within the noted radius, she thought she could not have been exposed to the product; this likely was a communication in relation to a prior class action that was on behalf of residents who lived within a certain distance of the plant. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4264	TRO889810FTC	Unknown	Coleman, Victor	Victor Coleman	7771		X	x				Not included in Trust's summary. Conditions were identified in 1965, 1968, 1974; exposure occurred as a child before relocated to another state, does not say where exposure occurred; did not have any reason to understand or knowledge that diseases were caused by exposure to Tronox product; notice not reasonably calculated to reach all claimants, in particular claimants who no longer reside in area would not be notified by local publication; as out of state claimant, notice was insufficient. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Complains of publication notice not covering claimant's area but notice of the bar date was published in The Birmingham News on June 24, 2009. Publication notices complied with due process for the reasons stated in the accompanying Decision. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claims are based on exposures in MS or Alabama the claims also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

The injured party died in 2016; they did not file because did not know or had no reason to know he had been exposed to creosote. Unclear why deceased did not file. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion will be accepted based on its postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 4276	TRO892952FTC	2/23/2016	Ellison, Doris	Doris Ellison	7785			X			X	Says symptoms September 2009 and diagnosis December 2009, unclear if new condition or a continuing one; text is identical to motion at docket # 7759, including allegations as to symptoms and diagnosis date; says bar date notice allowed too little time, but that would not have explained lengthy post-bar date delay before this claim was filed; says violation of due process to expunge claim; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Does not allege a claim based on a pre-bar date diagnosis, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims.
4277	TRO898053FTC	6/20/2016	Cockrell, Velma	Daniel Cockrell	7786		X	X				The injured party died in 1987; as to conditions, says records not found; rep does not provide an excuse for missed bar date. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4278	TRO893406FTC	2/23/2016	Bonner, Mary	Mary Renee Mixon	7787			X				November 2006 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2007; rep says did not know she could file a claim on behalf of her relative. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4279	TRO892771FTC	2/23/2016	Craddieth, Kimberly	Kimberly Craddieth	7788			X			X	Trust incorrectly listed this motion at docket 7790 and with the wrong claim number. 2012 diagnosis; says was not aware of Tronox bankruptcy case; did not see any public notice; says she placed wrong date on claim form for some symptoms and was actually first diagnosed in 2012. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4300	TRO890282FTC	2/23/2016	McCoy, Corine	Wannetta McCoy-Gunn	7809		X	X				Various diagnoses, all 2000 and earlier; the injured party died in 2012; says the claimant was incompetent at the time of bar date, suffering from dementia, in a wheelchair; rep filing the claim was not aware of claims; other congregations were telling people to fill out paper work for a small or large fee, thinks this was a scam. The rep says did not receive notice informing to file claim against Tronox; does not read Wall Street Journal; after learning of it researched some of the notices in the various publications and the notices were very dense and she did not see any filing deadlines; she does not subscribe to newspapers; she did not learn anything concerning it from TV or radio; she was caregiver and working with little time for socializing or reading publications. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Representative acknowledges providing assistance and does not claim incapacity on representative's own part. Published notices did mention the bar date deadline. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. 4302	TRO893681FTC	3/2/2016	Gunn, Stephen, Jr.	Wannetta McCoy-Gunn	7811		X	X				Various diagnoses, all 2001 and earlier; motion filed by spouse, who states that the claimant was incapacitated at time of bar date due to stroke; representative was caregiver for spouse as well as parent with little time for socializing or reading papers. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Representative notes the injured party's condition but does not claim that the representative was incapacitated. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4303	TRO890285FTC	2/23/2016	McCoy-Gunn, Wannetta	Wannetta McCoy-Gunn	7812		X	X				Various diagnoses, all 2005 and earlier. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Movant says there was not enough publicity regarding bar date, but notice procedures were approved with participation of attorneys representing tort victims and have subsequently been upheld. Says was caring for ill relations (at docket #7809 and #7811); says churches that participated did not share information; she was under a doctor's care. Not a sufficient showing of incapacity to a degree that prevented claimant from filing a claim or enlisting the help of others in doing so. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4307	TRO901704FTC	8/16/2016	Elizenberry, Stacy	Stacy Elizenberry	7816		X	X				Appears to be making claim based on skin conditions passed on to children at birth in 1990s; children apparently have filed their own claims and motions (see docket# 7814 and docket# 7815). Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Says was unaware of details of filing claim and that she was eligible to file. To the extent claimant is making a claim on her own behalf it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4308	TRO887684FTC	12/14/2015	Dancer, Timothy	Timothy Dancer	7817		X	X				1982 diagnosis (at birth); former resident of Columbus, MS; unaware exposed to product. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Movants says the movant was a child at the bar date but the bar date was in August 2009, so if born in 1982 the claimant was approximately 27 years old. Attached letter refers to ailments of Virginia Nash Sanders but claim is for Timothy Dancer; letter possibly was intended for the motion at docket 7820 on behalf of Virginia Nash, filed by Helen Dancer-Allen. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4309	TRO886796FTC	12/7/2015	Lee, Willie	Helen Dancer-Allen	7818		X	X				1990 diagnosis; the injured party was a resident of Columbus, MS who died in 2012; rep says previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2001-2002; rep says that Willie Lee was disabled and unable to make any legal decisions; relatives were not aware or informed; the injured party did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4339	Unknown	11/25/2015	Dent, Annie	Annie Dent	7854	8537	X	X				1997/98 symptoms and diagnoses; previously filed with the Colom law firm and received a $360 payment; says she signed with lawyer at a local hotel in Columbus prior to 2009; says did not receive notice of the Tronox bankruptcy litigation or the bar date. A supplemental letter filed complaining of process at docket #8537. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Claim resolved in a prior proceeding could not be re-asserted in Tronox bankruptcy case. Counsel in the class action (the Colom firm) received notice of the bar date. Alleges lack of direct notice but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. No record that any attorney filed a claim in 2009. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4340	Unknown	8/16/2016	Sims, Jr., Lowrenzo	Lowrenzo Sims, Jr.	7855		X	X				2005 diagnosis; unaware that condition was related to Tronox chemicals. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. The rep received no notice of the case and did not know condition was related to Tronox product. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Claim based on 1995 diagnoses was time-barred under applicable statute of limitations before Tronox bankruptcy. In addition, alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to other pre-bar date diagnoses.

Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In addition, alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4344	Unknown	2/23/2016	Peoples, Titus Byrd	Titus Byrd Peoples	7859		X	X				1994 diagnosis; unaware condition related to Tronox chemicals. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. In addition, alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4345	Unknown	2/23/2016	Kelly, Betty	Betty Kelly	7860		X	X				Diagnoses 1997, 2000, 2002; says attempted to file claims years ago and it was dismissed because of pending bankruptcy case. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Unclear when or where the movant attempted to file a claim but the bankruptcy case was not filed until 2009, and this claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before that time. In addition, movant acknowledges awareness of claim and being informed of bankruptcy but makes no showing as to why filed so long after the bar date, not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect even if claim were not time-barred.
4346	Unknown	7/25/2016	Gardner, Carl	Carl Gardner	7861			X				No current condition and unaware exposed to deadly chemicals; wants to preserve right to file a future claim regarding latent illnesses. No pre-bar date diagnosis or condition identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief from bar date because no claim is identified for which relief is appropriate.

4347	Unknown	2/23/2016	Robinson, Ida	Ida Robinson	7862		X	X				Diagnoses 2004 and 2005; previously retained Colom law firm and was paid $550; says has not been fairly compensated; unaware that attorney would not file a claim on claimant's behalf. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. In addition, no indication the Colom firm continued to represent movant in 2009, but that would not be helpful because the Colom firm received direct notice of the bar date. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4391	TRO901097FTC	8/16/2016	Brown, Kenneth	Kenneth Brown	7906		X	X				1962 diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002; says unaware of claim because incompetent and incapacitated but provides no details, insufficient to show inability to file a claim or to enlist the help of others in doing so. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4392	TRO902069FTC	9/14/2016	Latham, Janice	Janice Latham	7907	7931 8182		X				2007 diagnosis; merely says "No Notice" as reason for not filing. A supplement filed at docket #7931 concerning address and dates and at docket #8182 concerning address. Trust contends motion was untimely but the motion is dated before December 1, 2017, cannot verify whether that was within the 90-day period after the Determination Notice. Does not allege Tronox knew of this claim, does not explain why publication notice did not suffice. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

4406	TRO889033FTC	12/30/2015	Howard, Shamaya	Shamaya Howard	7921			X				Diagnoses 2007, 2015; previously filed with atty Bambach 2003-2008; atty said claim had been filed (unclear what proceeding but given the listed dates it could not have been the bankruptcy case, as the bankruptcy filing did not happen until 2009). Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Unclear if any claim ever was actually pending. If lawyer failed to file a lawsuit or a claim that is not grounds for relief, because conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date.

4425	Unknown	2/23/2016	Williams, Anderson	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	7942						X	2008 diagnosis; says was a minor (16) at the bar date; unaware condition related to Tronox chemicals; notice insufficient to inform claimant that condition was related to Tronox. No indication that Tronox had reason to know of the injured party's condition. Due process did not require the impossible and did not require that Tronox send notice to each injured party saying that the injured party had a condition that Tronox had caused. In addition, the motion was untimely as it was not dated or filed within the 90-day period required under the procedures approved by the Court and set forth in the Determination Notice. Court nevertheless will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file by the bar date, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.

4426	Unknown	2/23/2016	Evans, Jermel	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	7943			X	X			2007 diagnosis; the injured party was deceased at bar date; unaware condition related to Tronox chemicals; notice was insufficient as to inform rep that condition was due to Tronox. Motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice as required by the Court's prior order and as specified in the Determination Notice. No indication that Tronox had reason to know of the injured party's condition. Due process did not require the impossible and did not require that Tronox send notice to each injured party saying that the injured party had a condition that Tronox had caused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Symptoms started 1995 to 2001; diagnosis "yes;" previously filed with the Colom law firm, result not listed; unaware of ongoing settlement in case; unaware of bar date. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not the subject of a prior proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date.
4456	TRO898311FTC	Unknown	Hill-Walker, Alfreda	Alfreda Hill-Walker	7975		X	X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1997 and October 2009; previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002 class action, result not stated; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to why missed the bar date. Claims based on 1997 diagnosis either were resolved in a prior action or, if not, were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (including any defenses as to the diagnosis date and defenses as to the effect of the prior class action) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4457	TRO893825FTC	Unknown	Porter, Stephanie	Stephanie Porter	7976		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 2002 diagnosis; says was incarcerated at time of bar date, but it appears from the paper attached that she was incarcerated prior to 2009. Says saw no public notices and did not know of bankruptcy process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 4464	TRO891419FTC	Unknown	Bishop, Antonio	Antonio Bishop	7983		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 1984 diagnosis; former resident of Jackson, MS who still lived there in 2009; previously filed with Colom law firm, paperwork lost (unclear if received a prior recovery or when papers were lost); medical record destroyed; prior to bar date, unaware of claim against Tronox. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4465	TRO895720FTC	Unknown	Brown, Charlie	Charlie Brown	7984			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. December 2009 diagnosis. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures
4466	TRO884618FTC	Unknown	Coleman, Arven	Sophia Coleman	7985	9192	X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. No diagnosis date listed; the injured party died in 2012; previously retained law firm Gary, Williams, Parenti, Finney, Lewis, McManus, Watson & Sperando, P.L. (prior to 2004). A supplemental letter filed at docket #9192 complaining about the process. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not the subject of a prior proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel in all pending cases received direct notice of the bar date.
4467	TRO901809FTC	Unknown	Johnson, Louis	Louis Johnson	7986	8764	X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. 1986 diagnosis; says was unaware of bar date. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8764 complaining about the process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4468	TRO891180FTC	Unknown	Douglas, Lonnie	Lonnie Douglas	7988			X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses March 2009 and January 2014; says previously filed a claim with local church group Maranatha and did not hear anything, when she inquired was told her name was not included in their record; filed with atty Bambach who is deceased. If someone else failed to file a 2009 claim that does not constitute excusable neglect unless that other person's conduct is excused and explained. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4469	TRO894654FTC	Unknown	Williams, Brenda	Brenda Williams	7989			X				Not included in Trust's summary. 2007 diagnosis; unaware could file a claim; after atty Bambach deceased was informed too late. Attorney Bambach did not die until 2013, that is no reason why 2009 bar date was missed. Unclear when retained Bambach but if before bar date that is no excuse because Bambach received notice of the bar date and unexcused failures of counsel are not grounds for excusable neglect. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4470	TRO898082FTC	Unknown	Martin, Bobby	Bobby Martin	7990		X	X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1997, 2005, 2009; says previously filed claim with atty Bambach, atty deceased; did not receive anything or any information; filed after learning of process but it was too late. Date of filing with attorney is not specified but Atty Bambach died in 2013. If was retained before bar date that is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect because Bambach received notice of the bar date and unexcused failures of counsel are not grounds for relief. In addition, claims based on 1997 and 2005 diagnoses were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Date of 2009 diagnosis not clear. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be decided by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4471	TRO892538FTC	Unknown	Harris, Fannie	Fannie Harris	7991			X				Not included in Trust's summary. January 2009 diagnosis; says previously filed with atty Bambach but he passed away, but his passing was in 2013, does not explain failure to file in 2009. Unexcused failure of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Says tried to refile and sign up with Maranatha church after death of Bambach but did not hear anything, then told it was over, but if that was after the passing of Atty Bambach it was already years after the bar date. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process.
4472	TRO898081FTC	Unknown	Martin, Melvin	Melvin Martin	7992			X				Not included in Trust's summary. March 2009 diagnosis; lawyer he signed up with is deceased (lawyer not named and date of passing not specified); informed another attorney would take over but did not hear anything. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process. If lawyers failed to follow up, their failures are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless the lawyers' own failures are excusable.
4473	TRO890647FTC	Unknown	Fleming, John Belab	John Fleming	7993						X	Not included in Trust's summary. 1999 diagnosis; parent went to Bambach, atty deceased (but he did not die until 2013); claimant was a child at the time; claimant can't read, write or count; was afraid to let people know because he knew would be taken advantage of but he trusts the person assisting now; mind affected by chemicals, can't concentrate; unaware of cause of medical problems. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
4474	TRO885399FTC	Unknown	Martin, Larry	Larry Martin	7994			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. 2008 and 2009 diagnoses; says previously signed up with atty Bambach (deceased), but atty Bambach did not die until 2013, that is no reason why bar date was missed; unaware of last time they did claims or that could sign up. If the allegation is that Bambach was retained in 2009 that is not enough; unexcused failure of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process and to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4475	TRO889642FTC	Unknown	Douglas, Gloria	Gloria Douglas	7995		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. January 2005 diagnosis; unaware claims were being filed; says Atty Bambach died, was told it was over (but Atty Bambach died in 2013, long after the bar date). Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4476	TRO885398FTC	Unknown	Martin, Jeremy	Jeremy Martin	7996						X	Not included in Trust's summary. Minor at bar date; parents were told could not file for kids; when found out and filed, atty deceased; docket entry has nothing attached to it. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
4477	TRO885397FTC	Unknown	Martin, Marquez	Marquez Martin	7997		X	X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. 1992 and 2009 diagnoses; unaware of bar date; once became aware signed with atty now deceased (attorney not named, but if was Bambach he died in 2013). Claim based on 1992 diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy. If allegation is that Bambach was retained before the bar date that is not enough; Bambach had notice of the bar date, unexcused failure of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. 4478	TRO885401FTC	Unknown	Martin, Ketilia	Ketilia Martin	7998		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1986 and 2008; informed it was too late to file again after atty passed away (atty not identified but handwriting is the same as those of claimants who have alleged Bambach was attorney, he did not die until 2013 and that is no reason why 2009 bar date was missed); only aware now. Claim based on 1986 diagnosis was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to other pre-bar date diagnoses.

4509	TRO898370FTC	Unknown	Colebrook, Betty	Betty Colebrook	8037		X	X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Previously filed with Colom law firm; she says she was offered $5,000 and rejected the offer but she also references having received $2,773.10 from Creosote Wood Treating Facility litigation group after fees and costs were deducted. She also says she has additional conditions and wants her claim re-evaluated. Medical records show various pre-bar date diagnoses and one 2013 diagnosis. Prior litigation shows awareness of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006, if not resolved in prior litigation, also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date (including any defense based on the terms of a prior claim resolution) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4516	TRO884531FTC	Unknown	Thompson, Fowles	Fowles Thompson	8050		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1998 and 2000; previously filed with Lundy & Davis, LLP 2000 and McClanahan 2002; says he thinks it is a shame that 3 people who reside in the same house received allowed claims and one did not although all have health issues and that people who never lived in Columbus have allowed claims. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date or explain reason why failed to comply with bar date. Prior dealings with counsel show awareness of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4525	Unknown	Unknown	Borovitz, Stanley & Mary	Judy Draus	8149			X				Not included in Trust's summary. Says did not file for deceased relatives, then found others had done so, wants their claims reconsidered. Does not allege lack of knowledge of the claim process. No specific claim identified for which relief is sought on the grounds of excusable neglect or due process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4526	Unknown	Unknown	Randle, Tie R.	Tie R. Randle	8183			X				Not included in Trust's summary. Claim number not provided; dates of diagnosis not provided; says was unaware of the information and/or the possibility of receiving a settlement for physical injuries; unaware of the threatening issues from being in contaminated area. Claimant provides some recent medical forms but did not provide information required by motion form. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4527	TRO889413FTC	Unknown	Murunga, Gregory	Gwendolyn Williams	8202		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Docket 8202 is a "group" letter filed for 5 claimants complaining about the process; says previously filed with atty Howard Gunn 2002 but the trust did not send her notice. Some medical records for Gwendolyn, who says that she and one other of these claimants has not received a determination notice. Says claimant thought was represented by class action counsel. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was fully resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not the subject of a prior proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date. Unexcused failures of counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect.

4531	TRO901749FTC	Unknown	Tate, Shirley	Shirley Tate	8253			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. A letter rejecting an offer from the Trust. Does not seek relief from the bar date. Appeals from Trust determinations are to be resolved through the Tort Claims Trust dispute resolution procedures.
4532	TRO885868FTC	Unknown	Abrams, Jessica	Jessica Abrams	8256			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. This is not an excusable neglect motion, it is merely a response to a notice of deficient claim materials.
4533	TRO901453FTC	Unknown	Hampton, William	Ida Hampton	8278			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Not a motion for relief, just papers showing acceptance of an offer of a scheduled value of $10,000 by Trust.
4534	TRO890703FTC	Unknown	Shelton, Rebertha	Rebertha Shelton	8316		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1965, 1985, 1990; says relocated from Columbus, MS to another state at time of bar date, therefore does not believe received adequate notice, discharge of claim was violation of due process. Says claim was filed on time but it was filed many years after the bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Publication notices complied with due process as explained in the accompanying Decision. Claim was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Diagnoses 1983, 1989, 1992; unaware of the bar date; due process rights violated because did not have any information on filing a claim prior to the bar date; unaware exposed to toxic chemicals; had moved from Columbus, MS and was not living in the area when the ads were posted and did not have adequate notice. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Publication notices complied with due process for the reasons stated in the accompanying Decision. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4536	TRO892188FTC	Unknown	Stewart, Jamila	Jamila Stewart	8328			X				Not included in Trust's summary. Conditions and diagnosis dates not listed; says was unaware of and had no knowledge of the bankruptcy case. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4537	TRO885548FTC	Unknown	Lyons, Undrae	Undrae Lyons	8334		X	X				Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1980-1989; says had no knowledge of this at the time of the bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4538	TRO886363FTC	12/7/2015	Williams, Adlena	Adlena Williams	8349	8523		X				Not included in Trust's summary. Docket # 8349 is merely a schedule of insurance benefits. Also filed a motion form at docket #8523 but it was blank and only includes signature and address. No information to support a motion for relief from the bar date.
4539	TRO893109FTC	2/23/2016	Scott, Shelby	Patty Harrison	8359	8500		X		X		Lists an updated medical diagnosis for 2012 but there is no any other information or prior filing with the court. A supplement filed at docket #8500, says claimant is a minor. Papers filed with court do not identify any claim based on a pre-bar date diagnosis for which relief from the bar date is sought. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be determined by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4540	TRO887115FTC	12/14/2015	Walker, Sarah	Sarah Walker	8360			X				2006 diagnosis. Says that in 2009, she was the caregiver for her sister, who died on June 10, 2009, a few weeks before bar date, and she was not thinking about the claim and forgot about the lawsuit deadline. Does not explain the many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
4542	TRO892017FTC	2/23/2016	Irizarry, Amy (Munson)	Amy Munson Irizarry	8362	8126	X	X				1969 diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm; says a claim was filed in 2000-2001, but was closed due to rejecting the $600 offered as unacceptable. Complains that others who lived further away were compensated and she was not. She wants reconsideration of her claim. She says not aware of the dangers posed by the dangerous substances. A supplement filed at docket #8126, says moved away from area; unaware of bar date, insufficient notice. Participation in prior class action shows awareness of claim and rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not resolved and was not the subject of a pending proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date.
4543	Unknown	Unknown	Lawson, Rasheeda	Rasheeda Lawson	8373			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Alleges 2010 diagnosis; says that did not file by bar date because she did not have any illness to report at the time. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4544	Unknown	Unknown	Smith Breakfield, Carmen	Carmen Smith Breakfield	8374		X	X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Some heart and allergy diagnoses in 2005, told needed transplant in 2014. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Claims based on 2005 diagnoses were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4557	TRO884473FTC	11/25/2015	Billups, Bernard	Bernard Billups	8406			X				1992 symptoms onset, no diagnosis date; says did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; unknown about filing a claim. Place of exposure not clear. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim is based on exposure in MS or Alabama then the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

4559	TRO886370FTC	12/7/2015	Boone, Annie	Annie Boone	8408			X				Merely a signed motion form, no excuse offered.
4560	TRO897209FTC	5/4/2016	Brandon, Ambrosha	Ambrosha Brandon	8409						X	1992 diagnosis (at birth); had no knowledge "until EPA came to Maranatha Faith Center;" says that when she was at the meeting at the faith center, she did the paperwork but does not mention date. Learned a year ago that "the case has been reopen." Movant apparently was a minor as of the bar date. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
4561	TRO896629FTC	4/25/2016	Brewer, Mary	Mary Brewer	8410		X	X				1995 diagnosis; previously filed with the Colom law firm, at that time she did not understand why she was getting papers from all kind of out of state lawyers; she turned her paperwork back to them; she stopped hearing from lawyers and is unaware what happened to her paperwork with lawyer Colom. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claims. Claim either was resolved in prior action or, if not, it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4562	TRO891338FTC	2/23/2016	Brooks, Amber	Amber Brooks	8411			X		X		2010 diagnosis. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. No record of a bankruptcy claim filed before bar date in 2009. No grounds stated for relief based on excusable neglect or due process.
4573	TRO902382FTC	9/14/2016	McMullen, Lillie	Verda Carr-McCoy	8424		X	X				1979 diagnosis; the injured party is a former residence of Columbus, MS who is deceased; rep says that the form notice of bar date was deficient on its face; publication notice not reasonably calculated to provide notice; was not aware nor had reason to be aware that injured party was exposed to dangerous Tronox product; rep learned of lawsuit in 2016, then researched and filed claim. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

No explanation of long delay after bar date before filed claim, no explanation of any effort to investigate and pursue legal rights during that period. However, reference to just starting college suggests that movant may have been a minor in 2009. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.

4575	TRO887486FTC	12/14/2015	Council, Myia	Myia Council	8427			X			X		Unaware of bar date; misinterpreted conditions of the claim; unaware exposed to a Tronox product. Says symptoms December 2009, diagnosis October 2010. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4576	Unknown	3/24/2016	Crowell, Antonio	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	8428		X	X					1995 diagnosis; previously filed claim with Colom law firm, was paid $500, does not believe was fairly compensated. Says was unaware that "my attorney" would not file a claim on his behalf - unclear who attorney was at that time, but apparently is referring to the Colom firm. Claim resolved in a prior class action could not be reasserted in the Tronox bankruptcy case, and if some part of the claim was not resolved in the class action it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Unclear if Colom firm was counsel to claimant in 2009 but even if it was that would not be an excuse, because the Colom law firm received direct notice of the bar date. Allegation that Colom firm should have filed a claim is not grounds for relief, because unexcused failures by counsel are not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect.

4602	TRO892654FTC	2/23/2016	Hughes, Deandre	Deandre Hughes	8457	9443		X		X		Claims first diagnosis in 2011 but also says previously filed with Colom firm, unclear if that was in connection with the late-filed claim or some other proceeding; says Colom law firm did not respond. A supplemental letter filed at docket #9443 complaining about the process. If (as alleged) the Colom firm was retained to file a claim by the bar date, and failed to do so, that is not grounds for relief. The Colom firm had direct notice of the bar date, and an unexcused failure by an attorney is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim appears to be based on 2011 diagnosis. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4612	Unknown	2/23/2016	Lee, Sandy	Sandy Lee	8468		X	X		X		Diagnoses 2003, 2017; says received no direct notice, nothing sufficient to inform claimant that condition was due to Tronox materials. No indication that Tronox had reason to know of the injured party's condition. Due process did not require the impossible and did not require that Tronox send notice to each injured party saying that the injured party had a condition that Tronox had caused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4613	TRO890838FTC	2/23/2016	Little, Ronald	Ronald Little	8469			X		X		Diagnoses 2013, 2014, 2015; unaware exposed to Tronox product; insufficient notice; says symptoms and diagnosis after bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4614	Unknown	12/4/2015	Little, Titus	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	8470	9147		X				1996 diagnosis; minor (18) at bar date; unaware condition related to Tronox product, says notice not sufficient to inform claimant that condition was due to Tronox. A supplemental letter filed at docket #9147 complaining about the process. No indication that Tronox had reason to know of the injured party's condition. Due process did not require the impossible and did not require that Tronox send notice to each injured party saying that the injured party had a condition that Tronox had caused. No explanation of long post-bar date delay before filed claim, no explanation of any efforts to investigate or to protect legal rights during that time. Movant was 21 years old by approximately 2012, no claim filed until years later. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

4616	TRO900921FTC	8/16/2016	Martin, Cornelius	Cornelius Martin	8473			X				Symptoms 2008; no diagnosis date listed; when asked to explain why missed the bar date, says "Don't know, Depressed." Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process.
4617	Unknown	3/24/2016	Mason, Ebbie	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	8474	8959	X	X				Diagnoses 1976, 1990; previously represented by Bambach and received a $300 settlement, which he says was not fair compensation; says notice was insufficient to inform him that Tronox caused his illness, but participation in prior litigation shows notice of that connection. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8959 complaining about the process. Claim resolved in a prior action could not be reasserted in the Tronox bankruptcy case. Claims either were resolved in prior action or, if not, were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4618	Unknown	2/23/2016	Mason, Joe	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	8475		X	X				2005 diagnosis; unaware condition related to Tronox product; insufficient notice to inform claimant that Tronox caused injury. No indication that Tronox had reason to know of the injured party's condition. Due process did not require the impossible and did not require that Tronox send notice to each injured party saying that the injured party had a condition that Tronox had caused. Statute of limitations in Mississippi runs from date of known injury regardless of whether cause is known. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4619	Unknown	2/23/2016	Mason, Joe Kris	L. Nichole Clinkscales, Esq.	8476			X				Says has no symptoms now but wants to file in case latent condition turns up later; unaware of dangerous chemicals. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief from the bar date is sought or is necessary.

Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
4663	TRO887714FTC	12/14/2015	Williams, Kourgee	Kourgee Williams	8524						X	1999 diagnosis (at age 9); minor (19 at bar date); military family relocated to Tennessee in 2005. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
4664	TRO901477FTC	8/16/2016	Wilson, Barbara	Barbara Wilson	8525			X		X		Says did not understand conditions of claim; unaware exposed to Tronox product; says symptoms Aug. 28, 2009 and diagnosis Sept. 2009. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4665	TRO898224FTC	6/20/2016	Wilson, Mike	Mike Wilson	8526			X		X		Says did not file a claim because misunderstood the procedure; says symptoms and diagnosis 2010. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
4666	Unknown	Unknown	Poindexter, TeKasha	TeKasha Poindexter	8892			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Merely a tort trust claim form, not a request for relief. Claims should be ruled upon in the first instance by the Tort Claims Trust.
4667	Unknown	Unknown	Little, Abigail	Abigail Little	9308			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 2007 and 2011; says publication notice of claims filing deadline was not reasonable, but does not allege Tronox knew of this claim; says did not know had been exposed to a Tronox product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

4668	Unknown	Unknown	Gallegos, Salomon	Luella Jaramillo	9454			X				Not included in Trust's summary. 2004 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2014. Motion filed 3/9/2020. Representative says she came upon information about these proceedings when clearing the decedent's personal belongings and found a letter dated 2/16/2015 concerning the proceedings. The excuse provided is that Mr. Gallegos discarded any and all documentation related to these proceedings because of his cognitive and physical capacities, which were directly related to his condition from the exposure to radioactive elements and his poisoning. Insufficient showing of inability to file a claim or to enlist the help of others in doing so, insufficient showing as to decedent's knowledge of bar date and/or diligence in pursuing claim to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process.

2	TRO905082FTC	3/1/2017	Young, Aaliyah	Aaliyah Young	6843	8146 8542	X	X			X	Diagnoses 2005, 2010-13; was not aware of the case, did not see published notices, called 800 number and was told to file a future tort claim. A supplement filed at docket #8146 complaining that the trust grouped her with others filing identical excuses and says that the excuse is exactly what happened to her and "the reasons should be used by anyone as long as it is the truth." Says did not know and had no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. A further supplement filed with others at docket #8542 complaining of the process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

Unaware of the claims process; in and out of college during bankruptcy case; unaware and no reason to know of bankruptcy case. A supplemental claim filed at docket #8104. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
9	TRO895328FTC	3/23/2016	Woodrick, Abaris	Abaris Woodrick	5060			X		X		Says symptoms and diagnosis in 2012; did not know what to do until she got the right understanding. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
10	Unknown	Unknown	Durrah, Abby	Abby Durrah	3513	8084		X		X		Motion is not included in the Trust's summary. Says she is filing for reconsideration of her claim but no motion for relief based on excusable neglect or due process has been filed. At docket #3513, she filed a rejection of the amount the trust offered as an allowed claim. She filed a separate claim on behalf of a relative at docket #3774. Docket # 8084 is a request for reconsideration. Any review of the Trust's decision as to a post-bar date claim must proceed through the Trust's dispute resolution procedures.
11	TRO902463FTC	9/14/2016	Johnson, Charlie	Abby Durrah	3774	6644		X		X		Diagnosed "sometime 2009 or 2010." filing on behalf of brother. Filed in 2016 as well. Rejection notice filed at docket # 6644. Brother suffered, feels should be compensated. No showing as to brother's knowledge of claims process or diligence in pursuit of his rights, not qualify for relief based on excusable neglect or due process as to claims based on conditions diagnosed prior to the bar date. Merits of any claim first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its normal dispute resolution procedures.

16	TRO880694FTC	12/4/2015	Webber, Abby	Abby Webber	7025		X	X				Diagnoses in 1983, 2003, 2005; former resident of Columbus, MS; unaware exposed to a Tronox product or the dangers they presented; says violation of due process. Says did not know creosote caused her illness until 2014. Statute of limitations in MS runs from date of diagnosed injury regardless of whether claimant knows the cause of the injury. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
17	TRO893105FTC	2/23/2016	Babkowski, Abigail	Abigail Babkowski	6737			X				Diagnosed as infant in 1983; says was child at time of deadline but had to be at least 26 years old in 2009. Never heard of Tronox case because lived outside of the area and father, who still lived in area, kept the information from her. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
18	Unknown	Unknown	Little, Abigail	Abigail Little	9308			X		X		deadline was not reasonable, but does not allege Tronox knew of this claim; says did not know had been exposed to a Tronox product. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
22	TRO899972FTC	7/25/2016	Danner, Ada	Ada Danner	3845		X	X				1988 diagnosis. Copies and pastes language regarding lack of knowledge of the bar date, no other explanation. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
23	TRO884834FTC	11/25/2015	Irions, Ada	Ada Irions	3444		X	X				1970 diagnosis, previously filed with the Colom law firm 2002. Says did not file a proof of claim because was unaware of this lawsuit; did not see any publication notification of this lawsuit or the bar date; standard language; her negligence to file by the bar date was because there was no publication notice of the claims filing deadline to provide notice for potential claimants who were unknown at the time of the notice. Publication notices did occur and they met due process standards as explained in the accompanying decision. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

24	TRO897870FTC	4/9/2016	Facciponti, Adam	Adam Facciponti	4205			X				X	2006 diagnosis. Says was a minor when case began but alleges exposure began in 1985 so was at least 24 years old at the time of the bar date. Also says was in U.S. Air Force and did not hear about this matter until 2014. Claim was not filed until April 9, 2016; even if the bar date was tolled by 50 U.S.C. 3936, the claim would be untimely so long as military service ended on or before January 23, 2016. The motion alleges lack of actual knowledge in 2009 but makes no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date and why waited so long after learning of the process in 2014), would not be sufficient to warrant an untimely claim to be permitted on grounds of excusable neglect. If movant believes that military service continued until January 23, 2016 or later, movant may make a supplemental submission to verify the dates of military service.
25	TRO900248FTC	7/25/2016	Kabacinski, Adam	Adam Kabacinski	3417			X					Apparently resided near the Avoca, PA plant. Says he just found out about illness last year, but form also says his diagnosis was in 1999. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
26	TRO900619FTC	8/16/2016	Sudduth, Adams	Adam Sudduth	7666		X	X					Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. 1985 diagnosis; place of exposure not clear; says made a claim in February 2009, references receiving a letter from the Department of Justice. Filing a complaint with the DOJ did not constitute the filing of a proof of claim in the Tronox bankruptcy case. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim is based on exposure in MS then the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

32	TRO893536FTC	2/23/2016	Cockrell, Aenderil	Aenderil Cockrell	6571						X	1996 diagnosis; minor; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Will permit supplemental submission to verify age as of the bar date and to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
33	TRO893026FTC	2/23/2016	Agnew, Thelma	Agnew, Thelma	6782			X		X		Says diagnosed 1/1/2010. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, motion is denied to the extent it seeks permission to pursue claims based on pre-bar date diagnoses. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
34	TRO886588FTC	12/7/2015	Owens, Airicka	Airicka Owens	6661		X	X				2003 diagnosis; former resident of Columbus, MS who still lived there in 2009; part of a lawsuit and settlement in 2003-04; says thought Tronox was still in bankruptcy status and didn't know she could file a "future" claim. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
35	TRO886787FTC	12/7/2015	Adams, Aisha	Aisha Adams	6189		X	X				Diagnoses 1999 and 2006; says has an out-of-town residence in Georgia but resided in Columbus, MS in summers; was not aware of proceedings. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

36	TRO889337FTC	2/23/2016	Sherrod, Alacia	Alacia Sherrod	6017		X	X				1997 diagnosis; previously filed with atty Bambach, unsure of when but thinks in 2007. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
37	TRO888496FTC	12/18/2015	Beck, Alan	Alan Beck	6084			X				1974 diagnosis; unaware that creosote was a problem, did not read about it in newspaper, did not talk about it or publicize until later. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
38	TRO891251FTC	2/23/2016	Green, Alashia	Alashia Green	5913		X	X			X	Various diagnosis dates, some before and some after the bar date; previously filed with Colom law firm; says around 2002 she found her name on some form, she did not meet with the attorney, it was just presented to her whether she accepted it or not. The attorney just sent a letter where to meet after the settlement but no other information was provided. Those allegations all relate to the prior class action and not to the bankruptcy process. Also says the publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice; violation of due process. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. If claims based on pre-2006 diagnoses were not resolved in a prior proceeding then they were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date (including any defense as to effects of prior class action) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

50	TRO904996FTC	1/24/2017	Edwards, Joe Jr.	Alesia Edwards Kennedy	6216	8438	X	X				The Trust's submission listed docket 6216 as a motion for Alesia Edward Kenney on her own behalf but docket # 6216 actually relates to a claim filed on behalf of Joe Edwards, Jr.; Alesia Edward Kennedy's own motion is at docket #6219. As to the motion at docket # 6216; alleges a 2003 diagnosis; the injured party was a Columbus, MS resident who died in 2007; rep only became aware in 2016 that the area was affected with these chemicals; were not notified then. A supplement filed at docket #8438. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
51	TRO889655FTC	2/23/2016	Kennedy, Alesia Edwards	Alesia Edwards Kennedy	6219			X		X		Trust incorrectly listed this as the motion at docket # 6216, which is a motion on behalf of a different injured party. The motion at docket 6219 alleges an October 2012 diagnosis; just became aware of all of the information that her area was affected by the chemicals and that a claim needed to get filed. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. 55	TRO890069FTC	2/23/2016	Grant, Alexandra	Alexandra Grant	3535			X				Diagnosed 1994, living in New Orleans and mail not forwarded and allegedly was dealing with hurricane Katrina, but Hurricane Katrina was in 2005, long before the bar date in August 2009. Says the bar date was not advertised in New Orleans area, but notice of the bar date was published in cities where plants had been located and in the national edition of the Wall Street Journal. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

57	TRO897153FTC	5/4/2016	Blunt, Alexis	Alexis Blunt	6588		X	X			X	Diagnoses 1975, 1994, 2014; says publication notice of the claims filing deadline was not reasonable; also says was a child at the time, but since alleged exposure began in 1969 the claimant had to be at least 40 years old by the time of the 2009 bar date. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. 63	TRO901958FTC	9/14/2016	Bostick, Alexis	Alexus Bostick	6050			X				Filing for father; says diagnosis before 2009 but does not say when; says discharge of claim is violation of due process, unaware of the claims process. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
64	Unknown	2/23/2016	Williams, Alexis	Alexus Williams	7866			X				Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. 66	TRO888293FTC	12/18/2015	Norton, Alfonso	Alfonso Norton	6900		X	X				1998 diagnosis; unaware of the Tronox bankruptcy case and the bar date; not aware and had no knowledge of any publication via television or other media; says there is no suggestion that he knew or should have known that he was a potential creditor in the Tronox bankruptcy case; did not have any notice from Tronox; says that after he learned he researched and acted within a reasonable time. Says the notice was inadequate; does not get any newspapers in which notice was published; says did not read or see any ad or notice on social media about chapter 11 case; says that the tort claimants could not have known or appreciated at the time of the bar date, the significance the injuries suffered from exposure and how it could manifest in different ways over time, in physical and emotional injuries; proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice was not given. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. However, claimant also mentions trying to file a claim in 2002. A supplement filed at docket #8120, says diagnosis for palpitations after bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

69	TRO885938FTC	11/25/2015	Smith, Alfonzo	Alfonzo Smith	3358		X	X				Diagnosed 1980. "Had filed previous claim with no correspondes [sic] from Tronox. Did not realized I was qualified to reapply." Was part of prior litigation with Colon law firm. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Dealings with Colom firm confirm awareness of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim either was resolved in prior litigation or, if not, it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
70	TRO903499FTC	11/23/2016	Sims, Alforzinie	Alforzinie Sims	5679			X		X		Alleges first diagnosis on August 30, 2009; did not have knowledge of the bankruptcy case, deadline date, and lack of knowledge on how to complete a claim for excusable neglect; unaware of exposure to chemicals. Also complains of "someone portraying to represent Tronox Trust" that misled them to refer to certain chemicals; trust did not exist as of the bar date, so this must relate to the late-filed claim. Also files the standard letter that refers to an unnamed person who allegedly misled residents. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a post-bar date diagnosis is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
71	TRO901286FTC	8/16/2016	Shirley, Sadie	Alfred Shirley	4364			X				Movant is filing on behalf of mother. The injured party died in November 2005; did not receive any type of notice during times of exposure and manifestation, relied on home remedies. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
72	TRO880476FTC	12/4/2015	Simon, Minnie	Alfred Simon	5370	8091		X				2007 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2007; rep says publication notice not reasonably calculated to give notice; violates due process; lack of adequate notice. A supplement filed at docket #8091, says trusts omnibus objection was late, that the trust should have petitioned the court for more money to distribute and that residents could have been considered known claimants. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. There was no deadline for the Trust's objection and so its objection was not late. Trust has no access to additional funds and the Court has no power to provide additional funds for the reasons stated in the accompanying Decision. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

73	TRO893285FTC	2/23/2016	Shirley, Howard	Alfred W. Shirley	4346		X	X				Motion filed by former resident of Columbus, MS on behalf of his father. The injured party had symptoms in 1965/1970; diagnosis date unknown but injured party died in 2002. Rep was unaware of any claims, rep moved to another state. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
74	TRO898311FTC	Unknown	Hill-Walker, Alfreda	Alfreda Hill-Walker	7975		X	X			X	Not included in Trust's summary. Diagnoses 1997 and October 2009; previously filed with Colom law firm in 2002 class action, result not stated; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to why missed the bar date. Claims based on 1997 diagnosis either were resolved in a prior action or, if not, were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim based on a condition first diagnosed after the bar date (including any defenses as to the diagnosis date and defenses as to the effect of the prior class action) are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
75	TRO893982FTC	3/2/2016	Townsel, Alfronzia	Alfronzia Townsel	6487		X	X			X	Says did not find out about the claim until after bar date; says some of her conditions were diagnosed after bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
76	TRO904636FTC	Unknown	Chandler, Kobe	Alguana Chandler	7214						X	Not included in Trust's summary. 2009 diagnosis; says previously filed with atty Bambach, paperwork lost. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Attorney Bambach had direct notice of the bar date. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

77	TRO889586FTC	2/23/2016	Martin, Alice	Alice Martin	6265			X		X		Various alleged diagnoses dates, some in 1998/99, most after the bar date; place of exposure not clear; says did not have knowledge of an ongoing case. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
78	TRO888837FTC	12/30/2015	Mays, Alice	Alice Mays	5278	8369		X		X		The correct claim number to which this motion relates is TRO888837FTC. Says symptoms and diagnosis between 2011 and 2013; unaware of Tronox bankruptcy case; copied form language as to reasons why did not file a claim; a relative filed a supplement at docket #8369 that mentions a condition not mentioned in the motion and does not say the date of diagnosis. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
79	TRO898039FTC	6/20/2016	Peterson, Alice	Alice Peterson	6965			X				1963 diagnosis; says she was ill in 2009 and was back and forth to doctor appointments. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
80	TRO886198FTC	12/7/2015	Thompson, Alice	Alice Thompson	3846		X	X		X		Diagnosis for diabetes 1994, other condition 2004, blindness 2010. Says disabled and had no knowledge of bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to conditions based on pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on pre-2006 diagnoses also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
81	TRO901280FTC	8/16/2016	Dent, Annie	Alice White	4584			X		X		Trust incorrectly listed this motion as being filed at dkt # 4390. The injured party is deceased; rep says symptoms and diagnosis were in 2014. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
82	TRO905444FTC	Unknown	Burgin, Alicia	Alicia Burgin	8024			X				Not included in Trust's summary. No excuse provided; did not provide dates for symptoms or diagnosis. Does not allege lack of knowledge of bar date, contains no showing to support relief based on excusable neglect or due process.

Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
117	TRO884176FTC	11/25/2015	Conner, Geraldine	Amanda Crowell	3452			X		X		Says she did file (it appears with Garretson) but she called and they did not have them and they mailed her more forms. Dispute over an alleged prior timely filing is for resolution by the Tort Claims Trust, is not a claim for relief from the bar date based on excusable neglect or due process.
118	TRO886740FTC	12/7/2015	Slayton, Amanda Klimasiewfski	Amanda Klimasiewfski Slayton	7157			X		X		Unaware of bar date; do not read Wall Street Journal and it was not public knowledge; unaware of bankruptcy case; says conditions diagnosed after bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
119	TRO893656FTC	3/2/2016	Winston, Amanda	Amanda Winston	6481			X		X		Was not aware of the claims or the filing dates; says symptoms in 1995 and diagnosis 2010. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, therefore no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
120	TRO885650FTC	11/25/2015	Smith, Louisa	Amario Smith	4790		X	X				2003 diagnosis; injured party died in 2017; rep says that the injured party was unaware of the proceedings; in a letter submitted with the claim, a reference is made to guidance from Colom & Lundy; also says the proceedings were not made public in the community and some persons held private meetings with only minimal details to the community. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

121	TRO891338FTC	2/23/2016	Brooks, Amber	Amber Brooks	8411			X		X		2010 diagnosis. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
122	TRO885455FTC	11/25/2015	Johnson, Amber	Amber Johnson	3397	8233		X				Diagnosed "yes," no reasons given for missing deadline. States that "I filed my claim at the same time as some of the ones you are allowing to be a future tort claim." A supplemental letter filed at docket #8233. A supplemental letter complaining about the process filed at docket #8647. Filing "future tort claim" in 2015 does not excuse failure to file by bar date, no grounds alleged upon which relief from the bar date could be granted.
123	TRO902241FTC	9/14/2016	Smith, Amberlexis	Amberlexis Smith	6962						X	Diagnosis in 1997 or 1998, as child; relocated to another county and was not aware of the claim. Age at time of bar date unclear. Will permit supplemental submission to verify age as of the bar date and to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
124	TRO897209FTC	5/4/2016	Brandon, Ambroscha	Ambroscha Brandon	8409						X	1992 diagnosis (at birth); had no knowledge "until EPA came to Maranatha Faith Center;" says that when she was at the meeting at the faith center, she did the paperwork but does not mention date. Learned a year ago that "the case has been reopen." Movant apparently was a minor as of the bar date. Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.
125	TRO898214FTC	6/20/2016	Lloyd, Amy	Amy Lloyd	4882		X	X				2003/2004 diagnosis. Says was unaware of bar date. 126	TRO892196FTC	2/23/2016	Lockett, Amy	Amy Lockett	4201			X			X	2002 asthma diagnosis, 2015 migraines. Never received notice to file a claim; assumed company used proper disposal and business practices. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 127	TRO892017FTC	2/23/2016	Irizarry, Amy (Munson)	Amy Munson Irizarry	8362	8126	X	X				1969 diagnosis; previously filed with Colom law firm; says a claim was filed in 2000-2001, but was closed due to rejecting the $600 offered as unacceptable. Complains that others who lived further away were compensated and she was not. She wants reconsideration of her claim. She says not aware of the dangers posed by the dangerous substances. A supplement filed at docket #8126, says moved away from area; unaware of bar date, insufficient notice. Participation in prior class action shows awareness of claim and rights. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. If claim was not resolved and was not the subject of a pending proceeding, then it was time-barred before the Tronox bankruptcy. If the claim was the subject of a still- pending proceeding, it should have been filed by the bar date, because counsel received direct notice of the bar date.
128	TRO884093FTC	11/13/2015	Williams, Amy	Amy Williams	4032		X	X			X	Different conditions, some diagnosed before 2006, some between 2006 and bar date, some after the bar date. Says no knowledge that condition was caused by Tronox chemicals; was young and in college. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

129	TRO892100FTC	2/23/2016	Tate, Anderson III	Anderson Tate III	6975	8245		X				The motion at docket #6975 for Anderson Tate III [TRO892100FTC], and he filed it himself. The motion for Anderson Tate [TRO898721FTC] is at docket #5735. The excuse for Alexander Tate III is that he was away from college during the 2009 claims period. A supplement filed at docket #8245, says unaware of the bar date, was away at school from 2006-2010 and unaware could file a claim. No explanation for lengthy delay between bar date and actual clam filing date. Says exposure began 7/8/88 so was at least 21 years old as of the bar date. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
130	TRO894741FTC	3/23/2016	Farmer, Andre	Andre Farmer	3751		X	X		X		Ulcer and heart issues in 2000, diagnosed with cancer in 2010. Jones at a different address and with a different claim number [TRO890012FTC] is at docket # 6274. The Trust's summary incorrectly referenced the motion at docket #5917 as the motion which actually is at docket # 6274. The motion by Andre Jones on behalf of Lula Jones [TRO890012FTC] says the injured party was diagnosed in 1984 and died in 1985; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons for not filing. A supplement filed at docket #8357, rep says without knowledge to wade through process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

132	TRO902873FTC	10/13/2016	Thiede, Donald	Andrea Cooper	6345			X				August 2003 diagnosis; the injured party died in 2005; rep says could not file because of the duress present at that time involving the onset of mental health concerns of rep's daughter, a juvenile. Rep says that It required the most undivided attention, the fullest participation and the closest care; will provide daughter's health information on request but she does not provide the exact dates of this psychiatric care other than saying claim was not able to be filed by August 2009. Does not deny knowledge of the bar date, and while circumstances may explain missing the August 2009 date they do not explain or justify the lengthy delay before filing a claim in October 2016, more than seven years later. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

138	Unknown	12/4/2015	Lowe, Patricia	Andrea Stanley	7238	8363		X				1997 diagnosis; notice was not provided directly to claimant who allegedly was known to have a claim, but no supporting information explaining how or why Tronox allegedly knew of the claim; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice but provides no explanation or details; says did not know or have reason to know she was exposed to a Tronox product. A supplement filed at docket # 8363, claimant did not subscribe to the Wall Street Journal. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Says movant lived in Maryville, IL in 2009, but notice of the bar date also was published in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in June 2009, and St. Louis is only about 18 miles from Maryville. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

Will permit supplemental submission to explain reasons why parents or guardians did not file, why claimant waited so many years after the bar date before filing a claim, and whether relief is warranted.

157	TRO881008FTC	12/4/2015	Dale, Angela	Angela Dale	7234		X	X				1983 diagnosis; unaware of bar date; no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product; says publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice to claimants; does not read the Wall Street Journal. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.
158	TRO892527FTC	2/23/2016	Gardner, Angela	Angela Gardner	7117	8305	X	X				1966 diagnosis; moved from Columbus, MS and was not aware of the claim process. A supplement filed at docket #8305, did not know about the case. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
159	TRO898216FTC	6/20/2016	Gardner, Angela	Angela Gardner	7210	7211					X	2006 and 2008 diagnoses; claimant says unable to file proof of claim because incapacitated due to chemotherapy treatment that commenced on 10/29/2008 and continued throughout 2009, it resulted in increasing side effects and illness; was not mentally or physically fit at time bar date was announced to respond and make a claim; not aware of the announcement. Does not explain many years' delay after the bar date before a claim was filed. Separate legal memo argues that claimant is entitled to relief based on excusable neglect but only addresses lack of knowledge and not other factors, including long delay after bar date before filing any claim, lack of evidence of diligence in pursuit of claim, and effect on proceedings. Also argues that due process required direct notice but does not allege that Tronox had knowledge of this claim or this claimant and does not criticize the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

160	TRO899952FTC	7/25/2016	Graham, Angela	Angela Graham	4151		X	X				2004 diagnosis. Says moved, was unaware of bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
161	Unknown	Unknown	Hackman, Angela B.	Angela Hackman	8399			X		X		Not included in Trust's summary. February 2010 diagnosis; says that she did not have injuries to report at time of bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
162	N/A	Unknown	Johnson, Angela	Angela Johnson	8461			X		X		Merely a trust tort claim form, not a motion or a request for relief. Claims should be ruled upon in the first instance by the Tort Claims Trust.
163	TRO895014 FTC	3/23/2016	Love, Angela	Angela Love	6970		X	X		X		Various diagnoses, some before bar date, some after; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 1998; unaware of the Tronox bankruptcy case; did not see any of the publication notice regarding deadline nor did she learn of it from other media. She did later see the notice from the Trust concerning the future tort claims and the application. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. If claims based on diagnoses before 2006 were not resolved in a prior proceeding then they were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
164	TRO887242FTC	12/14/2015	Mitchell, Angela	Angela Mitchell	5916		X	X				2000 diagnosis; did not hear anything about the Tronox claims process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

183	TRO900591FTC	8/16/2016	Foote, Nellie	Anita Foote	5526		X	X				1974 diagnosis; the injured party is deceased; rep unaware of a lawsuit against Tronox during 2009; says nobody discusses lawsuits "until (1) after they've received their settlement, (2) deadline is within the next week or less, and (3) you walk up on someone discussing someone else's business." Rep says did not see any advertisement about anything during that time via television or newspaper. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
184	TRO889266FTC	2/23/2016	Jackson, Anita	Anita Jackson	7332			X		X		December 2009 diagnosis. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. 185	TRO881027FTC	12/4/2015	Turel, Richard	Anita Turel	7162			X		X		Various conditions, leukemia diagnosis in 2008, cancer and precancerous lesion in 2017; says was incompetent and incapacitated at time of bar date once started chemo; focused on medical procedures; provides detailed letter of the effects of treatment. Explains failure to file in 2009 but does not explain lengthy delay before actual filing of claim. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
186	TRO891472FTC	2/23/2016	Profiet, Anitra	Anitra Profiet	7561		X	X				Diagnoses 1991, 2000, 2004; former resident of Columbus, MS; previously filed with the Colom law firm in 2000-2001; if he had known that the claim was not accepted, he would have refiled; was not aware of the 2009 deadline as was not residing in Mississippi at the time. Seems to think that the bankruptcy case is connected to the prior class action, which is not correct. If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
188	TRO897731FTC	5/25/2016	Brennan, Ann	Ann Brennan	5030			X				Lists 2007 as her first diagnosis date; says husband's cancer was diagnosed in 1993 and lymphoma in 1996 and he received a settlement in a prior class action; says she thought she could not file for her illness because her husband had previously received the class action settlement. Does not allege lack of knowledge of the bar date, does not allege consultations with counsel or other efforts to clarify her rights, insufficient showing to warrant relief based on excusable neglect.
189	TRO891278FTC	2/23/2016	Treadwell, Ann	Ann Treadwell	4661		X	X				1986 diagnosis. Unaware of bar date. Says she filed after she called the Trust and was told there was no deadline. Trust did not exist at the time of the bar date so such a call does not explain a failure to file in 2009. In addition, there was no deadline as to claims based on post-bar date diagnoses, so any advice to that effect was correct. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 190	TRO905755FTC	4/24/2017	Lis, Alexander	Anna Donovan	5654			X				1958 diagnosis; the injured party died in 1965; rep says that it never occurred to him to file a claim. When the judge granted him another chance in June 2016, he decided to file the claim. (Appears to be under the impression that the bar date was simply lifted for everyone in 2016.) Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of PA starting in 2001. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

If claim was resolved in a prior proceeding it could no longer be asserted in the Tronox bankruptcy, the bankruptcy process cannot be used to complain about a lawsuit outcome from years earlier. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 195	TRO893071FTC	2/23/2016	Billups, Jessie	Anne Billups	5785		X	X				1980 and 1985 diagnoses; the injured party is deceased; rep says did not receive any documents pertaining to the judgment against Kerr-McGee; not informed of deadline; unaware of the creosote contamination or the severity of it; form of notice deficient on its face; publication notice not reasonable calculated to provide notice; did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Says notice was deficient in its terms but does not say how. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Prior dealings with attorney show awareness of claim and legal rights. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
199	TRO886713FTC	12/7/2015	Davis, Julian	Annette Davis	3901	4142	X	X				Filing on behalf of child who died in 1991. Says unaware exposed prior to deadline. Signature page filed at docket 4142. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
200	TRO886714FTC	12/7/2015	Davis, Jordan	Annette Davis	3902	4143	X	X				Filing on behalf of son, was told cause by doctor in 1990. Says unaware exposed prior to deadline. Signature page filed at docket 4143. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge of bar date but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. 201	TRO897188FTC	5/4/2016	Hill, Annette	Annette Hill	5851			X				2007 diagnosis; standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why did not file by bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
202	TRO890619FTC	2/23/2016	Savors, Annette	Annette Savors	5388			X		X		Various diagnoses alleged, all post-bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no basis for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
203	TRO893137FTC	2/23/2016	Stewart, Annette	Annette Stewart	3522		X	X				Diagnosed 1997, "did not understand, I only have a third grade education." But also alleges making a claim "back when the lawsuit began." Unclear if reference to prior claim is to a class action that preceded the bankruptcy case. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and reasons why filed so long after the bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
204	TRO898525FTC	6/27/2016	Thompson, Annette	Annette Thompson	5882			X		X		No excuse provided; says conditions after bar date but also refers to having asthma as a child, which would have been before bar date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.

205	TRO887196FTC	12/14/2015	Wallace, Annette	Annette Wallace	4303			X			X	Alleges 2010 diagnosis but also says previously filed with Colom law firm, part of 2002 class action. Cut-and-pasted language as to reasons for not filing. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
206	TRO887144FTC	12/14/2015	Wallace, Willie	Annette Wallace	8517	8829	X	X				1994 diagnosis. Standard cut-and-pasted form language as to reasons why missed the bar date. A supplemental letter filed at docket #8829 complaining about the process. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
207	TRO902146FTC	9/14/2016	Ames, Annie	Annie Ames	4272		X	X				No diagnosis date listed, symptoms started around 1990. Says unaware of the claims and process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Appears that the claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
208	TRO895139FTC	3/23/2016	Barry, Willie	Annie Barry	5598	8337	X	X				Diagnoses in 1972, 1980 and 2000; the injured party died in 2001; rep did not have knowledge of ongoing case; did not receive call, letter or information from TV or radio. A supplement filed at docket #8337, without knowledge to wade through the process. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
209	TRO886370FTC	12/7/2015	Boone, Annie	Annie Boone	8408			X				Merely a signed motion form, no excuse offered.

210	TRO898338FTC	6/20/2016	Bowens, Annie	Annie Bowens	7754			X			X	2012-13 diagnosis; says an attorney made a claim in 2013 but attorney is deceased; says did not receive notice of bar date. No pre-bar date diagnosis identified for which relief is sought, no grounds for relief based on excusable neglect or due process. Any claim as to a condition first diagnosed after the bar date is to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures. Trustee contends the motion was not filed within 90 days after Determination Notice, but that deadline is relevant only to the request for relief from the bar date as to pre-bar date claims, movant has only identified post-bar date claims to be pursued.
211	TRO895694FTC	3/24/2016	Brown, Annie	Annie Brown	7031		X	X				2005 diagnoses; cites to portions of Trust form (examples of grounds for excusable neglect) alleging that form of notice was deficient on its face, but does not identify any deficiencies; says did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
212	TRO896016FTC	4/6/2016	Davis, Jeff	Annie Davis	5974		X	X				November 2006 diagnosis; the injured party deceased 2007; rep says filled out all of the paperwork, makes no reference to the 8/12/09 bar date or to reasons why missed it. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect.

213	Unknown	11/25/2015	Dent, Annie	Annie Dent	7854	8537	X	X				1997/98 symptoms and diagnoses; previously filed with the Colom law firm and received a $360 payment; says she signed with lawyer at a local hotel in Columbus prior to 2009; says did not receive notice of the Tronox bankruptcy litigation or the bar date. A supplemental letter filed complaining of process at docket #8537. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Claim resolved in a prior proceeding could not be re-asserted in Tronox bankruptcy case. Counsel in the class action (the Colom firm) received notice of the bar date. Alleges lack of direct notice but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant, no specific challenge to the publication notices that were approved in 2009. No record that any attorney filed a claim in 2009. Conduct of counsel is not grounds for relief based on excusable neglect unless counsel's conduct can be excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. If claim was not resolved in a prior proceeding then it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
214	TRO892534FTC		Dixon, Annie	Annie Dixon	4401		X	X				A summary by the Trust incorrectly referred to Annie Dixon's motion as docket # 3700 but that motion is by Emma Harris [TRO891965FTC]. Ms. Dixon's motion is at docket # 4401 and is based on a 1988 diagnosis; she contends that publication notice was not reasonably calculated to provide notice. Alleges publication notice was not reasonable but no showing that Tronox had reason to know of claimant. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

215	TRO905537FTC	3/28/2017	Fields-Young, Annie	Annie Fields-Young	4822		X	X			X	Some conditions (bronchitis, skin irritations) diagnosed in 1970s and 1980s, kidney failure in 2008, lupus in 2010. Says did not know and no reason to know exposed to a Tronox product, since learning of exposure she traced illnesses to her exposure to the product. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect as to claims based on pre-bar date diagnoses. Claims based on conditions diagnosed before 2006 also were time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
216	TRO887932FTC	8/16/2016	Gibbs, Annie	Annie Gibbs	6057		X	X				1955 and 1959 diagnoses; did not file "on first time around" because did not know about it, filed "on second time;" did not know about the lawsuit; did not read or hear about a deadline for filing. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
217	TRO886279FTC	12/7/2015	Gore, Annie	Annie Gore	3583		X	X				Diagnosed 1990, says filed with Colom law firm in 1999. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Actions of attorneys are not grounds for excusable neglect or due process relief unless the attorneys' actions are excused. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim also was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.

218	TRO887239FTC	12/14/2015	Harris, Annie	Annie Harris	7686			X			X	Alleges 2009 diagnosis (when in 2009 is not clear); said she sent in papers 3 times and that she called and was told it was pending (it appears this is a reference to the late filing with the trust). Diagnosis in 2009, no date listed. Trustee contends the motion was untimely but it will be accepted based on the postmark date. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses. Merits of any claim alleging conditions first diagnosed after the bar date are to be resolved by the Tort Claims Trust under its dispute resolution procedures.
219	TRO888841FTC	12/30/2015	Harrison, Annie	Annie Harrison	3562		X	X				Diagnosed 1998, alleges made claim through Colom law firm in 2000. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Participation in prior proceeding shows awareness of claim and of legal rights. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief based on excusable neglect. Claim either was resolved in a prior proceeding or, if not, it was time-barred under the applicable statute of limitations before the Tronox bankruptcy filing.
220	TRO894907FTC	3/23/2016	Hill, Annie	Annie Hill	6801		X	X			X	Unaware of the deadline; refers to several conditions like hypertension in 1978, 1988 and 2008, then says stroke 2009. Risks of creosote exposure and filings of claims based on the same were the subjects of widespread publicity in the relevant areas of MS starting before 2000. Alleges lack of actual knowledge but no showing as to other relevant factors (including diligence in investigation and pursuit of claims and legal rights, reason why filed so long after bar date), not sufficient for relief as to pre-bar date diagnoses.
